Attorneys for Cheryl Ann Snelgrove

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY
STATE OF UTAH
137 North Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In the matter of the marriage of:

CHERYL ANN SNELGROVE,

Petitioner,
and

JONATHAN MELVIN SNELGROVE,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264401703
Judge Thomas Low
Commissioner Marian Ito

THIS MATTER comes before the above-referenced Court by way of Petitioner Cheryl Ann Snelgrove's Petition for Divorce, and the parties' Stipulation. The Court, having previously entered Its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Marriage Terminated. The bonds of matrimony between Cheryl Ann Snelgrove and Jonathan Melvin Snelgrove are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce.
2. Residency. Petitioner ("Cheryl," "Wife" or "Mother") has been a resident of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action. Respondent ("Jonathan," "Husband," or "Father"), submits to the jurisdiction of this Court and agrees that the Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on June 7, 2005, in Santaquin, Utah County, State of Utah. The parties separated on or about April 26, 2026

4. Grounds. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-405(1)(h), irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties. The parties request that the Court enter a decree of divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable difference.

CHILDREN

5. Children. The parties are the parents to one minor child, to wit:

NAME	MONTH/YEAR OF BIRTH
J.L.M.	May 2009

6. Child Custody Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. §78B-13-101, et seq. The child has resided in Utah for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the child. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the child, and the child and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

CUSTODY/PARENTING PLAN

7. Custody. Cheryl shall be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody of the minor child, subject to Jonathan's reasonable right to parent-time. Jonathan's parent-time shall occur as the parties and the minor child may reasonably agree. The parties further agree as follows:

a. The parties acknowledge that strict adherence to a fixed parent-time schedule is impractical given the minor child's age. Accordingly, parent-time, if any, shall be exercised on a flexible basis in a manner that serves the minor child's best interests. Due to the minor child's age, maturity, school and extracurricular activities, employment obligations, social commitments, and expressed preferences, the frequency and duration of parent-time may vary significantly from time to time. The parties shall give substantial consideration to the minor child's wishes and schedule when coordinating parent-time.

8. Parenting Provisions. As the parties do not share joint legal custody, they are not required to submit a parenting plan. The parties agree as follows:

a. Cheryl shall have the exclusive authority to make major decisions affecting the child, including decisions relating to education, non-emergency healthcare, and religious upbringing. Cheryl is not required to obtain Jonathan's consent before making such decisions, but shall keep him reasonably informed regarding significant matters affecting the child.

b. The parent who has the child in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the child without having to consult with the other parent.

c. Educational Plan. Cheryl will be designated as the residential parent for purposes of identifying the appropriate school for where the child will attend school.

d. The parties will notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within 24 hours of the change.

e. The parents will inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations including itinerary and contact information.

CHILD SUPPORT

9. Child Support. Father's gross monthly income is approximately $5,552.00. Mother's gross monthly income is approximately $2,600.00. Based upon the parties' respective incomes, Father's presumptive child support obligation would be approximately $631.00 per month.

a. Social Security Benefits Received by Child. The minor child currently receives approximately $1,200.00 per month in derivative Social Security benefits based upon Father's earnings record and retirement benefits. Pursuant to applicable law, Father shall receive a dollar-for-dollar credit against his child support obligation for the Social Security benefits received by the minor child. Because the child's derivative Social Security benefit exceeds Father's presumptive child support obligation, Father's monthly child support obligation is satisfied in full by the child's receipt of the Social Security benefit. Accordingly, Father's current monthly child support obligation is $0.00, and the derivative Social Security benefit shall continue to be paid to Mother for the benefit of the minor child.

CHILDCARE, EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES & SCHOOL FEES

10. Childcare Expenses. Due to the age of the child, childcare will not be necessary.
11. Activity Costs and School Fees. Any obligation Father would otherwise have to contribute toward extracurricular activity expenses or school fees shall be deemed satisfied by the minor child's receipt of derivative Social Security benefits attributable to Father's earnings record. Mother shall be solely responsible for all such expenses.

INSURANCE

12. Medical/Dental Expenses. The parties will deviate from the provisions of Utah Code § 81-6-208 regarding the allocation of health insurance premiums and uninsured medical expenses. In consideration of the child's receipt of the derivative Social Security benefits, Father shall not be required to contribute toward the cost of health insurance premiums or uninsured medical expenses. Any obligation Father would otherwise have to contribute toward such expenses shall be deemed satisfied by the child's receipt of the derivative Social Security benefits. Mother will be solely responsible for all such expenses without any additional contribution from Father.

TAXES/TAX CREDITS

13. Child Tax Credits. Cheryl will claim the minor child for child tax credits, deductions and any other tax benefits possible.

ALIMONY

14. Alimony. Cheryl will be awarded alimony in the sum of $500.00 per month from Jonathan, commencing on June 1, 2026, and continuing for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, or until the occurrence of any of the following events, whichever first occurs: the death of either party, Cheryl's remarriage, or Cheryl's cohabitation. Said alimony shall be payable in two equal installments, with one-half due on or before the 5th day of each month and the remaining one-half due on or before the 20th day of each month.

Jonathan hereby relinquishes and waives any right, title, or interest he may have in said property. Cheryl shall be solely responsible for any mortgage, lien, indebtedness, taxes, insurance, maintenance, or other obligations associated with the property and shall indemnify and hold Jonathan harmless therefrom. Within thirty (30) days following entry of the Decree, Jonathan shall execute any documents reasonably necessary, including a Quit Claim Deed, to transfer any interest he may have in the property to Cheryl.

b. Otter Creek, Utah Property. The parties acquired real property located at 4236 N. Old SR 62, Otter Creek, Utah, during the marriage, together with associated water rights and water shares. a. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

b. Other Debts. Each party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred. If any other joint debts are later discovered and not stated and divided herein, the person incurring the debt will be solely responsible for the payment thereof and will hold the other party harmless therefrom.

c. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

d. Notification to Creditors. The parties may notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

e. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

Jonathan and Cheryl are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party.
