Additional provisions

26. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

a.

Additional Provision: The parties acknowledge and agree that the marital debts, as detailed, shall be equally divided between the parties. The parties further agree on a total amount of $13,300.00, to be divided equally, resulting in $6,650.00 allocated to each party. Respondent shall receive an additional credit in the amount of $400.00 related to the apartment security deposit and sale of small personal assets. After the application of the agreed-upon credits and offsets, the parties agree that Respondent shall pay Petitioner a net equalization amount of $6,250.00. The parties further acknowledge that Respondent shall retain the Mazda vehicle as part of the property division. In consideration of the allocation of debts and assets between the parties, Respondent agrees to waive any claim or interest in Petitioner's 401(k) retirement account and the current cash value of Petitioner's life insurance policy, and the parties agree that such division shall constitute an equitable offset and resolution of those assets and obligations. Pilar's IRA has had no marital contributions or active management and, therefore, is considered a premarital asset. An engagement ring gifted to Pilar prior to marriage is also considered a premarital asset.

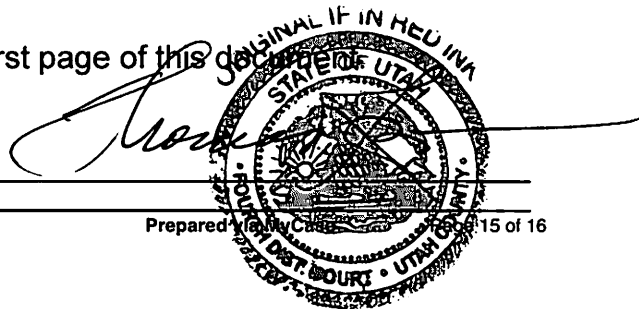

Duty to sign documents

27. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
