- a. The parents will discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding their children, including, but not limited to, their children's education, and health care. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of their children.
- b. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' children will be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time.
- c. Should the parties have a dispute regarding parenting of the children they shall participate in mediation before seeking court action.
- d. Both parties are to be listed as the minor children's parents on all school records, registrations, medical records, religious records, and any other significant documents.
- e. Both parties shall be allowed full access to the children's school records and medical records.
- f. The parties shall notify each other about any special events involving the children, such as school activities, sporting events, church activities, graduations, etc., so that each party shall have the option of attending the special event if possible. Both parents retain the right to attend and participate in activities with the children, both extracurricular and religious. However, this provision does not prevent the other parent from affirmatively seeking this information on their own.
- g. The parties shall notify the other parent of major injury or major illness involving the children as soon as reasonably possible.
- h. The parties shall immediately notify the other parent of any change of address or change of telephone number.

- i. The advisory guidelines of Utah Code Annotated §30-3-33 are adopted by the parties as part of their parenting plan and are specifically incorporated herein by reference to the extent that they are not contradictory to any of the provisions contained herein.
- j. When both parties live in the same state, they shall share equally the transportation responsibilities and costs for parenting time and the parent receiving the minor children shall be responsible for picking up the minor children from the other parent's home, or if it is more convenient and feasible, the parties may agree to meet each other at an agreed upon halfway point for parent-time exchanges. Both parties shall ensure that the minor children attend school on time and whenever possible exchanges for parent time shall occur by having the parties drop off and pick up the children from school for their respective parent time.
- k. Both parties shall stay within one (1) hour of each other, but if an opportunity comes up to move, they will go to mediation, and if parties can't agree, have a competent judge make a decision.
- l. The parties will communicate effectively if they are going to be late for parenting time exchanges. If no communication takes place, the parties will adhere to a fifteen-minute rule. During exchange, in the event that the receiving party is late, the other party does not need to wait more than 15 minutes. The receiving party will need to make alternate arrangements for pickup.
- m. Devin shall have the right to perform religious ordinances, including baptism, for the children, so long as he is qualified by the appropriate ecclesiastical leadership.

CHILD SUPPORT AND INSURANCE

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §78B-12-203, Jamie is currently employed and her total countable gross monthly income for child support purposes is approximately $2,600.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78B-12-203, Devin is currently self-employed and his total countable gross monthly income for child support purposes shall be imputed at $8,810. Devin has historically made this amount prior to starting his own business, Triumphant Financial LLC in August 2025. It is anticipated that this business will grow in revenue. If not, Devin would still be capable of earning $8,810 from prior employment, which shall be imputed to Devin for child support purposes.

14. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78B-12-202 et seq. and the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, Devin's child support obligation to Jamie is $1,800 per month. Devin's child support obligation shall begin June 1, 2026. Devin shall pay child support directly to Jamie via direct deposit or via another agreed upon means.

15. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable by the end of the month for which it is due.

16. In accordance with Utah Code §78B-12-212, insurance for the medical, hospital and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor children's portion of insurance. The minor children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the minor children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in the instant case.

b. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance, but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

c. Each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the dependent children, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments.

d. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

e. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment.

Reimbursement shall occur within thirty (30) days of said notice.

f. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (d) and (e) of this paragraph.

g. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, Jamie's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and Devin's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

17. The parties will equally divide all reasonable and necessary school registration and school fees for the minor children. Proof of payment shall be provided by the party incurring the cost to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

18. The parties will equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to the children being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the child in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. Any party unilaterally enrolling the child in extracurricular activities will not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

19. The parties shall share equally the cost of all reasonable work-related child-care expenses for the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §78B-12-214.

a. The non-custodial parent shall begin paying his or her share of child-care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child-care expense less any amounts previously paid.

b. The parent who incurs child-care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child-care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and, thereafter, on request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child-care provider or the monthly expense of child-care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child-care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

c. Both parties shall approve all child-care providers. Care provided by family members shall be assumed to be at no cost. There shall be no reimbursement between the parties for care provided by family members.

ALIMONY

20. Each party is fully capable of supporting themselves, and therefore, neither party shall be awarded alimony. Each party specifically waives the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

DEBTS

21. The parties have not acquired significant marital debt in need of division.
- a. Neither party shall incur any additional debt on the marital credit cards or other accounts.
 - b. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless for any liability associated with any debts assumed by that party.
 - c. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own debts acquired since the date of the filing of the Petition.
 - d. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually. The parties shall notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.
