IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

SYDNEY OLSON, Petitioner, vs. KARL CARPENTER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case Number 254402398 Judge Sean Petersen Commissioner Marla Snow
---	---

This matter came before the court on the mediated settlement of the parties. The parties met in mediation on May 29, 2026 and resolved all issues of this divorce action and entered into their Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, which is on file herein. The court, having reviewed the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement and finding it to be reasonable and proper and having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law now therefore enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The Petitioner has been a resident of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months prior to the commencement of this action.

The Respondent has been a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months prior to the commencement of this action.

The parties were married in the State of Utah in American Fork, Utah County, Utah on September 6, 2024.

The parties are the natural parents of one (1) minor child: R.G.O.C. born in July 2025.

The minor child has resided with Petitioner in the State of Utah since birth and has resided in no other state. Utah is the home state of the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §81-11-201.

Petitioner is the biological mother of the minor child.

Respondent is the biological father of the minor child. Respondent's name shall be added to the minor child's birth certificate to reflect this fact.

The parties separated on or about November 16, 2024.

Neither party is on active duty in the military, and the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 USC Appx. § 501 et seq., does not apply.

There are no proceedings for custody of the minor child, or any criminal or delinquency cases in which party or the parties' child are respondents or defendants filed or pending in the juvenile court or any other jurisdiction.

As such, jurisdiction and venue are properly before the court.

GROUND FOR DIVORCE

During the parties' marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties, making continuation of the marriage impossible and the marriage no longer viable, as grounds for divorce under Utah Code §81-4-405(h).

PARENT TIME AND CUSTODY

Legal Custody. It is in the best interests of the minor children that the Parties be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child under Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-9-204 and 81-9-

205(2). The major decisions concerning the minor child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training should be discussed between the parties. If the parties cannot agree then they will use a dispute resolution process including relying on a professional in the area of dispute, if still at an impasse, they will go to mediation and if still at an impasse may rely on the court. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information or records concerning their child. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the children are in their care. Should any disagreement arise between the parties regarding major decisions affecting the minor child, Petitioner will have presumptive decision-making authority subject to Respondent having the right to seek mediation if he does not agree.

Mediation. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or the terms or implementation of any agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed-upon third party or mediator before the parties initiate legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency or enforcement relief from the Court in the future should an issue arise that would make formal negotiation impractical.

Physical Custody. It is in the best interests of the minor child that Petitioner be awarded sole physical custody of the minor child under Utah Code Ann. §81-9-304, and designated as the residential and custodial parent. Parent time with the minor child shall be as stated in the Parenting Plan below.

The parties shall follow the holiday schedule outlined in Utah Code §81-9-303 et seq, subject to the limitations found in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-304, with Respondent designated as the non-custodial parent.

The parties should be entitled to contact the minor child by telephone, email, and/or other means of virtual communication as reasonably available. Such contact should be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

If either party relocates more than 150 miles from the other party, the provisions of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 shall apply. The moving party shall provide sixty (60) days' advance notice, and the other party may request involvement from the court to make a determination for relocation.

Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the minor child's day-to-day activities when the minor child is in his or her care.

Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each party shall have first option to provide care for the minor child over any other, non-family relative, third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for a period of six (6) hours or longer during parent time, and the other parent shall be entitled to parent-time if that parent is personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent time under the right of first refusal shall (a) provide all transportation to and from parent time and (b) provide direct parental care. The parties shall use their best reasonable efforts to give as much advance notice of this right of first refusal as possible.

Both parties shall be obligated to follow the policies, intent, definitions, and guidelines provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-201, and the following Parenting Plan shall be implemented and ordered by the Court.

PARENTING PLAN

Petitioner's reasonable right of parent time shall be defined under Utah Code Ann. §81-9-304, modified as follows:

Respondent successfully completes (1) a Love and Logic class, (2) a parenting skills class, and (3) while not admitting to having anger issues, anger management class, and provides proof of completion to Petitioner prior to any unsupervised visitation.

Respondent shall have parent time with the minor child at Petitioner's home, supervised by Petitioner, from 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m. on the following dates: June 10, 17, & 24, 2026, and July 1, 2026.

Respondent shall have parent time with the minor child at a neutral location, supervised by Petitioner or a mutually agreed upon third party supervisor at Respondent's expense, from 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m. on the following dates: July 8, 9, 15, 16, 22, 23, 29, and 30, 2026.

Respondent shall have unsupervised parent time with the minor child the following dates and times:

August 5, 2026: 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m.

August 12, 2026: 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m.

August 15, 2026: 12:00p.m. - 8:00p.m.

August 19, 2026: 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m.

August 26, 2026: 6:00p.m. - 8:00p.m.

August 28-29, 2026: 5:30p.m. - 7:30p.m.

Respondent shall have unsupervised parent time with the minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-304.

Petitioner and Respondent shall discuss extending parent time once the minor child is 3 years old. At such time Respondent shall have unsupervised parent time as agreed upon between the parties, and if the Parties cannot agree, Respondent may have the option to go to mediation or court without the need to show a material change in circumstance, to increase the parent time.

Respondent shall notify Petitioner if he will be more than 15 minutes late for any scheduled parent time.

If Respondent is unable to exercise his scheduled parent time, he shall notify Petitioner at least 24 hours prior to any scheduled parent time.

Upon the time when Respondent is having unsupervised parent time, transfers for parent time will be curbside with the receiving parent picking up the child, or at a location to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. Should no mutually agreeable location be found then the transfers will be at a police station that is closest to the residence of the party currently exercising his or her parent time.

Respondent shall notify Petitioner of any scheduled holiday parent time that he will not be exercising, and Petitioner and Respondent will discuss a make-up day.

Both parties shall ensure that the minor child is seated in an appropriate and correctly installed car seat at all times while riding in any motor vehicle.

Petitioner will maintain possession of any passport obtained for the minor child, and will provide the passport information to Respondent, and provide the minor child's passport to Respondent when required for travel.

Special consideration should be given by each party to make the minor child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the lives of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent time schedule, and which does not put undue pressure on the custodial parent.

The parties shall discuss and resolve any parent time issues among themselves, and such issues shall not be discussed with the minor child by any means.

All communication between the parties shall remain civil in nature and shall be related to parent time or other issues involving the minor child.

The parties shall refrain from speaking negatively about one another in the presence of the minor child, and the parties shall not discuss the custody and parent time schedule or any legal actions with, or in earshot of, the minor child.

The parties shall also require other third parties that come into contact with the child to refrain and remove the child from such contact and this restriction should extend to all social media and networking websites and forums to which the child may have access.

The parties shall each ensure that the child is properly supervised, clothed, cleaned, and fed during their respective parent time. Each parent should provide for the necessities of the minor child while the child is in his or her care without relying on the other parent or using the items in the possession of the other parent for the minor child.

Both parties shall not introduce new romantic partners to the child unless the romantic relationship has been continuous and exclusive for a period of six months.

Each party shall keep the other party informed of his/her current address and telephone number, and if possible, advise the other party no less than sixty (60) days in advance of any move.

Should either party desire to travel out of the county with the child, the parties shall give the other party thirty (30) days' advance notice of travel.

Should either party desire to travel out of state with the child, the parties should give the other party as much advance notice of travel for non-adjacent states and seven (7) days advance notice for adjacent states. The traveling party must disclose an itinerary and contact information for a third party who will know the child's whereabouts when traveling with the child.

When the minor child travels with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least fourteen (14) days prior to departure:

An itinerary of travel dates;

Destination;

Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and

The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

Travel with the child shall not take precedence over the other party's parent time.

Neither party, nor any other adult, shall possess, consume, or be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or misused prescription drugs in the home or in the presence of the minor child. Neither party, or any other adult, shall consume alcohol, illegal drugs, or misused prescription drugs within 24 hours prior to, or during, their parent time.

If a party is more than 15 minutes late for the scheduled start of parent time without prior communication to the other party, that period of parent time shall be deemed forfeited, unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing.

The parties shall ensure that any and all firearms or other weapons in the home are stored in a safe and secure manner, and are inaccessible to the minor child at all times without parental supervision.

CHILD SUPPORT

In accordance with the Utah Child Support Act, set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-201 et seq., child support shall be calculated based on the parties' monthly gross income or imputed income and the parties' respective parenting time with the minor children.

Petitioner earns a gross monthly wage of $4,459.00, and Respondent earns a gross monthly wage of $6,908.90. Beginning July 1, 2026, Pursuant to the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet, Respondent shall pay to Petitioner $679.00 each month for child support, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-201 et seq. Respondent paid to Petitioner $4,000.00 in back child support via Venmo on May 29, 2026 and this payment resolved all issues of any arrears for child support.

Upon a minor child turning eighteen years old or graduating from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the child support award for that child shall automatically terminate.

Should the obligated party fall more than thirty (30) days behind in his or her child support, the receiving party shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding payable through the Utah Office of Recovery Services as provided by Utah Code Ann. §62A-11- 401 et seq.

CHILD TAX CREDITS

Petitioner is awarded the tax claim for the minor child in Tax Year 2026 and all even years thereafter. Respondent is awarded the tax claim for the minor child in Tax Year 2027 and all odd years thereafter.

CHILD INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

Petitioner should maintain medical, dental, and optical insurance for the minor child's benefit so long as it is available to the respective parties through their employment at a reasonable cost. If at any time a minor child is covered by the insurance plans of both parents,

Petitioner's insurance will be primary coverage and Respondent's insurance will be secondary Coverage. The parties should equally pay 50% on any sums not covered by insurance, including, but not limited to, physician care, inpatient prescription medications, medically necessary medical supplies, eye examinations, corrective lenses, dental and orthodontic care, and mental health care under the following guidelines:

As required by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, each party should provide the other written notice and proof of medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health expenses incurred, and payments made thereon, by insurance or otherwise, within thirty (30) days of the date the expense is incurred. Each party should provide the other with copies of statements or written notice received of payments made to a provider by insurance. The obligated party should pay his or her portion, as specified above, of incurred medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health expenses directly to the party who paid the provider of medical, dental, orthodontic, vision and mental health services within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice from that party.

In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if the incurring party fails to comply with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

Any party ordered to and/or providing insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 10th of each year. The insuring party should notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of the date the insuring parent first knew or should have known of the change.

As required by Utah Code §81-6-208, the parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and mental health insurance premiums paid for the minor child's portion of the insurance. The parent obligated to provide child support should be entitled to an offset, either adding to or deducting from his or her monthly child support payments to facilitate the equal sharing of the out-of-pocket costs of a medical insurance premium.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Should it be necessary to incur a work-related childcare expense, pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-214, each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of all reasonable and necessary work-related childcare expenses incurred. The party incurring a childcare expense shall give the other party notice of all incurred childcare expenses, the name and contact information for any childcare provider, and reimbursement for those expenses and continued monthly payments should be made pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209.

If either party has made his or her half payment on any childcare-related expense, that party shall notify the provider to ensure that no collection efforts are made against the paying party.

SCHOOL EXPENSES AND ACTIVITY COSTS

The minor child shall attend school in a location as the parties mutually agree. In the event the parties cannot reach an agreement, the child should attend based on the custodial parent's current residence.

Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in-writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e., registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

ALIMONY

Neither party shall be awarded alimony, and each party's claim to alimony shall be waived now and forever in the future.

REAL PROPERTY

The parties have no interest or ownership in any marital real property, and as such, there is no need for a division of real property.

Any real property that was owned by either party shall remain solely owned by that party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties may have acquired various items of personal property, including vehicles, which has already been divided by the parties.

Except as otherwise provided herein, all personal property currently in the possession or control of either party shall remain the sole property of that party, free and clear of any claim by the other.

INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT, AND BANK ACCOUNTS, & SECURITIES

Prior to and during the course of the parties' marriage, the parties established, either jointly or separately, certain retirement, pension, checking, savings, investments, bank accounts, and/or other securities.

The parties are each awarded the bank accounts and any retirement or investment accounts, including any stocks, bonds, or 401(k) account, should any such exist, that are in their name as their sole ownership and possession, free and clear of any claim by the other.

Should the parties have any joint banking or investment accounts, those accounts shall be immediately closed by the parties and the funds divided equally between the parties.

BUSINESSES

Any business interests held by the parties has been reasonably and equitably divided, and as such, no division is required by the Court.

DEBTS

During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties have incurred various debts. The party in whose name appears on the debt shall be solely responsible for it, and the responsible party is required to indemnify the other and hold the other harmless from any loss, damage, demand, or claim of any kind arising from his or her failure or neglect to do so.

Each party shall assume and be solely responsible for his or her respective student loan obligations and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

Any debts or obligations incurred by either party after November 16, 2024, shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring such debt, and the other party shall be indemnified and held harmless therefrom.

The parties shall notify creditors of the Court's division of debts and shall provide creditors with their separate, current addresses. Each party shall remain responsible for ensuring that any debt assigned to him or her remains current and in good standing.

Pursuant to Utah Code §81-7-103, upon service of the Decree of Divorce and notice of the parties' separate addresses, creditors shall provide required statements and notices individually to each party. With respect to any joint obligation assigned to one party, no negative credit report or report of repayment practices shall be made against the non-obligated party unless the creditor has made demand upon the obligated party and the obligated party has failed to make payment as ordered.

If either party is obligated on a jointly secured debt, payments shall remain current. In the event a required payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be promptly listed for sale if necessary to protect the parties' credit interests. A party who advances funds to cure a delinquency in order to protect his or her credit may seek reimbursement from the obligated party, together with interest and reasonable attorney's fees.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

Both parties are restrained from making any demeaning or disparaging statements about the other party to the minor child, individuals related to the other party, or the significant other of either party. Demeaning or disparaging conduct includes speaking, writing or posting on social media in a derogatory, belittling, or harmful manner, regardless of whether such statements are believed to be true.

Both parties are further restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes contacting the other party through any form of communication without identifying oneself, sending communications outside of regular or agreed-upon channels, contacting the other party regarding matters unrelated to the divorce, and authorizing or instructing third parties to contact the other party, except in cases of emergency.

Both parties are also restrained from permitting or encouraging third parties to engage in any conduct prohibited under this order and shall use their best efforts to prevent such violations.

Both parties are restrained from engaging in any retaliatory or revenge-based actions that interfere with the other party's access to essential resources or communication. This includes turning off or disabling phone services used by the other party, freezing, locking, or otherwise restricting access to joint or individual bank accounts or credit cards without prior agreement or court order, canceling or interfering with utility services, insurance policies, or other essential accounts relied upon by the other party, and taking any action intended to disrupt the other party's financial stability, personal security, or ability to communicate effectively. Both parties shall act in good faith to maintain the status quo and ensure fair treatment during the pendency of this action.

MISCELLANEOUS

Last Name: The minor child shall have Respondent's last name added to her current name, making her full name R.G.O.C. Respondent shall take the necessary steps to make this change, as well as the addition of his name as father, to the minor child's birth certificate, and Petitioner shall cooperate accordingly. Respondent shall be responsible for the costs of the reissued birth certificate.

Existing Expenses: Since the conception of the minor child, Petitioner has incurred uninsured out of pocket expenses for things such as medical expenses and child care expenses for the minor child and her birth. Petitioner shall provide statements and/or invoices to determine the correct amount, and Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner for $4,000.00 of those expenses by transferring those funds from his HSA account to Petitioner's HSA account within 30 days of the Decree of Divorce being entered.

Execution of Documents/Deeds/Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer the titles or any other documents necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

Identity: Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

Attorney's Fees: Neither party is awarded attorney fees.

Notice to Creditors: The parties shall provide a certified copy of the final Decree of Divorce, and any modifications thereto, to all creditors as outlined in Utah Code Ann. §81-4-204(1)(e) and Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with these statutes.

Modification: Prior to either party filing a Petition to Modify to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties shall attend mediation to resolve the issue using a mutually agreed upon mediator.

Waiver of Claims: The parties acknowledged that the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement resolved all pending issues between the parties, including but not limited to, any claim, alimony, asset or property division, and for any other claims for outstanding financial obligations of the parties.
