IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:

AMY LYNN OELRICH,

Petitioner,

and

JOSHUA RAYMOND OELRICH,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 264401707
Judge: Roger W. Griffin
Commissioner: Marian Ito

This matter comes before the Court pursuant to the parties' signed Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation") filed with the Court on June 22, 2026. See Court Filings, Docket No. 7. The Court, having received the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation"), having reviewed the file, having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Decree of Divorce. The bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are, hereby, dissolved, and the parties are, hereby, awarded a Decree of Divorce to become absolute and final upon entry of the Court.

2. Alimony. Amy has a need for alimony. Josh has the ability to pay alimony to Amy. Therefore, Amy is, hereby, awarded alimony from Josh for the duration of the marriage, thirty-one (31) years and five (5) months, beginning July 1, 2026.

- a. Currently, Josh's employment includes a base salary plus commission. Therefore, Josh shall pay alimony to Amy in the amount of \$1,500 per month. Josh shall pay $\frac{1}{2}$, or \$750.00, on the 12th of each month and $\frac{1}{2}$, or \$750.00, on the 27th of each month. Additionally, Josh shall pay Amy twenty-five percent (25%) of all commissions and bonuses he receives within ten (10) days of receiving them.
- b. If Josh's employment becomes commission-based only, Josh shall pay Amy alimony equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of his monthly commissions or \$1,500.00 per month, whichever is greater. Josh shall pay $\frac{1}{2}$ of his alimony obligation on the 12th of each month and the other $\frac{1}{2}$ on the 27th of each month.
- c. If Josh obtains employment with income exceeding his current income, the parties shall recalculate Amy's alimony. If the parties are unable to agree on the change in alimony due to Josh's increased income, the parties shall attend mediation, with each party paying one-half of the cost of mediation to reach an agreement on Amy's increased alimony. If the parties are still unable to reach an agreement, either party may bring the issue before the court to re-evaluate the amount of Amy's increased alimony retroactive to the date of Josh beginning his employment.

- d. Amy shall have access to all documents related to Josh's employment, including base salary, commissions, and bonuses. Josh shall provide these documents within seven (7) days of any change or of Amy's request.
- e. Alimony shall terminate after the length of the marriage, if Amy cohabits with someone with whom she is having a sexual relationship, if Amy remarries, or if either party dies.

3. Loan Payment. Josh shall pay Amy $100.00 on the 12th of each month towards the America First Credit Union (AFCU) loan. Josh shall continue making these monthly payments until the AFCU loan is paid in full.

4. Support of Steven Reed Oelrich. The parties have a son, Steven Reed Oelrich, who is currently on a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. If Josh's income increases by at least twenty-five percent (25%), Josh shall pay one-half of Steven's monthly mission costs. Further, upon Steven's return from his mission, the parties shall jointly discuss supporting Steven as he pursues higher education.

5. Real Property. The parties do not currently own any real property acquired during their marriage.
