Judge Kasey L. Wright

This matter came before the Court in a bench trial held on April 13, 2026. Petitioner, Chelsey Woodward was represented by Albert Pranno, and Respondent, Brian Woodward was represented by William N. Pohl. Having received testimony and other evidence at trial, the Court makes the following Decree of Divorce in this matter, and being otherwise fully advised, therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

Jurisdiction

1. Petitioner is a resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been so for at least 3 months prior to the filing of the Verified Petition for Decree of Divorce. Utah County and the State of Utah are the proper jurisdiction for the instant legal matter.

2. Venue is appropriate in this Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-15-605.

Marriage Statistics

3. The parties to this action were married on the 21st day of September, 2013, in Cache County, State of Utah.

4. The parties separated in September, 2022.

Grounds

5. Petitioner is granted a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

Child Custody and Parent Time

6. There have been two (2) children born as issue of the marriage, to wit: M.J.W., whose date of birth is March 10, 2016, and T.M.W., whose date of birth is June 2, 2019.

7. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq., Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case because Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children or Utah was the home state of the minor child six (6) months prior to the commencement of the proceeding, and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208.

8. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq. and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-14-101 et seq., the Court finds:

- a. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, children support, parent-time or visitation concerning the parties' minor children which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.
- b. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' children.
- c. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor children and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to the children.

Legal Custody & Parenting Plan

- 9. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.
- 10. Major parenting decisions are those decisions relating to the children's education, healthcare, dental care, orthodontics, counseling, therapy, religious upbringing, permanent body alterations, and extra-curricular activities.
- 11. Both parties shall give input and consult with each other on major parenting decisions involving the children. In the event the parties cannot agree, then Petitioner shall have final decision-making authority.
- 12. If Respondent disagrees with a major parenting decision made by Petitioner, then the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter through formal mediation. If they are unable to resolve the dispute in mediation, then Respondent may bring the matter to the Court for determination.

13. The parent with whom the children are residing at the time will make day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the parties' children.

14. A parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the children when the children are in his or her care.

15. The parties shall make best efforts to be effective co-parents. Each parent shall focus on the needs and interest of his or her children. Each parent shall give his or her children the opportunity to have a meaningful relationship between the minor children and the other parent.

16. The parties shall take steps to adopt procedures to ensure that they have communication in a civil manner. The parties shall be civil in all communication; name-calling, vulgarities, or abusive language shall never be considered civil communication.

17. The parties have been using Our Family Wizard for communication, and it is working well. The parties shall continue using Our Family Wizard as they have historically.

18. The parents shall share information regarding school, social, and other areas of the children's lives that could assist both parents in making the best decisions for the children. If information is available through websites, email lists, etc., each party shall be proactive and obtain the information directly from these sources.

19. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, and other child related information and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.

20. Each parent shall notify the other parent if they are taking a minor child to the doctor for anything other than routine appointments.

21. The parties shall share all medical and health information of the children with the other parent. 23. When traveling out-of-state with the minor children, no later than 24 hours prior or if no later than 24 hour notice is possible, as soon as possible, the party traveling with the children shall give the other party the following: 1) an itinerary of travel dates; 2) destinations; 3) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and 4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

24. When desiring to travel internationally with the children, a party shall receive prior written agreement from the other party to travel with the children. Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The parties shall agree in writing before obtaining a passport for the minor children.

25. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, vacations, and other significant events in the lives of the children or in the life of either parent, which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

26. Each parent shall immediately advise the other parent of any changes in addresses, telephone number, email, or other information pertinent to communication.

27. Either parent shall be allowed to call/text the children at reasonable times. The children may call/text either parent at any time. When the children request to communicate with the other parent, each parent shall make reasonable efforts to facilitate the communication.

28. The statutory provisions set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 regarding medical expenses and insurance shall apply as applicable unless specifically stated otherwise herein.

29. If insurance for medical and dental expenses is available or becomes available to either parent at reasonable cost and is accessible to the children, the parent(s) should be responsible for maintaining insurance for their children.

30. If, at any point in time, the children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, unless agreed to otherwise by the parties, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner should be primary coverage for the children, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance of Respondent should be secondary coverage for the children.

31. If a parent remarries and his or her children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent should be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the children.

32. Both parents should provide cash medical support by equally sharing all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments.

33. Both parents should share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the children's portion of the premium actually paid by the parent who maintains the insurance.
