Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, WASATCH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: RILEY FACER, Petitioner, and MYKELLE FACER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE
	Civil No. 244500018 Judge Jennifer A. Mabey Commissioner Marla Snow

The parties have stipulated to all terms related to their divorce, as evidenced by the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement filed with the Court on April 21, 2026. Based upon the Parties' agreement and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered contemporaneously herewith, the Court GRANTS the Petition as set forth below, DECREES that the parties are divorced on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and further ORDERS as follows.

PARENTING PLAN

1. Custody/Parent time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree.

- a. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows for the two oldest minor children:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD
Week 2	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM

- i. The parties are awarded 50/50 custody such that each parent receives one week with the exchange occurring on Mondays with drop off to school or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

6. Legal Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate before court intervention. Both parties have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

- a. Medical.

- i. The parties shall continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care.
 - ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.
- b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.
- c. Educational Plan. The children shall continue to attend their current and matriculating schools unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.
- d. Religion: The children can have their ordinances will be performed at the customary age in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The ordinances shall be performed by the Father, if he is deemed worthy by his ecclesiastical leader. Both parties are entitled to attend the ordinances. The parents shall give written consent for ordinances to the ecclesiastical leader within 7 days of request.

The parties shall attend religious services with the children on their own respective parent-time as the parent chooses.

- e. Changing Parent-Time. There shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing. The parents shall not talk to the children about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change.
7. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties are bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.
8. Our Family Wizard. The parties shall utilize Our Family Wizard to exchange receipts and calendaring. The parties shall each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by April 30, 2026. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication. The parties shall not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. Any OFW communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the children. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed.
9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

10. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:
 - a. An itinerary of travel dates;
 - b. Destination;
 - c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;
 - d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.
 - e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times.
11. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.
12. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

13. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

14. Mutual Restraining.

- a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.
- b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.
- c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.
- d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

- e. Both parties shall be restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.
- f. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

15. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

16. Limitations. The parties shall not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner, or alcohol in excess while they are exercising parent-time. The parties shall not view pornography while they are exercising parent-time. Neither parent shall introduce the child to paramours until they have been in an exclusive committed relationship for 3 months.

17. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of the settlement agreement or any resulting orders, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

18. Activity Costs. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents are entitled to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.
19. School Fees. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

20. Children's Expenses. The parties shall each pay for one-half of the reasonable expenses for the children's cell phones, cell phone bills, and car insurance bills.
21. Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school-to-school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time shall provide all of the transportation.
22. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

23. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $2,600 per month. The Father's gross average monthly income is $19,137 per month.

- a. The parties have children on difference schedules and thus the average overnights was used per year indicated by the following table:

Father's Overnight	Mother's Overnight	Amount of Children	Amount of Child Support
170	195	3	$1,527
163	202	2	$1,511
145	220	1	$1,236

- b. The Father's child support obligation is $1,527 per month. Child support shall commence May 1, 2026.
- c. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child shall terminate at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.
- d. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.
24. Guardianship. The parties shall meet 8 months prior to their youngest son's 18th birthday to discuss options for SSDI, joint or sole guardianship, and any child support, if applicable. The parties shall mediate if they cannot come to a mutual decision.
25. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

- a. Each parent is ordered to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- b. Each parent is ordered to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party is responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.
- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

- e. Double coverage is not required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.
 - f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in the event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.
26. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time.
27. Dependency exemption. The parties are awarded the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:
- a. For 2025, Mother is entitled to claim all of the minor children.
 - b. For 2026, Father is entitled to claim all of the minor children.
 - c. Thereafter, while there are three minor children, the parties are awarded alternating dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children. The Father is entitled to claim 2 oldest children in odd-numbered tax years and the oldest child for even-numbered tax years and the Mother is entitled to claim 2 youngest children in even-numbered years and youngest child for odd-numbered tax years.

- d. While there are two minor children, the parties are each awarded one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother is entitled to claim the oldest child and Father is entitled to claim the youngest child.
- e. When there is only one minor child, the parties are awarded alternating dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother is entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father is entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.
- f. The Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

28. Real Property. The real property has been sold and equitably divided.

29. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item is responsible for any associated debt with the item and refinance debts in the other’s name within 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Volvo	Mother

Truck	Father
Tesla	Father
Dirt Bike	Father

- a. The Lexus shall be sold with the proceeds divided equally between the parties. If there are any repairs prior to sale, Father shall pay them.
 - b. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.
30. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debts in Father’s Name including but not limited to: Amex	Father
Debts in Mother’s Name including but not limited to <table><tr><td>Chase CC #4727</td></tr><tr><td>AMEX Mykelle</td></tr><tr><td>Wells Fargo CC #3940</td></tr></table>	Chase CC #4727	AMEX Mykelle	Wells Fargo CC #3940	Mother
Chase CC #4727
AMEX Mykelle
Wells Fargo CC #3940
The Citi Bank Debt was placed on the marital ledger for division and Mother is paying the full balance owing.	Mother

- a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.
- b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not addressed in the settlement agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the party responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it.

Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

- c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

31. Financial Accounts:

- a. The following accounts shall be equally divided between the parties on the date of division and no withdrawals shall be made prior to division:
 - i. The American First Account with the RZR sale with approximately $20,051.
 - b. The Charles Schwab with approximately $150,740 shall be divided with Mother receiving $81,134 and Father receiving $69,606.
 - c. Each party is awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts, except as designated herein.
32. Crypto. Each party is awarded ½ of the shares for their Crypto which is approximately 174,000,000 units. The parties shall utilize Brady Jones or another agree upon third party to assist with an equal division.

33. Foreign Money. The parties shall divide equally the Foreign Money in the Safe, with both parties being present for the division and each party being able to bring a third party with them for the division.
34. Retirement Accounts: The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of the Empower 401k and shall divide the amount with each awarded $\frac{1}{2}$ of the marital portion with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall use Fackrell & McLean to prepare their necessary documentation for division with each paying one-half of the cost.
35. Business Interest: Any interest in Domani LLC and HFS Pathway shall be divided equally and in the event it is transferred, merged, or procured by another company it is awarded 50% to each party. If a transfer of business interest is not possible, then each party is awarded one-half of any of the net proceeds received for the business.
36. Name: Mother has the option of restoring her name to Anderson.
37. Life Insurance. The parties are each awarded their own respective life insurance policies.
38. Alimony: The Father is ordered to pay Mother $5,448 per month for a term of 9 years unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments shall be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony shall commence on May 1, 2026 and shall terminate on April 30, 2035 unless other terminating factors occur prior.

39. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.
40. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
