IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N. Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In The Matter of The Marriage of:

CORINNE ALLEN, Petitioner,

MARK ALLEN, Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264400277

Judge Christine Johnson

Commissioner Marla Snow

This matter comes before the court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Stipulation of the parties was filed on May 21, 2026. The Court having reviewed the Stipulation and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner (“Corinne”) and Respondent (“Mark”) are hereby dissolved, and Corinne is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Mark on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions:

1. Residency. Corinne has been a resident of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on October 26, 1996, in Denver, Colorado, and are presently married.

3. Grounds. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties making continuation of the marriage impossible.

4. Minor Child. The parties have one minor child remaining: I.A. (born in May 2010) (the “Child”).

5. Home State. Utah is the home state of the Child pursuant to U.C.A. §78B-13-201(1)(a).

6. Joint Legal Custody & Joint Parenting Plan: The Parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the Child and incorporate the following provisions as a joint parenting plan to be bound to abide thereby:

- a. Dispute Resolution. The Parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the Child’s life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education. If the Parties disagree on a major decision regarding the Child, the Parties will first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. If the Parties still

- disagree on the issue, the parties will attend mediation, and, if unable to resolve in mediation, reserved for Court decision based upon the best interests of the Child.
- b. Notification of Activities and Appointments. The Parties will keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments for the Child. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the Child such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.
 - c. Child Records. Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the Child's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided for all third parties who interact with the Child (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, day care, etc.).
 - d. Medical Decisions. The Parties will use the current medical providers and will consult with each other before changes. Minor and day-to-day medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time, and emergency medical decisions will be decided by the parent in whose care the children are at the time of the emergency. Unless otherwise agreed, a Party must be present when taking the Child to medical appointment (for example, a romantic partner could not take the Child to a medical appointment).
 - e. Educational Plan: The party with the Child in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the Child's homework is complete and transporting the Child to and from school on time, if applicable. Both parties have the right to obtain educational information on the Child directly from educators and counselors without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission. Each party will be listed as a parent for the purposes of school contact. The Parties will share passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online.

- f. School Selection: Unless otherwise agreed or by Court order, the Child will remain within his existing school boundaries (i.e., the boundaries determined by the existing address of the marital home).
- g. Contact Information: The Parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other as soon as practical. The Parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the Child so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.).
- h. Communication with Parent: The Parties will communicate in writing through text messages or email, or by phone should the parties so agree or based on their mutual conduct. The Parties may use a phone call in the event of an emergency. Any communication between the Parties will be civil in nature and free from any disparaging comments, threats, or derogatory language. Except for extraordinary circumstances, the Parties will refrain from sending multiple messages in a day and each party will make their best efforts to respond to any messages within 48 hours.
- i. Communication with Child: Due to the age of the child the child will choose when and how often he will communicate with the parent who is not exercising parent-time at the time of the communication. Either parent may make reasonable house rules regarding electronics in his or her home and during his or her parent time.-

- j. Travel: When the Child is traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the Child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the Child's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19). For international travel with the Child, all of the above is required, but the notice of such travel must be given 30 days or more in advance (except for emergencies). The parties will cooperate in obtaining a passport for the Child (equally sharing the cost), and respond in obtaining travel permission, which will not be unreasonably withheld if the notice requirements are met.
- k. Right of First Refusal: Pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-202, parental care is presumed to be better for the Child than surrogate care. Therefore, if either party is available when the other parent is not available to personally care for the Child during their parent-time for a period of overnight or longer, they shall have the right of first refusal. A parent exercising the right of first refusal shall be solely responsible for picking the Child up and dropping them back off.
- l. Extracurricular Activities: If the Parties have agreed in writing to the Child's participation in an extracurricular activity, then they shall equally share the costs associated therewith. Parents will try to pay costs of agreed activities directly to the provider; however, if a parent agrees to the activity but cannot initially afford it, the other parent will pay all the cost directly, and the other parent will have 2 months to reimburse. Neither party is obligated to facilitate the Child's participation in an extracurricular activity during their parent-time if they did not agree to the Child's involvement. If a parent did not obtain agreement on an extracurricular activity, that parent will pay 100% of the cost and may not schedule that activity on the other parent's time without consent.

- m. Education-Related Expenses: The Parties shall be equally responsible for any and all of the Child's required educational-related expenses. This does not include private school unless mutually agreed in writing, which if agreed, will be divided equally. Each parent must buy him the necessary supplies that will be needed while the Child is in their care for school related activities, clothing, shoes, etc.
- n. I.A. Phone Plan. Mark will pay the monthly cost of I.A.'s phone on through June 2028.

7. Physical Custody: The Parties will be awarded joint physical custody of the Child as follows:

- a. Regular Parent-time Rotation. Parent-time will be as the Parties may agree, or, if the Parties do not agree, default to Utah Code 81-9-305, with school-to-school exchanges or 9am on the day of the exchange if school is not in session.
- b. Extended Summer Parent-time. Extended parent-time will be awarded pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305, with Mother selecting first in odd-numbered years, and Father selecting first in even-numbered years. Unless otherwise agreed, extended parent-time will not supersede awarded holidays as set forth below.
- c. Holiday Parent Time: The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code §81-9-303 as follows (except where modified below), which overrides the regular parent-time rotation:

d. Preference of I.A. for Parent-time. Given the older age of the Child, actual implementation of parent-time will be subject to I.A.'s desires, which must be spontaneously expressed and not under questioning by either parent. In addition to the other Mutual Restraining Orders set forth below involving the Child, neither parent is permitted to attempt to encourage more parent-time with them or discourage parent-time with the other parent. Neither parent will inform the Child about this paragraph in the Decree of Divorce. The actual overnights preferred by the Child may not be used later by either party to claim child support followed the child or as a basis for modification.

8. Mutual Restraining Orders re Child:

- a. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the Child for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, or from attempting to influence the Child's preference regarding custody or parent time. As used in this subparagraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.
- b. Neither party will interrogate or "pump" the Child for information about parent time or the potential significant relationships of the other party.
- c. The Parties will not put the Child in the middle by discussing with the Child any adult issues including any legal or financial related issues with the Child.
- d. Neither parent shall question the Child about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money and ensure that each parent will be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the Child.
- e. The Parties will not use the Child to send messages to the other for parent time issues but will discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the Child.
- f. Both parties shall be restrained from making parent time arrangements or adjustments through the Child.
- g. Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the Child or allow third parties to do the same.

- h. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the Child, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the Child.
- i. Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 24 hours prior to or during parent time with the Child.
- j. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the Child from such circumstances.

9. Child support: For child support purposes, Corinne is imputed at $6,000 gross per month, and Mark is imputed at $17,000 gross per month. Child support is calculated pursuant to the Utah Joint Custody Child Support Worksheet (183 overnights Corinne/182 overnights Mark) at $478 per month. Child Support will commence on June 1, 2026. In consideration of the settlement reached herein, there are no child support arrearages owed by either parent prior to May 20, 2026.

10. Household Expenses. Through May 31, 2026, the parties will continue to pay the monthly household expenses as they have historically done, which leaves the following expenses not paid for May 2026 (AF City (approx. $170); power bill (approx. $130); Comcast ($225,90); Credit Human (solar) $389.43; Tesla $579; and boat $444). Commencing June 1, 2026, each party will commence paying for his or her respective household expenses and debt obligations, and the parties will cooperate in changing the names of corresponding utilities and expenses to the name of the responsible party.

11. Childcare. Childcare expenses are not anticipated, but if they are incurred, each party will pay his or her own childcare without seeking reimbursement from the other parent.

12. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor child if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost should do so. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the Child's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 81-6-208. If, in the future, the Child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of Corinne shall be primary, and the coverage of Mark will be secondary. If the Child is covered by the insurance of both parties, each parent will pay for the cost of his or her own plan without reimbursement from the other.

13. Medical and Dental Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the Child, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the Child, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208. There are no arrearages for past medical and dental expenses of the Child incurred prior to the date of mediation.

14. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7 and prior to service being initiated, each party will elect that providers for dental, medical and school expenses will create separate accounts for each party to pay their half of the costs separately.

15. Taxes:

- a. For the 2025 tax year, the parties shall cooperate in filing joint taxes, and equally share any tax obligation or share tax refund. If there is a tax refund, it shall be paid on the past joint taxes owing.

- b. For 2026 and later tax years, the Parties shall alternate years wherein each may claim tax benefits for the Child, with Mark claiming the extra child in odd-numbered tax years and Corinne claiming the extra child in even-numbered tax years.

16. Alimony: Commencing June 1, 2026, Mark shall pay Corinne $2,000 per month in alimony for a period of 15 years, or terminating earlier upon Corinne's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party.

17. Real Property: The parties have marital real property located at 496 West 990 North, American Fork, Utah 84003 (the "Home"). The Home will be awarded as follows:

- a. Unless later agreed otherwise by the parties, the Home shall be listed for sale by an agreed-upon realtor on or after June 1, 2028 (the month after I.A. graduates from high school). If the parties disagree as to a material term related to the listing, they shall defer to the recommendation of the realtor. If there are any repairs recommended by the realtor to be made to sell the Home, those will be equally shared, with a mutually agreed repair person.
- b. When sold, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied as follows: (1) pay expenses and costs of sale; (2) pay off any and all mortgages or encumbrances on the property (including a Rocket Mortgage loan of approximately $320,000, and a solar panel loan of approximately $40,000); (3) to pay off any remaining balances owing on back joint federal or state taxes; and (4) the balance remaining thereafter to be divided equally between the parties. If a lien or encumbrance is placed on the property on or after May 20, 2026, then the party responsible for that lien or encumbrance shall reduce his/her equity to pay off the lien or encumbrance.

- c. Until the Home is sold, Corinne shall have exclusive possession of the Home; however, Mark is permitted to continue storing items at the Home during this time. If Mark needs any items, he will let Corinne know beforehand, and pickup will occur at a mutually agreed time.
- d. Effective June 1, 2026, Corinne will be solely responsible for the mortgage, utilities, and any and all other expenses related to this property and shall be responsible for its regular maintenance and upkeep. In the event of an extraordinary and unanticipated repair needed for the home (i.e., non-routine), not due to the fault of either party and not covered by insurance, the parties will discuss the repair beforehand, and work together to repair it and divide the expense equally. Both parties will cooperate to change over to responsible party on the utilities and other services related to this property as soon as possible.
- e. Should Corinne fail to timely make a payment for the monthly mortgage, Mark may choose to make the payment and then reduce his alimony by the amount of the mortgage paid.

18. Bank Accounts: The joint AFCU accounts will be equally divided and closed. Thereafter, each party is awarded the bank accounts in his or her separate names as already divided. No equalization of accounts is required.

19. Vehicles: The vehicles are divided as follows, with each party assuming all liability related to the vehicles, and indemnify and hold each other harmless thereon:

	Awarded to:
Telsa Model 3 (lease)	Mark

	Mark will take over the lease payments until lease end.
Seadoo Switch Boat	Mark. Mark will take over the payments and remove Corinne's name from the loan.
VW Atlas	Corinne. Mark will pay the cost of having the dent repaired to the back of the VW Atlas with a mutually agreed repair shop. The repair will be completed within 90 days. Corinne will cooperate with Mark to allow him to get bids for the repair and he will choose who makes the repair.
2014 Nissan Altima	Gifted to the parties' adult daughter, Taylor.
2000 Chevy Silverado	Gifted to I.A.

20. Child Auto Insurance. Corinne will pay the monthly cost of Taylor's auto insurance, and Mark will pay the monthly cost of I.A.'s auto insurance through June 2028.

21. Personal Property. Except as otherwise awarded herein, the parties will divide the remaining personal property as they may agree. If they cannot agree on the division of personal property, they will attend mediation, and equally share the cost, or, if unable to resolve at mediation, the issue of division of remaining personal property is reserved for Court decision.

22. Personal Injury Proceeds. Corinne may be receiving proceeds from a personal injury settlement for an accident she was involved. Mark will receive $10,000 from the settlement proceeds, and Corinne will receive the remaining settlement proceeds.

23. Debt Division: Except where otherwise stated herein, any and all other debts and obligations, not otherwise distributed herein shall be assigned and paid for by the party in whose name such debts appear. Each party will hold the other harmless on the debts ordered to be paid by him or her. If a joint debt is later discovered, it will be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred that debt.

24. Investments and Retirement. Each party is awarded the investments and retirement in his or her separate names without claim by the other party.

25. Business. Mark is awarded his business interests, known as A.I. Unleashed LLC and Blue Panda A.I., LLC.
