

Eric Lind (07920)
Attorney for Petitioner
9703 N 6670 W
Highland, UT 84003
(385) 208-8803
ericlindattorney@comcast.net

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – PROVO

UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

HANNAH RENAE OLSON,

Petitioner,

vs.

DANIEL MARK OLSON,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 264401342

Judge: Roger W. Griffin
Commissioner: Marian Ito

Based on the Settlement Stipulation between the parties regarding this cause of action in divorce, and upon review of the file before the court in this matter, and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

1. The parties are hereby divorced.
2. Petitioner has been a resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the filing this Petition.
3. Since the parties marriage on May 16, 2023 in Payson, Utah, and irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties making it impossible for the parties to continue living together as husband and wife.
4. No minor children have been born of this marriage, nor are any children shared in common between the parties.

5. Jurisdiction and venue are proper before this court pursuant to Utah Code 78B-3-205.

6. Neither party is receiving public assistance.

7. The parties are not the parents of any children together, either natural or adopted, and no children have been born of this marriage.

8. HEALTH, ACCIDENT, DENTAL AND LIFE INSURANCE. As there are no minor children of this marriage, each of the parties shall be responsible for their own health, dental, accident and life insurance.

9. TAX FILING. The parties shall file a joint tax return for the 2025 calendar year as they were married for that entire year and will share pro-rate any refund or pay pro-rata and remaining tax due. Thereafter, each party shall file their own independent tax returns.

Both parties will cooperate in providing the appropriate documentation and information necessary to file the tax return. The tax return should be filed timely without extension unless both parties agree otherwise.

10. DIVISION OF FINANCIAL ASSETS. The parties shall each keep the bank accounts and financial accounts and any money held in said accounts, in their own individual names. Hannah will be entitled to keep all money the Ally Bank account #xxxxxx5619.

11 PERSONAL PROPERTY. The parties will make the divisions set out below. Otherwise, the parties shall each keep the personal property currently in their possession. The following vehicles and vehicle loans are already in the name of each party and each party shall keep said vehicle and shall be responsible to pay any debt on said vehicle:

HANNAH

Will keep the 2020 Hyundai Elantra,

DANIEL

Will keep the 2019 Ford Fusion

12. NON-MARITAL PERSONAL PROPERTY. Both parties should be awarded their own personal property for which they received by way of inheritance, gifts, or owned prior to the marriage.

13. REAL PROPERTY. The parties acquired no real property during the course of the marriage and own no real property.

14. RETIREMENT & FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS. No retirement shall be divided between the parties. Each party will keep their own retirement money, including, but not limited to any retirement that accrued during the course of the marriage. This marriage was a marriage of short duration.

15. DEBTS. The parties do not have any debts in their joint names. All debts are in the parties individual names and each party shall pay for, and be responsible for the debt in their own individual name and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless as to the debts there are responsible for.

16. ALIMONY. No alimony shall be awarded to either party in this case.

17. CHANGE OF NAME. Hannah Renae Olson is hereby restored to her maiden name of Hannah Renae Smith.

18. MEDIATION/EVALUATION. If either party seeks to make any changes or modification to the final Decree they agree to first seek to resolve the matter in mediation. This provision does not limit either party in seeking enforcement of Court orders.

19. NO HARRASMENT. Both parties should agree to a mutual restraining order that requires the parties maintain civility and prohibit both parties from harassing, threatening to harass, or allowing third-parties to harass one another. That neither party will demean, belittle, or disparage the other party or permit any third-party to do that which they are prohibited from doing themselves.

20. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS. Both parties should be ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of the divorce decree, the other party may bring an Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

21. COURT CONTINUING JURISDICTION IF ASSETS NOT FULLY DISCLOSED. The parties agree that this stipulation and division of property, support and other financial interest are made with the assumption that each of the parties has fully disclosed all of their assets and financial interests. In the event that either party has failed to disclose any assets or financial holding or business interests, the parties agree that the court may reopen the case to equitably divide said financial asset, holding or business interest between the parties and may make any orders or modifications as necessary to equitably divide any such financial asset, holding or business interest. This modification power includes modification of child support and alimony if certain income has not been disclosed. The parties stipulate that the court has continuing jurisdiction to take this action and the parties expressly waive any statute of limitation that would prevent the court from doing so.

END OF ORDER