IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In The Matter of The Marriage of: JENNIFER JOY KREBS, Petitioner, and JARON DALLIN KREBS, Respondent.	ORDER ON MOTION TO ENFORCE Civil No. 204402288 Judge Sean Petersen Commissioner Marian Ito
--	--

The matter of Petitioner Jennifer Joy Krebs' Motion to Enforce came before the Court on May 5, 2026. Petitioner was present in person and represented by counsel, Todd Weiler. Respondent Jaron Dallin Krebs was present in person and represented by his counsel, Megan Sanford.

The Court, having reviewed the pleadings, hearing argument of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, finds and orders as follows:

1. The Court finds that a valid child support order exists, Respondent had knowledge of the order, and Respondent had the ability to comply.
2. The Court finds Respondent's failure to pay child support and insurance premiums is willful. Accordingly, Respondent is found in contempt of court.

3. Based on the evidence presented, Respondent is over $20,000 in arrears. The Court accepts the calculation that Respondent owes $21,822 for unpaid child support and health insurance shares through April 2026.
4. Due to Respondent's documented history of alcohol abuse, relapse, and mental health instability, the Court finds that supervised visitation is necessary to ensure the safety and well-being of the minor child.
5. Judgment is hereby entered against Respondent in the amount of $21,822 for child support and insurance arrears.
6. Respondent shall pay the current monthly child support obligation of $264. Additionally, Respondent shall pay a monthly amount toward the arrears until they are paid in full.
7. Respondent is ordered to use income withholding. If Petitioner opens an Office of Recovery Services (ORS) case, Respondent shall comply with all ORS requirements and keep them updated regarding his employment and address.
8. The Court imposes sanctions for the finding of contempt but stays those sanctions pending Respondent's compliance with this Order.
9. All parent-time between Respondent and the minor child shall be professionally supervised. The parties are ordered to split the costs of the professional agency equally. Alternatively, supervision may be provided by a third party only if the parties agree that professional agency options under Utah Code § 81-9-207 are not available, affordable, or practicable. Any third-party supervisor must submit to the jurisdiction of the court. Supervisors are authorized to immediately terminate parent-time if Respondent has been drinking prior to the visit or appears intoxicated.

10. There shall be no overnight visitations at this time.
11. Respondent shall complete a mental health evaluation with a substance abuse component and follow all resulting recommendations.
12. Petitioner has substantially prevailed in this matter. Because Respondent's noncompliance forced Petitioner to incur legal expenses to enforce clear, existing orders, an award of attorney fees is appropriate. Therefore, Petitioner's request for attorney fees is GRANTED. Counsel for Petitioner shall submit an affidavit of fees within 14 days.
13. Petitioner's request for a private guardian ad litem is denied.
14. This matter is set for a review hearing on August 4, 2026, at 9:05 a.m. in Courtroom 3A.
