Attorneys for Anna Marie Flores

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH, PROVO DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:

ANNA MARIE FLORES, Petitioner,

MARVIN JOSE FLORES, Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264400391

Judge Thomas Low

Commissioner Marian Ito

This matter comes before the Court pursuant to the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement. Thirty days have passed since the filing of the Petition or the Court has entered an order waiving the thirty-day waiting period. The Court, having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does hereby GRANT the Petitioner a DECREE OF DIVORCE and does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE as follows:

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. The Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-201, §78B-12-103 and §78B-15-104 because Utah is the home state of the minor children and the children have lived in the state for at least six (6) months immediately prior prior to the initiation of this proceeding.

2. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. The parties are unaware of any other proceedings, whether pending, previously filed, or concluded by order, in any court of law or governmental agency dealing with custody, child support, or parent-time concerning the parties' minor child which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order. Petitioner is unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has, or claims to have, physical custody, child support, and/or parent-time rights with respect to the parties' minor child. Petitioner is unaware of any criminal, delinquency or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' child.

4. Mother. Anna is the Mother of the minor children.

5. Father. Marvin is the Father of the minor children.

PARENTING PLAN

6. The parties have the following minor children together: D.M.G. (born August 04, 2018), D.A.F. (born December 03, 2021).

7. Legal Custody. Anna shall have sole legal custody of the minor children and use the terms herein and Utah Code Ann. 81-9-202 as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby. Minor and day-to-day decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties will keep each other informed of the activities, events, and appointments in the children's lives.

8. Decision-Making and Dispute Resolution. Each parent shall have the right to make day-to-day decisions concerning the minor children while in the care of that parent. Each parent shall also have the right to make emergency decisions regarding the minor children's safety or health while in the care of that parent. For all other decisions regarding the minor children, all such decisions shall be made solely by Mother, who shall have final and exclusive legal decision-making authority.

9. Communication with the Children. Each parent shall be entitled to enjoy liberal telephone, Facetime, video conference, email, letters, or other alternative forms of contact with the child at reasonable times and places. Each parent shall provide access to the child while in his or her care to facilitate such communication. Further, the child may choose to initiate communication with either parent at any time of the child's choosing. Neither parent shall speak derogatorily about the other parent to the child (either in person, over the phone or in writing) or to another person within the hearing or in the presence of the child. Neither parent shall allow any third party to speak derogatorily about the other parent within the hearing or in the presence of the child.

10. Communication Between Parents. Each parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible in the event of a medical or other emergency concerning the child. Each parent shall provide the other with a current address, phone number and email address within 24 hours of any change. Each parent shall provide the other with the name and contact information for any surrogate care providers for the child. Whenever either parent intends to travel out of the state with the child, he or she shall provide the other parent with an itinerary of travel dates and locations. All communications between the parties shall be civil, and neither parent shall threaten, harass, or speak derogatorily or crudely to the other parent.

11. Participation. Both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate as appropriate in any significant school, social, sports, religious or community functions in which the child are participating or being recognized.

12. Access to records. Each parent shall be entitled to complete access to all educational, medical, religious or other records of the child. Each party shall be listed as a parent for purposes of school contact or medical care provider contact for the child.

13. Physical Custody. Anna shall be awarded sole physical custody of the parties' minor children. Anna's residence shall be designated as the child's primary physical residence for school records and all other legal purposes. Parent-time with the children shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, Father's reasonable rights of parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-9-302.

14. Transportation. The parties will share transportation equally as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the receiving parent who is beginning parent time will pick up the children at school or at the residence of the other (except for a parent with overnight parent time will be responsible to drop the child/ren off at school, if school is in session at the time for the exchange). A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the sending parent and the children are aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child by 7:00 PM. See Utah Code 81-9-302(7).

15. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code §81-9-302(12) as follows:

16. Summer. Extended summer parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-302(3). Notice of a parent's extended parent-time shall be communicated on or before April 15 of each year. If both parties want extended parent-time during the same time of the summer, the Petitioner shall have priority in even years and the Respondent shall have priority in odd years. If only one parent communicates their extended parent-time prior to April 15, then that parent shall have priority for their extended parent-time. If neither parent communicates their parent-time before April 15, then the parent who communicates their parent time first shall have priority for their extended parent-time. Extended parent-time may not override the other parent's holiday parent-time during the summer.

17. Right of First Refusal. Parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the child than surrogate care and the court shall encourage the parties to cooperate in allowing the other parent, if willing and able to transport the children, to provide the childcare. Utah Code 81-9-202(13). "Surrogate care" means care by any individual other than the parent of the child. Utah Code 81-9-101(14). Each party shall have the first right to provide care for the minor children before nonparties are allowed to do so, and both parents shall have an ongoing affirmative duty on each party to give reasonable notice of childcare and a party's availability to provide such, when such care is needed for 8 hours or longer.

18. Relocation. If either parent subsequently moves more than 150 miles away from the other parent, he or she shall comply with the notice provisions of Utah

Code section 81-9-209, including providing 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. Either parent may then motion the court to review custody and parent-time pursuant to Section 81-9-209. However, the parties shall use their best efforts to come to an agreement as to custody and parent-time, either on their own or through mediation, prior to filing a motion with the court.

19. Travel: When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

20. Mutual Restraining Orders: Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, speaking to the children about the issues in this matter, or from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or visitation. As used in this paragraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not. Neither party will interrogate or "pump" the children for information about the parent's parent time or regarding the potential significant relationships of the other party. Both parties shall be restrained from making visitation arrangement through the children. Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children. Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 24 hours prior to or during parent time with the children. For the preceding sentence, "alcohol in excess" shall be defined as using alcohol in excess of the legal driving limit in the State of Utah. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

21. Divorce Education Classes: If either party has not taken the required divorce classes, he or she will do so within 30 days and provide proof to the other party and to the court.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE CHILDREN

22. Anna has a gross monthly income of $1,059. Marvin agrees to be imputed a gross monthly income of $3,000 which is above minimum wage. Effective June 1, 2026, child support is awarded to Anna in the amount of $746.00 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. Either party may bring the decree to the Office of Recovery Services to begin automatic withholding for child support.

23. Each party shall notify the other within thirty (30) days of any change in his or her monthly income.

24. The court's child support order may be subsequently modified pursuant to the provisions of Utah Code section 81-6-212.

25. Pursuant to the Child Support Guidelines, the base monthly child support award is automatically adjusted or terminated when a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

26. Childcare Expenses. Utah Code 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements existing during the marriage are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. Utah Code 81-9-202(13). A party using family members to provide childcare will not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs.

27. Insurance coverage. Health care coverage for the medical expenses of any minor child shall be provided by a parent pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-208. "Health care coverage" means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: (a) fee for service; (b) a health maintenance organization; (c) a preferred provider organization; (d) any other type of private health insurance; or (e) public health care coverage, consistent with Utah Code 81-6-11(14). Either parent shall provide insurance for the medical expenses of their minor child(ren) if such insurance is available to that parent at a reasonable cost, consistent with Utah Code 81-6-208(3)(d). Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the child(ren)' s portion of insurance, consistent with Utah Code 81-6-208(3)(d). The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

28. Designation of Primary Insurance. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Anna shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Marvin shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

29. Medical and Dental Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a dependent child, including deductibles and copayments, consistent with Utah Code 81-6-208(3)(e). A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. See Utah Code 81-6-208(10)(c). If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Utah Code 81-6-208(10)(d).

30. Division of Accounts: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that a medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

31. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any extracurricular activities in which both parties agree in writing that the minor children may be involved. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the child attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the child attend during his or her parent time.

32. School Expenses: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket school expenses incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

33. Tax Filing Assignment: Starting in the 2025 tax year, Anna will claim the minor children for tax deduction/exemption purposes. Either party's right to claim any child on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to claiming a child resulting in a tax benefit in any particular tax year. Utah Code 81-6-217. If a party cannot claim a child on his/her returns for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her returns for that year.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT

34. Spousal Support: The parties mutually waive any and all claims to spousal support and maintenance now and in the future. Neither party shall be obligated to pay, nor is entitled to receive, spousal support or maintenance of any kind.

REAL PROPERTY

35. Orem Condominium. Prior to the marriage, Marvin acquired a condo located at 11665 West 1295 South Orem, UT 84058. The condo shall be awarded to Marvin as his sole and separate property, together with all equity associated with the property and subject to any indebtedness thereon.

Marvin shall be solely responsible for all obligations associated with the property, including but not limited to the mortgage, taxes, insurance, utilities, and any homeowners' association dues or assessments, and shall indemnify and hold Anna harmless from any liability related thereto.

Within ninety (90) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce, Marvin shall refinance the mortgage, if necessary, to remove Anna from any obligation on the mortgage and/or title to the property. Anna agrees to cooperate in executing any documents reasonably necessary to accomplish the refinance and removal of her name from the mortgage and/or title.

36. Foreign Costa Rica Property. Marvin owns or has an ownership interest in real property located in Costa Rica. Marvin shall be awarded any and all ownership interests he holds in said property as his sole and separate property.

Marvin shall be solely responsible for all debts, taxes, maintenance, utilities, and any other obligations associated with the property, and shall indemnify and hold Anna, harmless from any liability related thereto.

Anna, expressly waives any claim, interest, or right to the Costa Rica property, including any present or future equity therein.

VEHICLES

37. Vehicles. The following vehicles shall be awarded to each party as his or her sole and separate property.

Vehicle:	Awarded to:
2009 Lexus RX 350	Anna
1961 UNKN Trailer	Anna
2014 Honda Pilot	Marvin

Each party shall be solely responsible for all debts, costs, insurance, and expenses associated with the vehicle awarded to him or her. Each party shall execute all documents necessary to remove the other party from the title of his or her respective vehicle within 60 days of entry of the Decree of Divorce, or as soon as practicable, whichever occurs first

PERSONAL PROPERTY

38. Personal Property. The parties are each awarded their own personal property, including but not limited to clothes, jewelry, premarital property, personal effects, books, paperwork, journals, and personal property acquired after separation. In addition, the parties shall distribute other items of personal property as they agree. If the parties are not able to agree, they shall make a list of all personal property and alternate selecting an item of personal property from the list.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS AND DEBTS

39. Financial Accounts. During the marriage, the parties acquired certain financial accounts. The parties will distribute their financial accounts as follows:

Financial Institution	Account Type	Awarded to:
Security Services Federal Credit Union	Savings	Marvin
Security Services Federal Credit Union	Checking	Anna
Pacific Horizons Credit Union	Checking	Anna
Stock or Investment Accounts	Stocks	Anna

40. Retirement Accounts. During the marriage, the parties acquired retirement accounts. The parties will distribute their retirement accounts as follows:

Account Name	Awarded to:
--------------	-------------

Anna's 401k	Anna
Murdock Hyundai Retirement	Marvin

If the parties require a Qualified Domestic Relations Order to transfer any retirement funds, they will retain separate counsel and share equally in the expense.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

41. Dominic's Dealer LLC. Marvin, shall retain the automobile dealership as his sole and separate property, including all assets, accounts, goodwill, inventory, and any associated business interests. Marvin shall be solely responsible for all debts, liabilities, taxes, insurance, and expenses associated with the dealership and shall indemnify and hold Anna, harmless from any such obligations.

42. Marvin shall refinance and remove Anna from any loan, financing agreement, or other financial obligation related to the dealership within ninety (90) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Anna agrees to cooperate in executing any documents reasonably necessary to effectuate the refinance and removal of her name from such obligations.

43. Continued Employment. Marvin agrees to continue employing Anna for the purpose of preparing paperwork associated with vehicle sales. Anna shall be paid $500 for each completed vehicle transaction file she prepares. Anna shall be guaranteed the opportunity to complete paperwork for no fewer than twenty (20) vehicle sales. If Anna is terminated or otherwise prevented from completing paperwork for twenty (20) vehicle sales, Marvin shall pay Anna the remaining balance owed to equal $500 per transaction for twenty (20) transactions, less any amounts already paid.

44. Debts. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, each party shall be solely responsible for any debts, obligations, or liabilities incurred in his or her own name and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any such debts.

45. Joint Debt Limit and Refi Obligation. No additional amounts of debt may be added to or charged to any debt, credit card, or line of credit that is associated with or in the opposing party's name without his or her written consent. The party assigned to pay for any debt will have an ongoing duty to keep the debt current and to refinance the debt out of the other party's name as soon as possible. Once the debt is paid off, the other party's name shall be removed from the account or the account shall be closed.

46. Hold Harmless. Each party will hold the other harmless on the debts ordered to be paid by him or her.

47. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon entering the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

48. Notification to creditors. Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.5, the party under the obligation to pay a debt shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors of the parties existing at the time of the entry of the divorce and notify the creditors regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

49. Delinquency in payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

50. Refinance: Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

51. Former Name: Anna's name may be restored to her maiden name of Grover, if she so desires.

52. Documentation Cooperation: Each party shall be ordered to sign any and all documents as are required to implement the provisions herein upon request.

53. Mediation: Prior to or concurrent with a Petition to Modify being filed to change any provision of a final decree, the parties must first make a good faith attempt to offer to resolve the issue through mediation, for which both parties will share the cost equally.

54. Attorney Fees: Each party will pay his or her respective attorney fees.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Court concludes as a matter of law that the Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action, and that the Petitioner is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent on the grounds of irreconcilable differences. The Court further concludes that the parties' Stipulation and Agreement is fair and equitable and shall be approved and incorporated into the Decree. Accordingly, a Decree of Divorce consistent with the foregoing Findings of Fact shall be entered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
