d. Educational Plan. The children shall continue to attend the schools associated with Mother's residence, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Mother shall remain the custodian of the minor children's passports when they are not traveling.

9. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

10. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events their children may be involved in that are not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

11. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

12. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent.

Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

13. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

14. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical. This shall not apply to enforcement actions.

15. Activity Costs. Each party shall assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put notify the other within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change. The children are currently participating in Ballroom Dancing. The parties agree the minor children shall continue to participate in Ballroom Dancing and competitions as long as they so wish. The parties agree to equally divide the costs associated with Ballroom Dancing and competition through the school programs.

16. If the parties agree to allow for the children to participate, then they shall make best efforts to ensure the children attend said practices, events, and activities related to said activity during their respective parent time.

17. School Fees. Each party shall assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. school lunches, registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

18. Transportation for the Children. The receiving parent will provide the transportation from the school or the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

19. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $2,773.00 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $19,673.00 per month. Mother has 183 overnights and Father has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. Father's child support obligation should be $1,310.00 per month. Child support shall commence June 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates and shall automatically adjust at the time: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

20. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Father is currently providing said insurance.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. If the children become double-covered, neither party is responsible for reimbursement of the cost of the insurance premium.

c. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

d. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

e. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

21. Childcare Expenses. The parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children with a mutually agreed upon provider. As long as Mother works at a daycare, the parties agree to divide the cost equally of the children receiving surrogate care with Mother's employer so as to benefit from employee discounts. If either party elects a day-care provider that is not mutually agreed upon that party shall be responsible for 100% of the cost associated with that provider.

22. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are three minor children, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children. Mother will claim 2 oldest children in even-numbered tax years and the oldest child for odd-numbered tax years and Father will claim 2 youngest children in odd-numbered years and youngest child for even-numbered tax years.

b. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother will claim the oldest child and Father will claim the youngest child.

c. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years.

d. Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

23. Real Property. The marital property located at 7475 North Campbell Circle, Eagle Mountain, Utah, is awarded to Mother with all debts and liabilities. The parties agree that as part of the global settlement Mother shall be awarded 100% of the equity in the marital residence free and clear of any claim by Father. Commencing June 1, 2026, Mother shall hold Father harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home. Mother will get the utilities solely in her name by July 1, 2026. Mother will refinance the loan out of Father's name within 12 months of entry of the Decree of Divorce. In the event that the refinance does not occur, or if Mother is 30 days delinquent in making the mortgage payment, as long as Father is making his support payments timely, the parties shall immediately put the home for sale with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent. To protect his credit, if Mother is delinquent, Father may make the payment directly through the date of closing to protect his credit and reduce his support payment by the mortgage amount. Mother shall give Father three names for Real Estate Agents and Father shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- a. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- b. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- c. Thereafter, all the remaining equity shall be awarded to Mother.

24. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Trailer	Father
Chevrolet Truck	Father
VW Atlas	Mother, who shall hold Father harmless on the obligation and refinance or pay that balance in full within 12 months of entry of Decree of Divorce. Commencing June 1, 2026, Mother shall be responsible for the monthly payment. As long as Father is making his support payments timely, if Mother is 30 days delinquent in making the payment prior to the refinance, Mother shall place the car on the market and Father may make the payment directly and reduce the amount from his total support through the sale of the car.

a. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

25. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Mortgage	Mother
VW Atlas	Mother
Loan for Trailer	Father
Loan for 2020 Chevrolet Silverado	Father
Any other obligations in Mother's Name Only	Mother
Any other obligations in Father's Name Only	Father

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

26. Stocks.

a. Father has acquired approximately 601 vested Meta Restricted Stock Units (hereinafter "RSUs) through his employer during the marriage.

b. Mother is awarded fifty percent (50%) of the vested RSUs, equaling 300.5 shares. Father retains fifty percent (50%) of all vested RSUs, equaling 300.5 shares.

c. Father shall cooperate fully with the Company equity plan administrator (Charles Schwab) to effectuate the liquidation of Mother's shares within thirty (30) days of the entry of this stipulation or the soonest availability of a liquidation date. Within 7 days of liquidating Mother's shares, Father shall transfer the net proceeds (after tax) to an account of Mother's choosing.

d. Father shall not sell, pledge, transfer, or encumber any RSU shares awarded to Mother pending transfer. Any violation may subject Father to sanctions under Utah R. Civ. P. 37 and contempt authority.

e. Each party shall execute any and all documents, authorizations, and forms required by the Company, or the plan administrator, to implement this provision.

In the event of non-compliance, the aggrieved party may move for enforcement.

27. Checking And Saving Accounts. Mother shall be awarded the Navy Federal Credit Union accounts ending in #6559 and #4583. Father shall be awarded the Navy Federal Credit Union accounts ending in #4765 and #6674. The Navy Federal Credit Union account ending in #1745 shall be awarded to the minor child that is on this account. The parties shall work together to remove the other party's name from their respective accounts within 14 days of signing this agreement.

28. Retirement Accounts. Father shall be awarded 100% of his Thrift Savings Plan (hereinafter "TSP") account with the approximate value of $39,757.00. As part of the global settlement agreement, the parties stipulate that from Father's Fidelity retirement specifically the "Meta Platform Inc. 401k" plan account in the approximate amount of $399,222.00, Mother shall be awarded $124,511.00 and Father shall be awarded the remaining balance. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any.

a. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this award shall be effectuated by entry of the QDRO consistent with this Decree and compliant with the requirements of the 401(k) plan and applicable to federal law, including ERISA and IRS.

b. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Alternate Payee award of $124,511.00 shall be calculated and paid without reduction for any loans taken, outstanding, repaid or defaulted upon by the Participant, whether such loan was incurred before or after the valuation date. Any existing or future loan obligation against the Plan account shall remain the sole responsibility of the Participant and shall not reduce, offset, or otherwise impair the Alternate Payee's awarded amount. The Participant shall indemnify and hold the Alternate Payee harmless from any reduction in the awarded amount caused by loan balances or loan-related adjustments.

c. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Alternate Payee may elect a direct rollover into a qualified retirement account in his or her name. Any taxes associated with a distribution received directly by the Alternate Payee shall be the responsibility of the Alternate Payee, and no early withdrawal penalty shall apply if distributed pursuant to a valid QDRO.

d. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in the event the QDRO is rejected by the Plan Administrator, the plan name is incorrectly identified, the plan has merged, terminated, transferred or been rolled into another retirement vehicle, or the plan refuses to honor the QDRO for any reason not caused by the Alternate Payee, the participant shall take all necessary steps to correct, amend, or resubmit the QDRO to effectuate this award.

e. If for any reason the retirement plan is unavailable, insufficient, liquidated, withdrawn against, encumbered, diminished or otherwise incapable of satisfying the full $124,511.00 award, the Participant shall remain personally liable to the Alternate Payee for the full amount awarded herein and shall satisfy any deficiency from other assets, income, or property.

f. This obligation to pay the $124,511.00 award is a judgment and shall not be contingent upon the Plan's approval of the QDRO. If payment cannot be accomplished through the Plan, the Court may enforce this award as a money judgment.

g. Transfer of 401(k) Funds. Within thirty (30) days of entry of a Decree of Divorce, Father shall take all actions necessary to transfer the awarded amounts from the above-referenced 401(k), including but not limited to preparing, executing, and submitting all documents required to effectuate the transfer. The cost to prepare the QDRO shall be divided equally between the parties. The parties shall fully cooperate in the preparation and implementation of any QDRO required to complete the division.

29. Name. Mother shall have the option of restoring her name to Kalie Marie Howard.

30. Alimony. Father shall pay Mother $3,390.00 per month for a term of eight (8) years unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments will be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony will commence on June 1, 2026.

31. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

32. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of the Stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the Stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and the Stipulation represents a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

33. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

34. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

35. Final Stipulation. The parties' Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation as incorporated into this Decree shall have any force or effect. The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses, but waive this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in the Stipulation.
