IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR PROVO DIVISION, UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF CANDACE WAGNER,
Petitioner,

and

AARON ARTHUR WAGNER,
Respondent.

ORDER ON MOTION TO ENFORCE
(APRIL 15, 2026) AND JUDGMENT

Civil No. 244401694
Judge Shawn R. Howell
Commissioner Marian Ito

A hearing on Respondent's Motion to Enforce came before the Court on April 15, 2026, the honorable Commissioner Marian Ito presiding. Petitioner was present, appearing pro se. Respondent was present and represented by counsel, Kristin Jacobs. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings on file, the arguments of the parties, and good cause appearing, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED

1. Petitioner's Objection to the recording is overruled. Petitioner knew there was a recording device right there and that recording was or could have been happening. The recording from January 11, 2026 is admissible.

2. Disparaging Aaron to the Children and Contempt. There is clear and convincing evidence of contempt. There is an Order, the Domestic Relations Injunction. Petitioner knew of that Order. Petitioner had the ability to comply but willfully failed to do so. Petitioner is sanctioned with 5 days of jail. The sanction is stayed pending Petitioner's compliance with the Domestic Relations Injunction as it relates to disparaging Respondent to the children. If Petitioner disparages Respondent to the children again the Court will list the stay of the jail sentence.

3. Failure to Cooperate with Family Systems Therapy and Contempt. There is clear and convincing evidence of contempt. Petitioner is in contempt for not complying with the Court's orders concerning Family Systems Therapy. Petitioner can purge her contempt by immediately complying with the Court's orders in getting the children started with family systems therapy again and taking them to appointments as directed by the therapist. The parties will contact Unified Family Therapy to determine if they will resume therapy with the family. If they will not resume therapy, then family systems therapy must begin with Hugh Pinnock, unless the parties agree to something else in writing, or the Judge orders otherwise.

4. Failure to Provide Travel Notification and Contempt. There is an Order, the Domestic Relations Injunction. Petitioner did not deny that she had violated the Order. There is clear and convincing evidence of contempt. Petitioner is in contempt for not providing travel notifications to Respondent as required by the Domestic Relations Injunction.

5. Petitioner is ordered to review the Domestic Relations Injunction and become familiar with the terms because it is binding and compliance is mandatory.

6. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Respondent has substantially prevailed and is granted his reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Judgment is entered for $2,415.00 against Petitioner, in favor of Respondent, for his fees.

END OF ORDER

This Order is enforceable upon entry by the Court as indicated by the signature, date and seal located on page one in the top right-hand corner.

Notice Pursuant to Rule 7(f)(2) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure
