IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

STEPHANIE TRUSCOTT,

Petitioner

and

CHRISTOPHER TRUSCOTT,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264401309
Judge Christine Johnson
Commissioner Marla Snow

THIS MATTER comes before the above-referenced Court by way of the Parties' Petition and Stipulation for Divorce. The Court, having previously entered Its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Marriage Terminated. The bonds of matrimony between Stephanie and Christopher are hereby terminated. Stephanie and Christopher are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce.

2. Jurisdiction: Jurisdiction is proper in Utah County and in the State of Utah.

3. Marriage Statistics: The parties were married on November 9, 2001, in Manti, Utah and are presently married.

4. Grounds: The parties are divorcing on the basis of irreconcilable differences, which make continuation of the marriage impossible.

5. Rule 100 Information. That pursuant to Utah R. Civ. P. 100, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, the parties state upon information and belief that:

a. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent time, or visitation concerning the minor child, which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order;

b. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor child, and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent time or visitation rights with the minor child.

6. Jurisdiction – UCCJEA. That Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101, et seq.

7. Children. The parties have one minor child of the marriage, to wit:

NAME	MONTH/YEAR OF BIRTH
A.J.T.	May 2009

CUSTODY

8. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor child. The parameters of this legal custody are identified in the Parenting Plan below.

9. Physical Custody. Petitioner is awarded sole physical custody of their minor child. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, then Respondent shall have parent time consistent with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302 as the noncustodial parent. Holiday and parent time are in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302.

PARENTING PLAN

10. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles, the parties will be governed by the notice, custody and other provisions as contained in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 and Utah law.

11. Transportation. That transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties may agree, or in the event they cannot agree, then the receiving party shall pick up the minor child for the commencement of his/her parent-time. All parent-time exchanges shall occur curbside if not at school. If there is school, the party with the overnight before school shall drop the child off at school and the party to exercise their parent time on a particular day shall pick the child up from school.

12. Communication. Petitioner and Respondent can communicate in person, unless either party feels as if they no longer want to, then the parties can consider an app (unless the parties agree in writing to use other written means (e.g., email) and shall limit their communication to child related issues only.

13. Access to Records. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information or records concerning their child. The parties shall have the right to check out the child from school subject to the written agreement of the other parent.

14. Day-to-Day Decisions. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care. If there is an emergency, the party shall immediately inform the other party about the situation and shall take immediate measures to protect and care for the minor child.

15. Major Decisions. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be discussed by the parties in good faith. In the event the parties do not mutually agree to a major decision regarding the child, Petitioner shall have final say on such decisions, subject to Respondent's right to challenge said decision with the Court.

16. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

17. Travel. When the child travel with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destination; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; (d) and, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

18. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

19. Third-Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

20. Education. The minor child shall attend and be enrolled in her current school.

21. Mutual Restraining Orders. The following mutual restraining orders shall be ordered:

- a. The parties shall be mutually restrained from making demeaning and degrading remarks about the other party in the presence of the minor child and shall refrain from allowing third parties to do so.
- b. All communication between the parties shall be civil and courteous.
- c. There shall be no negative or harmful remarks made by a parent about the other parent in the presence of the minor child or the parent will remove the minor child. The parties will not allow third parties to do what they cannot, and shall remove third parties if they are speaking derogatorily about the other parent.
- d. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from discussing the case in the presence of the minor child, leaving papers out in the presence of the minor child, etc. The parties shall be ordered to isolate the minor child from the legal process as much as possible.
- e. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from entering the home of the other parent without written permission.
- f. The parties shall not harass, threaten, stalk, harm, injure or abuse the other party.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR THE CHILD

22. Child Support. Child support shall be calculated according to Utah

Code Ann. §81-6-201 et seq. Child support shall be ordered as follows:

- a. Stephanie's gross monthly income is $8343 per month.
- b. Christopher's gross monthly income is $6057 per month.
- c. Christopher shall pay to Stephanie $550 per month in child support.
- d. Child support shall be effective March 4, 2026.
- e. Child support shall be due and payable as follows: ½ due by the 5th of the month and ½ due by the 20th of the month.

23. Except as otherwise provided in the child support order, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base child support award for the remaining number of child due child support, without the need to modify the most recent child support order by a court, when a child: (a) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (b) dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; or (c) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

24. Child support is modifiable in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212.

25. 1Medical/Dental Expenses and Insurance. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

a. 2Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 3Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents. If both parties cover the minor child, then they shall be responsible for their own insurance premiums.

c. 4The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance for the child, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

26. Childcare Expenses. The parties do not anticipate child care costs.

27. Dependency Exemption/Tax Credit. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the child in odd-numbered tax years and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the child in even-numbered tax years.

b. The party obligated to pay child support can claim the child if that party is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

ALIMONY

28. Neither party shall be awarded alimony, as they are fully capable of supporting themselves. Alimony shall be barred now and forever.

DIVISION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

29. Global Payment. Stephanie shall pay Christopher $7,700, which shall be paid in monthly amounts of $550 per month, starting March 4, 2026. The payment schedule shall mirror the child support payment schedule. The parties may choose to offset the payments owed to each other.

30. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired a home and real property located at 1149 North Chaparral Lane, Spanish Fork, Utah 84660 (the "Home"). The Home shall be equally divided as follows:

a. Christopher shall be awarded the right to attempt to refinance or assume the loan relating to the Home, and shall have 90 days within the execution of the agreement to do so. If he attempts to do so, the value of the Home shall be set at $750,000. Currently, the mortgage on the Home is $350,000 and the HELOC on the Home is $120,000. Thus, there is $280,000 equity to be divided equally between the parties. As such, as part of the refinance or assumption, Christopher shall pay to Stephanie $140,000 within 90 days of the execution of the Agreement. Upon payment to Stephanie, he shall be awarded sole ownership and possession of the Home, and Stephanie shall vacate the Home and quitclaim her interest in the Home.

b. If Christopher is unable to refinance or assume the mortgage and HELOC on the Home and pay Stephanie $140,000, then the parties shall list the Home for sale within 7 days of the lapsing of subpart (a) above.

c. If the Home is sold, the parties shall use a mutually agreed upon realtor. The parties will follow the reasonable recommendations of the realtor, and the parties will be entitled to access to all information and documents related to the sale of the Home. The parties shall be responsible to make the Home available as well as ensure its upkeep for showings, and keeping the Home in showing condition. The parties shall act in good faith to sell the Home quickly and for maximum value. The parties shall accept all reasonable offers relating to the sale of the Home. When sold, the proceeds of the sale shall first be used to pay off the mortgage and closing costs and realtor fees. Next, the HELOC on the Home shall be paid off. Next, the parties shall apply proceeds to pay off the parties' joint Capital One Credit Card. Then, the parties shall then equally divide the remaining proceeds from the sale.

37. Vehicles. The parties' vehicles shall be divided as follows:

Personal Property	Awarded To
-------------------	------------

2012 Chevrolet Traverse	Stephanie
2019 Chevrolet Silverado	Christopher
2011 Nissan Altima	Minor Child (Alex Truscott)
1997 Thor Wanderer Travel Trailer	Adult Child (Mason Truscott)

38. The party awarded with the vehicle shall be responsible for the debt on the vehicle. The party awarded with the vehicle, as stated above, shall indemnify the other party and hold the other party harmless for any debts and/or obligations for the vehicle. The party awarded with their respective vehicle(s) shall remove the other party from all obligations within 30 days of the date of this Agreement. The parties will transfer title to Mason Truscott.

39. The parties will share any costs relating to the insurance of the minor child.

40. Personal Property. The parties shall equally divide their personal property by agreement or mediation. If they cannot resolve this, then the parties may go to Court to resolve this issue. All other property is resolved independently and shall not be used toward the equal distribution in this section.

41. Financial Accounts. The parties have accumulated financial accounts (including banking, checking, investment and other accounts) during the marriage. The parties' financial accounts shall be divided as follows:

Financial Account	Awarded To
Accounts in Stephanie's name	Stephanie
Accounts in Christopher's name	Christopher
Accounts in both names	Equally divided

42. Debts. The parties accumulated debt during the marriage. The parties' debts shall be divided as follows:

Debt	Awarded/Assigned To
Debts in Stephanie's name	Stephanie, including Bank of America Credit Card
Debts in Christopher's name	Christopher, including Citi Credit Card
Debts in both names	Equally divided, including Capital One Credit Card
HELOC	Christopher, unless the home is sold, which would be split as indicated above
Mortgage	Christopher, unless the home is sold, which would be split as indicated above

43. The parties shall be awarded and assigned the debts in the table above. Additionally, if they are any undisclosed debts, the party shall who failed to disclose the debt shall be fully responsible for the debt. Any other debts not listed above shall be assigned to the party whose name is associated with the debt.

44. The parties shall not incur any other joint debts with the other party. If there are any joint debts that are not addressed above, the parties shall be equally responsible for equal payments for such debts. The parties shall not make any charges on the other party's credit card indicated above, and the parties shall make no further charges on the joint credit card, unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

45. Retirement. The parties shall be awarded their own retirement accounts and pensions, free and clear from the other party.

46. Business Interests. The parties have no business interests to divide.

MISCELLANEOUS

47. Deeds and Other Documents. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Agreement, and the forthcoming Decree of Divorce to be entered by the Court, including but not limited to titles and deeds, and addressing debt obligations.

48. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.

49. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Up through the entry of the Decree of Divorce, each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

50. Waiver of Claims. The parties shall waive any and all claims that either party can assert against one another.

51. Name Change. Stephanie shall be entitled to change her name to Craghead, if she so chooses.

52. Notice to Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

b. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

i. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each joint creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

ii. Notify that joint creditor of the current address for each party.

iii. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract, and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt.

53. Notice to Medical Expense Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.7, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§30-3- 5, 30-4-3, or 78-45-7.15, as amended, or an administrative order under Utah Code Ann. §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

b. Therefore, each party shall:

- i. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child.
- ii. Notify the particular creditor of the party's current address.

Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order, and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtors repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.
