Attorneys for Petitioner

FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – PROVO
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

HANNAH MARIE MAYLE,

Petitioner,

GARRETT ALLEN NORDSTROM,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 224401428

Judge: James Brady

Commissioner: Marla Snow

This matter came before the court on Petitioner's Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce in accordance with Rule 104, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

The parties are hereby awarded a divorce, one from the other, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences to become final upon signature and entry of this Decree of Divorce.

MINOR CHILDREN

1. There are children born of this marriage who are minors (the “children”). The initials, birth month, and birth year of the children are as follows:

T.A.N. – 10/2021

G.J.M. – 12/2022

CHILD CUSTODY

2. The parties will share joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the minor children.

3. Parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-305, with the following clarifications:

a. The weekly parent-time shall rotate between weeks 1, 2, 3, and 4, as the parties have been doing during the separation, as indicated in the below table:

Overnights	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Week 1	Hannah	Hannah	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett
Week 2	Hannah	Hannah	Garrett	Garrett	Hannah	Hannah	Hannah
Week 3	Hannah	Hannah	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett	Garrett
Week 4	Hannah	Hannah	Garrett	Garrett	Hannah	Hannah	Hannah

b. The parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth below, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-304 for minor children under five years old and § 81-9-302 for minor children five to 18 years old, which takes precedence over regular parent-time. The parties agree that the holiday schedule will comport with the same holiday schedule that the Respondent is on with his oldest daughter from a previous relationship:

Even Years	Odd Years	Holiday and Time
Mother	Father	Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Friday when school is dismissed for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the day before school resumes.

Father	Mother	Child's actual birthday from 3:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.

- c. The parties agree that the holiday schedule for birthdays shall take precedence over the Christmas parenting time schedule.
- d. A parent exercising parent-time for the minor child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.
- e. Beginning the summer of the 2024 calendar year, each parent is entitled to two (2) week of uninterrupted summer parent-time during the summer months, when school is not in session. The parties shall provide notification of extended summer parent time consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305 (5), which includes:
- i. Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break, In odd-numbered years: Father shall provide notice to Mother by May 1; and Mother shall provide notice to Father by May 15. In even-numbered years: Mother shall provide notice to Father by May 1; and Father shall provide notice to Mother by May 15.

f. Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
- ii. the holiday schedule for the minor child's birthday;
- iii. the holiday schedule for any holiday under Subsection (21) that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the minor child's birthday;
- iv. extended parent-time when school is not in session during summer break; and e. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

COMMUNICATION

4. The parties shall communicate in writing only, using the app "Our Family Wizard". The parties shall respond to the other party within 36 hours. All communication shall be polite, civil, and pertaining to issues regarding the minor children only. The communication shall not be abusive or excessive. The parties will not contact the friends of the other party, or the other parties' minor children. Each party shall be responsible for the cost associated with their use of the app. Any changes to parent time or exchange time should be provided to the other party as soon as possible, although no shorter than 23 hours unless it is an emergency.

FIRST RIGHT OF REFUSAL

5. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the minor children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for a period of twenty-four (24) hours or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

TRANSPORTATION

6. Transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as follows, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties:

a. The parties will either personally provide the transportation for parent-time exchanges or, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302(7), have a third party, whose identity is known to the other party and the party will be with the child by 7 p.m., provide the transportation for parent-time exchanges. The parties will agree that parent time exchanges will occur at the Legacy Center in Lehi.

b. If 15 minutes has passed, with no prior notice, and the other party is not at the exchange, then that party forfeits their parent time until the next scheduled exchange;

c. Phones or any other recording equipment, including taking pictures, must remain in the respective parties' vehicle during the parent time exchanges.

d. A party exercising the first right of refusal shall provide the transportation both directions.

e. Parent-time exchanges shall occur at the minor children's school or childcare when it is in session. The party ending parent-time shall drop the minor children off at school or childcare and the party beginning parent-time shall pick the minor children up from school or childcare.

f. When school or childcare is not in session, the party beginning parent-time shall provide the transportation for the parent-time exchange, which shall occur at the Legacy

Center in Lehi, at 9:00 a.m., unless the time is otherwise indicated in the holiday parent-time schedule.

PARENTING AND EDUCATIONAL PLAN

7. The parties agree to adopt the following Parenting and Educational Plan provisions:

a. Both parties will be listed on and have access to the minor children's school, childcare, church, medical and other records and both parties shall be included as the parents on such records. As joint legal custodial parents, it is the responsibility of each parent to contact the minor children's school, coaches, teachers, doctors, dentists, church leaders, etc. in which the minor children are involved to establish their own relationship and have notices of significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the minor children are participating or being honored sent directly to each parent. Both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully. If one parent receives notice that the other parent would not have access to, the party receiving said notice shall notify the other parent within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving the notice;

b. The parties shall make best efforts to each obtain their own information regarding the minor children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information;

c. If a minor child is ill and unable to attend school, or if school is canceled due to a snow day or other reason on a day that a parent-time exchange is scheduled to occur, the party who has the minor children in his/her care that morning shall be responsible for the providing the minor children's care or arranging for the minor children's care until the time that the other parent would normally be picking the minor children up from school;

d. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the minor children;

e. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

f. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children, including but not limited to scheduling medical/school/or other appointments involving the minor children;

g. When a parent leaves the minor children in the care of a third-party caregiver for two hours or more, the name and contact information of the other parent will be provided to the caregiver. Additionally, the other parent shall be provided the name and contact information of the caregiver;

h. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change;

i. The parent who has the minor children in his/her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the minor children without having to consult with the other parent;

j. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor children travel overnight or longer, the parent arranging the travel shall provide the other parent with an itinerary of travel dates, destinations, and places where the minor children can be reached, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-36(2);

k. The parties agree to work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor children consistency and stability;

l. Special consideration should be given by each parent to make the minor children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;

m. Each parent should permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication/virtual parent-time with the minor children. The parent with the minor children in his/her care will not interfere with the virtual parent-time;

n. The parties agree that they will not put the minor children in the middle of their disputes;

o. The parties will not discuss with the minor children or in the minor children's presence adult issues, including the parties' legal proceedings or financial related issues of the parties;

p. The minor children will not be used as messengers between the parents;

q. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the minor children;

r. Each party will have adequate clothing for the minor children at his/her residence.

s. Neither parent should question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money;

t. Neither party will introduce the minor children to a significant other without having been in a continuous relationship with another for at least three months;

u. The parties will not ask the children to keep secrets from the other parent;

v. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children;

w. Both parties should be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the minor children's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the minor children;

x. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time;

y. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;

z. When the children are of school age, the parties shall discuss a designation of residential parent since Garret may or may not still be living with his parents;

aa. Both parents shall have access to the minor children during school or childcare hours and the authority to check the minor children out of school during his/her custodial time for emergency purposes or necessary appointments only;

bb. The parties will make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor children including but not limited to the minor children's childcare, education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues. After discussing the issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor children, they shall attend mediation. Each party shall be responsible for one-half the cost of the mediation. If the parties do not reach an agreement in mediation, either party may take the issue before the court;

cc. The party with whom the children are residing may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children's care without having to consult with the other parent.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Hannah's gross monthly income is $3,500. Garrett's gross monthly income is $2,880. Garrett is unemployed and his income is being calculated at what he could earn, the parties agree to $18.00 an hour.

9. Based on the joint custody child support calculation worksheet for two (2) minor children, with Hannah having the minor children 182 overnights each year and Garrett having the minor children 183 overnights each year, Hannah's child support obligation to Garrett will be $78 per month, beginning September 1, 2024.

10. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

11. In accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, when a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically reduced to reflect the lower base combined child support obligation. The award may not be reduced by a per child amount derived from the base child support award originally ordered.

12. Either party is entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202(10)(f) and § 26B-9-303.

13. A child support order may be adjusted pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212.

CHILD HEALTH CARE

14. In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208 (formerly 78B-12-212), the parties shall provide and maintain medical and dental insurance for the minor children if it is available to them at a reasonable cost and is accessible to the children. Each party is responsible for 50% of the children's portion of the health insurance premium at a pro rata calculation. Currently, the children are on Hannah's health insurance.

15. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208(10), the party who incurs medical expenses must provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within 30 days of payment. The party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with this paragraph.

16. The parties should each be responsible for 50% of the out-of-pocket cost of the reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for their minor child. The parties recognize that there are many branches of medicine and acknowledge and agree that reasonable and necessary medical expenses may include, among other things, expenses related to their child's vision and their child's mental health. The parties recognize that there are multiple branches of dentistry and acknowledge and agree that reasonable and necessary dental expenses may include, among other things, expenses for orthodontia, endodontia, and oral surgery. The parties agree to each be separately and directly billed by the minor child's medical and dental providers for 50% of the out-of-pocket expenses for the minor child's reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses, including deductibles, copays, and prescriptions. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to request separate billing from any provider who renders medical or dental services to the parties' minor child at or before the time the provider renders any such service. If necessary, the parent seeking the medical or dental service on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide a copy of their divorce decree to the medical or dental services provider. In order to facilitate separate billing and avoid ambiguity and misunderstanding, the parties agree to draft and include language in their divorce decree directed at future medical and dental providers to put them on notice of their duties under Utah Code Ann. Sec. 15-4-6.7 to separately bill the parties for medical and dental expenses. In the event that, notwithstanding the separate billing provisions above, one party pays for 100% of an out-of-pocket medical or dental expense, the party incurring that expense should provide verification of the expense, preferably in the form of an invoice, and proof of payment of the expense, preferably in the form of a receipt, within 30 days of having paid the expense. If a party does not provide verification within 30 days, the other may not have to pay the party for such expense. The other party should reimburse the paying party within 30 days of receiving the verification.

SCHOOL FEES

17. The parties should each be responsible for 50% of any required school fees, defined as a charge, deposit, rent, or other mandatory payment imposed by the minor child's school. The parties acknowledge and agree that school fees may include, among other things, an admission fee, a transportation charge, or a charge, deposit, rent, or other mandatory payment imposed by a third party in connection with an activity or function sponsored by the minor child's school. However, if a party seeks to send the children to a private school, unless otherwise agreed upon, that party will be liable for all costs associated with the private school. The parties agree to each be separate and directly billed by the minor child's school for 50% of the school fees imposed by the minor child's school. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to request separate billing from the minor child's school and any third-party provider who issues a bill for a school fee for the minor child. If necessary to establish separate billing, the parent requesting separate billing shall provide a copy of their divorce decree to the minor child's school or the appropriate third-party provider. In order to facilitate separate billing and avoid ambiguity and misunderstanding, the parties agree to draft and include language in their divorce decree directed at the minor child's school and any third-party providers who might bill for school fees, to put them on notice of their duties under Utah Code Ann. Sec. 15-4-6.7 to separately bill the parties for school fees. In the event that, notwithstanding the separate billing provisions above, one party pays for 100% of a school fee for the party's minor child, the party incurring that expense should provide verification of the expense, preferably in the form of an invoice, and proof of payment of the expense, preferably in the form of a receipt, within 30 days of having paid the expense. The other party should reimburse the paying party within 30 days of receiving the verification.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

18. The parties will equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to the minor children being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the minor children in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. No party will unilaterally enroll the minor children in extracurricular activities. If a party does unilaterally enroll a child in a extracurricular activity, or without the other party's consent, then that party shall be liable for all fees and the other party is not expected to allow the minor child to participate in the activity during their own respective parent time.

CHILD CARE

19. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, either party using work related childcare services shall have such child care costs paid equally between both parties, which such costs shall be provided within 30 days of payment. The party using child care service shall provide the contact information and identity of the child care provider. Child care provided by either party's family is not considered to be a paid service

SPOUSAL SUPPORT (ALIMONY)

20. Each party is fully capable of supporting themselves, and therefore, neither party shall be awarded spousal support. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive any spousal support from the other both now and in the future.

REAL PROPERTY

21. During the marriage Hannah purchased a town home in her name as of February 2023, while the parties were still married. Garrett waives the right as of now to claim any marital interest in the home.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

22. The parties acquired personal property during the marriage. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as otherwise indicated in the Stipulation.

VEHICLES

23. The parties acquired vehicles during the marriage, which shall be awarded as follows:

- a. Hannah shall be awarded the Volkswagen
- b. Garrett shall be awarded the Toyota Rav 4

24. The parties will cooperate in signing the title on the vehicle the other party is awarded, and exchanging the title and keys in their possession to the party awarded the vehicle, within thirty (30) days of the signing of the Stipulation.

25. Each party will be responsible for the debt, maintenance, and insurance on the vehicle he/she is awarded, holding the other harmless therefrom.

BANK ACCOUNTS

26. The parties shall divide equally the funds in all checking/savings/bitcoin accounts of the parties as of the date the Petition was filed. Any accounts, including those attached to any apps, awarded after division shall remove the other parties' information, including email addresses.

STOCKS, BONDS, OTHER INVESTMENTS

27. There are no stocks, bonds, or other investments at issue in this matter.

401K, PENSION, OTHER RETIREMENT BENEFITS

28. To the extent that it is known, Hannah is awarded her retirement account free and clear. Garrett is awarded his retirement free and clear.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

29. The parties shall be responsible for their own medical insurance upon entry of the Decree of Divorce herein.

TAXES

2. The parties agree as follows regarding their 2023 and 2024 tax returns, and claiming the minor children for tax benefit purposes related to filing federal and state tax returns in future years:

a. Each party shall be solely liable for any taxes owed due to their separate tax filing and any refund received shall become the separate property of the filing party.

b. So long as there are two (2) minor children, Hannah shall be entitled to claim G.J.M. each year for tax benefit purposes and Garrett shall be entitled to claim T.A.N. each year for tax benefit purposes.

c. If one of the parties chooses to amend prior tax filings, any income received will be split evenly between the parties.

d. At such time as there is only one minor child, the parties now have two, and shall alternate claiming the child with Hannah receiving the benefit for tax years ending in an odd number and Garrett receiving the benefit for tax years ending in an even number.

e. The parties must be current on his or her child support obligation as of December 31st of the tax year they are entitled to claim the minor children for tax benefit purposes on their tax return.

f. The parties shall cooperate in signing any forms required by the IRS allowing the other party to claim the minor children when he/she is entitled to the tax benefit.

DEBTS

30. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

a. Joint Accounts. Neither party should incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

b. Other Debts. Any and all other debts and obligations shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

c. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts, upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually. However, if there is a debt that was created by one party in the name of the other party, such debt shall be mediated before seeking court intervention.

d. Notification to Creditors. For any joint debts, the parties may notify their respective creditors regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

e. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his/her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

31. The parties shall assume his or her own attorney's fees and court costs incurred in pursuing this matter.

BANKRUPTCY

32. If either party files for bankruptcy, it shall constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issue herein.

COOPERATION

33. The parties shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debt divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

34. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provision of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

35. Both parties shall be restrained from making disparaging or derogatory remarks to one another or to their minor children about one another or in the minor children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from annoying, stalking, harming, harassing or threatening the other party. The parties shall not enter the residence of the other party without permission from that party. Each party is restrained from posting any stories, pictures, statements about the other party on any social media sites. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his/her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances. As used in this paragraph, disparage and derogatory mean to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

IDENTITY

36. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other part to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

DEFAULT

37. In the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.
