Judge

Marion Ito

Commissioner (domestic cases)

The court decrees:

Divorce

1. Eric James Clawson is granted a divorce based on the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds signed by Eric James Clawson. The divorce will become final upon entry of the divorce decree.

Children (Utah Code 81-6-101(7))

2. Eric James Clawson and Madison Terue Clawson do not have any children together.

- We do not have any children together who are minors. A minor is a child under 18 who has not been married or otherwise emancipated.
- We are not expecting a child.
- We do not have incapacitated adult children together who are eligible for child support, or, Eric James Clawson is not asking for child support for any adult child who is eligible for child support.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

3. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

4. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

5. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

6. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

7. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

8. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)

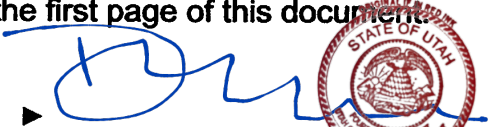

Name after divorce

9. Madison Terue Clawson changed her name when the parties married. Madison Terue Clawson's name will be Madison Terue Kawai after the divorce.

Complete any Required Classes

If you have children under 18, you must complete mandatory classes.

1. Mandatory Parenting Course
2. Divorce Orientation Course (Divorce cases only)

You can take the classes online at <https://divorce.usu.edu/>. The online classes are available in English with closed captions and also in Spanish.

You will pay online by credit card. If the court has waived the fee for the classes, there are instructions on the link above for how to submit the waiver.

The online class can be taken anytime.

USU Extension is the only court-approved online provider.

When you finish a class, you will be able to download a Certificate of Completion. You will need to file the certificate with the court as your proof that you took the class. File it with the court - be sure to write your case number on your certificate when you file it.

You can also complete the classes in person. For more information see:
