IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

(b) In the matter of the marriage of: (c) PAMELA BRADLEY, Petitioner, vs. MAX BEAUDELL BRADLEY, (d) Respondent. (e)	(f) DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264401473 Judge: Roger W. Griffin Commissioner: Marla Snow (g)

The above entitled matter has been presented to the Court. Petitioner represented by Kyle C. Dart of Dart Law Offices. Respondent is pro se. Based upon the signed stipulation of the parties, the court therefore enters this Decree of Divorce and Judgment. The Court having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

GROUND AND JURISDICTION

1. Residency. Petitioner (hereinafter “Pamela”) has been a resident of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.
2. Marriage Statistics. Pamela and Respondent (hereinafter “Max”) were married on May 12th, 1989. They separated on or around October 31st, 2025.
3. Grounds. The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in their marriage and future together. Despite various efforts to reconcile and address their differences, meaningful communication between the parties has ceased. These efforts have proven unsuccessful, and the parties' differences have reached a point of irreconcilability, making the continuation of the marriage untenable. In light of the circumstances, the court is requested to grant a decree of divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CHILD CUSTODY

4. Children. There have been three children born as issue of this marriage. All of the children are legal adults.

ALIMONY

5. Alimony. Pamela should be awarded alimony in the sum of $550 per month from Max, commencing on April 1, 2026, and continuing until Pamela reaches 62 years of age, or until the occurrence of any of the following events: the death of either party, Pamela's remarriage, or Pamela's cohabitation with another person, whichever occurs first.

PROPERTY

6. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties are each awarded the personal property that is in his or her respective possession on the date of the Stipulation, or except where further specified as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2022 Hyundai Sonata	Pamela with any associated debt
2012 Chevrolet 2500	Max

a. The parties will pick up personal property from the marital home within 30 days from the date the Stipulation is signed at a mutually agreed upon time. Both parties will cooperate with each other in distributing the personal property.

7. Bank/Financial and HSA Accounts. During the marriage the parties acquired various bank and financial accounts which should be awarded as follows:

Account Description:	Approx. Balance	Awarded to:
Cyprus Credit Union Joint Checking	$5200	Pamela
Health Savings Account		The parties will continue to share this account until July of 2026. At that time, the balance of the account will be awarded to Pamela to transfer to her HSA account.

--	--	--

a. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired separate checking and savings accounts. Each party should be awarded the money in his or her separate checking, and/or savings accounts as his/her sole separate property with no claim by the other party. Pamela and Max have a joint account at Cyprus Credit Union which they will close by no later than 10 days from the signing of the Stipulation.

REAL PROPERTY

8. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired the following real property:

a. Real property located at 186 North 340 WEst, Payson, Utah. Pamela is awarded all right, title, and interest in and to said real property. Max hereby waives any right, title, or interest he may have in said real property. Max hereby agrees to continue to make the mortgage payments on the home until the existing mortgage balance is paid in full. Max will cooperate in executing a quit-claim deed to convey his interest in the home to Pamela.

b. Real property located at 427 Mesa Boulevard Unit 201, Mesquite, Nevada. Max is awarded all right, title, and interest in and to said real property. Pamela hereby waives any right, title, or interest she may have in said real property. Max hereby agrees to be responsible for the existing mortgage payment on this home. Pamela will cooperate in executing a quit-claim deed to convey her interest in the home to Max.

DEBTS/EXPENSES

9. Debts. Pamela and Max acquired debts and expenses during the marriage.

Each will assume, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

a. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

b. Other Debts. Each party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred. If any other joint debts are later discovered and not stated and divided herein, the person incurring the debt will be solely responsible for the payment thereof and should hold the other party harmless therefrom.

c. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

d. Notification to Creditors. The parties may notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

e. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

10. Retirement. 1 The parties acknowledge that during the marriage they accrued interests in various retirement benefits, including but not limited to 401(k) plans, 457 plans, pensions, and other employer-sponsored retirement or deferred compensation accounts. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Decree, the marital portion of all such retirement benefits accrued by either party during the marriage shall be divided equally between the parties (50% to each party). The marital portion shall include all contributions, accruals, and service credit earned from the date of the marriage through the date of entry of the Decree, together with any gains or losses attributable thereto until the date of distribution.

11. The Court retains jurisdiction to enter Qualified Domestic Relations Orders ("QDROs") or other appropriate Domestic Relations Orders necessary to accomplish the division of these retirement benefits in accordance with the Decree. Each party shall cooperate in the preparation, review, execution, and submission of any required QDROs or similar orders required by the applicable retirement plan administrator. Unless otherwise agreed in writing or ordered by the Court, the costs associated with preparation of any QDRO or other retirement division order shall be divided equally between the parties.

12. For defined contribution plans, including but not limited to 401(k) and 457 plans, the Alternate Payee shall be awarded fifty percent (50%) of the marital portion of the account balance, together with any investment gains or losses attributable to that portion from the date used for valuation until the date the funds are segregated and distributed pursuant to the QDRO.

13. For defined benefit pension plans, the parties' interests shall be divided pursuant to a shared payment formula, commonly referred to as the "time rule" formula, under which the Alternate Payee shall receive fifty percent (50%) of the marital portion of the participant's pension benefit, calculated by multiplying the participant's accrued benefit at the time of retirement by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of pension service earned during the marriage and the denominator of which is the participant's total months of pension service credit under the plan.

14. To the extent permitted by the applicable retirement plan, the Alternate Payee shall be designated as the surviving spouse for purposes of any pre-retirement survivor annuity and any post-retirement survivor benefit associated with the portion of the pension awarded herein, so as to protect the Alternate Payee's interest in the retirement benefit in the event of the participant's death. The parties shall cooperate in executing any documents necessary to effectuate such survivor benefit designation through the applicable QDRO or domestic relations order.

15. If any retirement benefit cannot be divided by QDRO because the plan is not subject to ERISA or requires a different form of domestic relations order, the Court retains continuing jurisdiction to enter such additional orders as may be necessary to effectuate the equal division of the marital portion of the retirement benefits consistent with this Decree.

MUTUAL RESTRAINT

16. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identity or financial standing post-divorce.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

17. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each of the parties should assume and pay their own attorney fees.

18. Former Name. Should she desire, Pamela should be restored to her former name of Pamela Briggs, if she so desires. The Court should enter an Order of Name Change, if necessary.

19. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Stipulation, and no provision will be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. This Stipulation will therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Agreement to be drafted. The Parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

20. The parties understand that their attorneys do not offer legal advice as to the tax implications herein and are aware that they have the right to seek advice from a tax expert as to the specific tax consequences to them prior to signing the Stipulation.

21. Both parties will sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

22. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

23. Full Disclosure. Each party warrants that they have provided a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. This means that both individuals are affirming they've fully disclosed all their financial matters, ensuring transparency in the division of assets and responsibilities.

a. Consequences of Non-Disclosure: Both parties acknowledge that any deliberate failure to disclose financial information fully could be considered perjury, a criminal offense. This highlights the seriousness of honest and complete disclosure during divorce proceedings.

b. Scope of Property: The property referred to in the stipulation includes all property to which either party has any legal or equitable interest, whether owned individually or jointly with the other party. This ensures that all assets, regardless of ownership type (joint or separate), are accounted for in the division.

c. In short, this provision seeks to ensure transparency, full financial disclosure, and accountability from both parties in the divorce process. It also establishes that any deliberate concealment or misrepresentation could have legal repercussions

24. The parties agree that the above-referenced court has jurisdiction to make a final determination in this action. The court has authority to enter final documents and a Decree based on the Stipulation of the parties.
