Parent-time

9. The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule:

The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule.

a. This Amended Stipulation supersedes and replaces the previously filed Stipulation. Katelyn Marie Means and Phoenix Samuel Means agree to follow the Minimum parent-time (UT Code 81-9-302, 81-9-304), with these additional specifications: 1. While the minor child is 0 to 5 years old, the mid-week visitation will begin at 5:30 PM and if Phoenix Samuel Means is home the next day, it will conclude at 9:30 AM the following day. If Phoenix Samuel Means is not home the day following the mid-week visit, the visit will go from 5:30 PM until 7:30 PM that same evening. 2. Phoenix Samuel Means will have the minor child alternating weekends beginning Friday night at 5:30 PM concluding Sunday evening by 7:30 PM. 3. The minor child has a church membership record with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; this membership record will stay with Katelyn Marie Means' Ward. Both parents will support the minor child in attending scheduled ward meetings and activities. On non-holiday weekends where Phoenix Samuel Means has the minor child, the minor child will return to Katelyn Marie Means' home Saturday evening by 7:30 PM if the church services begin before 10:30 AM. If church services begin after 10:30 AM, the minor child will be returned to Katelyn Marie Means' home 1 hour prior to church beginning on Sunday. On the weekends in which Phoenix Samuel Means has the minor child, the minor child will return to Phoenix

Samuel Means' home after the church services have concluded. When there are non-Sunday church activities (i.e., Primary activities, Young Women activities, Ward campouts, etc.), the parent that has the minor child will make the child available to attend these activities and will coordinate with Katelyn Marie Means on getting the minor child to these activities. When the minor child attends a church activity, this time is not considered missed visitation and the time will not be made up at another time. 4. There will be a grace period of 15 minutes for picking up the minor child. If the parent picking up the minor child will be more than 15 minutes late, this parent will notify the other parent via text message or email prior to the end of this 15 minutes. If no written notification is provided to the parent, then the visiting parent forfeits the right of visitation until the next routinely scheduled visitation. 5. Only immediate family members to Katelyn Marie Means and Phoenix Samuel Means are allowed to be living in their respective residence during visitation. If an unrelated person will be staying at the residence for one or more nights during the time of planned visitation with the minor child, the parent exercising visitation must notify the other parent via text message or email prior to the date of planned visitation and get approval from the other parent via text message or email prior to the date of planned visitation. If this communication does not take place at least one day before planned visitation, or approval is not given by the other parent, that parent will forfeit visitation until the unrelated person is no longer staying overnight at the residence. 6. Either parent will forfeit visitation if any illegal substance is in their residence, even if the minor child is not present. Visitation will be allowed only at the discretion of the custodial parent. 7. Either parent will forfeit visitation if they use an illegal substance or drink alcohol, even if the minor child is not present. Visitation will be allowed only at the discretion of the custodial parent.

Parent-time for special occasions

10. The parents will follow the schedule for special occasions below. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school. Communication with the children

17. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

18. Parents and children may communicate with each other:

- At any reasonable times:
- Weekends between 08:00 AM and 10:00 PM.
- Holidays between 08:00 AM and 10:00 PM.
- School days 08:00 AM and 09:00 PM.
- School vacation days 08:00 AM and 10:00 PM.
- By any method

19. Other terms about communication with the children: Neither parent will disparage the other parent in front of the minor child, nor will they allow anyone else to disparage the other parent in the presence of the minor child. This includes talking in front of the minor child, speaking within earshot of the minor child, or anything in writing the minor child may see through letters, text messages, games, etc.

Records and information sharing

20. Other terms regarding records and information sharing:

Both parents will have access to records for education, child care, health care, and religion. Custodial parent will have primary decision making regarding education, health care, and religion.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 1 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 30 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

23. Other agreements about travel by the children: Traveling is defined as staying overnight away from the visiting parent's home address. In addition, if the child will be traveling for more than 100 miles (this includes one-way mileage, roundtrips, and travel with or without an overnight stay that equals 100 miles away from custodial parent address), the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. The parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 30 days in advance. During the travel, the child must be restrained appropriately for the entire drive (i.e., car seat, booster seat, seatbelt, back seat) and the child must be in the same vehicle as the parent.

Child care

24. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

Other qualifications: Parents have the first right of refusal which requires a parent to offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the minor child before using a babysitter or third party when the parent is unable to be with the child for more than 8 hours.

25. Other terms about child care: The non-custodial parent will be responsible for 100% of the daycare cost until the minor child begins kindergarten or the custodial parent remarries or begins to work. If the custodial parent remarries the new responsibility will be 50/50. Once kindergarten begins, the custodial parent will be responsible for 100% of the daycare cost. Both parties must agree on the daycare provider.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

26. If either parent moves more than 149 miles from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

27. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

- i. Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and
- ii. spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

- i. the entire winter school break period; and
- ii. the fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes; and

c. extended parent-time equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children will be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent will be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (5) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

28. Other terms about relocating: If either parent relocates more than 150 miles from original location and each other, travel expenses will be shared equally.

29. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the the parent who moved.

30. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

31. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

32. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

33. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Katelyn Marie Means) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

34. Katelyn Marie Means's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1257. Katelyn Marie Means receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Phoenix Samuel Means) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

35. Phoenix Samuel Means's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3061. Phoenix Samuel Means receives the following gross monthly income:

36. The adjusted gross monthly income for Phoenix Samuel Means is $3061.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

37. It is in the best interest of the children that Phoenix Samuel Means be ordered to pay child support to Katelyn Marie Means as follows:

a. $362.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

38. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

39. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

40. The base child support amount using the joint custody calculation is $362 per month.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

41. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

42. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

43. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

- a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:
150 East Center Street, Suite 2100 Provo, Utah 84606
unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

44. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

45. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

46. Phoenix Samuel Means will pay any ORS fees. If Katelyn Marie Means is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Katelyn Marie Means, Phoenix Samuel Means will reimburse Katelyn Marie Means.

47. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

48. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

49. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

50. Phoenix Samuel Means may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Katelyn Marie Means may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

51. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

52. The parent who is able to obtain the most affordable medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Katelyn Marie Means's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Phoenix Samuel Means's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Katelyn Marie Means's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Phoenix Samuel Means's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

53. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
