IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

CLAUDIA ALEJANDRA INGAR
ZAMORA,

and

JOHN MICHAEL HANSEN.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264401498
Judge Thomas Low
Commissioner Marla Snow

The above-captioned matter came on regularly for consideration by the court, pursuant to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

Child

2. There has been one (1) child born as issue of this marriage: J.A.H., born October 14, 2020.

Legal Custody

3. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child pursuant to the proposed Parenting Plan, contained herein.

Physical Custody

4. Claudia shall be awarded sole physical custody of their minor child with John exercising parent time as the parties agree, or in accordance with the proposed Parenting Plan, contained herein.

Child Support

5. For purposes of calculating child support, John is self-employed and receives gross monthly income in the amount of $6,714.00.

6. For purposes of calculating child support, Claudia is employed and receives gross monthly income in the amount of $1,787.00.

7. According to the parties' incomes and the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, using a Sole Custody worksheet, John shall be ordered to pay $750.00 per month for the support of the parties' minor child. John shall pay child support to commence July 1, 2026.

8. John's support of the minor child shall be continued until said child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

9. Child support shall be due half on the 5th of each month and half on the 20th of each month. Child support shall be paid by John directly to Claudia via direct deposit. If John misses two consecutive payments, Claudia may open a case with ORS.

10. The base child support award shall be reduced by (a) 50% for the child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time. or (b) 25% for the child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

Health Care Coverage and Medical Costs

11. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. §81-6-208, if health care coverage for the benefit of the minor child is available to either party at a reasonable cost, that party shall be required to maintain said health care coverage.

12. If health care coverage for the benefit of the minor child is available to both parties at a reasonable cost, the parties shall be free to choose either available plan on which to enroll the minor child.

13. If the parties cannot agree, the minor child shall be placed on John's insurance as primary, and Claudia's as secondary, if she has insurance available to her.

14. Both parties shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the health care coverage actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of health care coverage. The child's portion of the health care coverage shall be calculated by dividing the health care coverage amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor child of the parties in this case.

15. Both parties shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uncovered and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child, and actually paid by the parties.

16. The parent ordered to maintain health care coverage shall provide verification of health care coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services, under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of health care coverage, insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

17. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

18. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with this section.

19. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

Childcare Expenses

20. The parties do not presently anticipate incurring any childcare expenses. Accordingly, in the event either party incurs childcare expenses in the future, such expenses shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring them, and neither party shall be entitled to reimbursement or contribution from the other party for such expenses.

Debts and Obligations

21. Both parties shall assume and pay and hold the other harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by the parties after their date of separation, May 6 2026, unless otherwise allocated herein.

22. John shall assume and pay, and hold Claudia harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by the parties during their marriage, with the exception of the following obligations which Claudia shall assume and pay.

a. Claudia shall assume and pay, and hold John harmless from liability in connection with her personal Chase Sapphire credit card.

23. All debts and obligations not identified during the course of this action shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

24. The parties shall be restrained from incurring any debt or obligation on any joint account and on any account in the name of the other party.

25. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. §30-3-5(c)(ii), the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and the parties' separate, current addresses, and shall refinance any debt that is in the other party's name into solely his/her own name within 60 days.

Provisions Relating to Financial Assets

26. During the course of the marriage the parties acquired financial assets, including, but not limited to, joint and separate checking, savings, and investment accounts.

27. The parties shall be awarded all such assets in their own name free and clear of any claim by the other, and the parties shall equally split any remaining jointly owned assets equally.

Personal Property

28. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The parties have divided their personal property by agreement and to their mutual satisfaction. Each party shall retain the personal property currently in his or her possession, free and clear of any claim by the other.

29. John shall be awarded the 2019 Ford F-150 and all its spare keys, subject to any and all financial obligation associated therewith, and free from any claim of interest by Claudia. John shall refinance the loan on the 2019 Ford F-150 to remove Claudia's name within 60 days of signing this agreement.

30. Claudia shall be awarded the 2021 Toyota Camry and all its spare keys, subject to any and all financial obligation associated therewith, and free from any claim of interest by John. The title shall be transferred to Claudia within 60 days of this Agreement. Claudia shall refinance the loan to remove John's name within 60 days of signing this agreement.

31. The parties shall assume any debts and obligations related to any property he or she is awarded and shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from the same.

32. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

Real Property

33. The parties acquired no real property during the course of this marriage, nor do they presently own an interest in real property.

Business Interests and Related Assets

34. Both parties have accrued business ownership interests or other related assets.

Both parties shall maintain interest in their own business(es), and shall abandon all claims to the other's business interests upon entry of the parties' Decree of Divorce.

35. Claudia shall be awarded all right, title, interest, and equity in and to Miss Travels World, LLC, free and clear of any claim, interest, lien, or encumbrance of John. John hereby relinquishes, waives, and quitclaims any and all rights or claims he may have in or to Miss Travels World, LLC, and Claudia shall be solely responsible for all assets, liabilities, obligations, profits, and losses associated therewith from and after the date of this Decree.

36. John shall be awarded all right, title, interest, and equity in and to John Hansen Insurance, LLC and Hansen Home Holdings, LLC, free and clear of any claim, interest, lien, or encumbrance of Claudia. Claudia hereby relinquishes, waives, and quitclaims any and all rights or claims she may have in or to such entities, and John shall be solely responsible for all assets, liabilities, obligations, profits, and losses associated therewith from and after the date of this Decree. Within 60 days of this Agreement, John shall remove Claudia's name from any and all business holding, accounts, registrations, property, and obligations from any of the foregoing.

37. The parties acknowledge and agree that H&C Capital, LLC is owned by John's father, Cliff Hansen, and that John serves solely as the registered agent for the company. The parties further acknowledge that neither party presently possesses any ownership interest, membership interest, or equity interest in H&C Capital, LLC. Claudia hereby relinquishes, waives, and quitclaims any and all rights or past, present, and future claims she may have in or to this entity.

Alimony

38. As and for a full and final settlement of any and all claims for alimony, John shall pay to Claudia the lump-sum amount of $45,000.00 within 30 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Upon receipt of such payment, Claudia shall be deemed to have fully satisfied and released any present or future claim against John for alimony, spousal support, maintenance, or separate maintenance, and she hereby waives and relinquishes any right to seek additional alimony or spousal support from John at any time thereafter.

Retirement Accounts, Pensions, and Related Assets

39. Both parties have accrued benefits in retirement accounts, pensions, or other related assets. Both parties shall maintain interest in their own accounts, and shall abandon all claims to the other's account upon entry of the parties' Decree of Divorce.

Personal Conduct

40. Both parties shall be permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming the other at the other place of residence, employment or any other place. Both parties shall be civil and respectful in their communications with one another.

Taxes

41. The parties shall alternate claiming the minor child for child tax credits for the purposes of filing federal and state income tax returns on alternating years, with Claudia claiming the child in even-numbered tax years and John claiming the child in odd-numbered tax years. The parties shall execute any necessary tax forms to enable the other to claim said child tax credits for their awarded years. In order to claim the minor child on his taxes, John must be up-to-date on his child support obligations by December 31 of the applicable year.

42. For the 2026 tax year, each party shall file his or her income tax returns separately and shall not file any joint federal or state income tax return with the other party. Should Claudia receive a 1099 for any of John's business interests/what was sold under Claudia's agent license, John shall be responsible to pay the tax obligation for 2026 only.

Attorney's Fees

43. Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting this action.

Other

44. If any provision of the Decree of Divorce or the application thereof is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Decree of Divorce.

45. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

46. The Court shall grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.

PARENTING PLAN

47. Joint Legal Custody/Dispute Resolution Process: The parties shall exercise joint legal custody. Significant decisions involving legal matters, health, education, and religious upbringing, shall be discussed in advance in an attempt to reach an agreement. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, Mom shall make the final decision. If Dad disagrees with the decision made, he may take any matter to mediation with the parties equally splitting the cost of mediation. If no agreement is reached at mediation, Dad may bring the matter before the court.

48. Day-to-Day Decision Making: The parent with whom the child is then located shall make day-to-day decisions involving the child. The parent who is with the child at that time shall make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. If there is an emergency, the other parent shall immediately be informed.

49. Physical Custody and Parent Time: Mom shall be awarded sole physical custody of the minor child. Mom's home shall be designated as the primary residence of the child. Dad's parent time shall be as agreed upon by the parties or in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. §81-9-209.

a. Dad shall be entitled to parenting time one weekend per month, at Dad's election. Dad shall provide 30 days advance notice of the selected weekend to Mom. If notice is not given, Dad's weekend shall be designated as the last weekend of the month.

b. If the child has teacher development days, snow days, or other school days off that are not listed as holidays, and those days fall next to Dad's scheduled weekend or holiday parent time, those days will be included as part of that parent time.

50. In the event Dad relocates back to Utah and establishes a residence within 150 miles of Mom residence, Dad's parent time shall thereafter be exercised in accordance with the minimum parent time schedule set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302.

51. Virtual Parent Time: In addition to the parent time awarded Dad shall be entitled to communicate with the minor child at least two times per week at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The parties shall mutually agree on specific dates and time for virtual parent time to occur.

52. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they agree or pursuant to in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 as follows:

a. In odd-numbered years, Dad shall exercise parent-time during (a) Fall Break, or Labor Day if the child's school does not observe Fall Break, and (b) the entirety of Winter Break, commencing upon school dismissal and concluding the day prior to school resuming.

b. In even-numbered years, Dad shall exercise parent-time during (a) Spring Break, or Presidents' Day if the child's school does not observe Spring Break, and (b) Thanksgiving Break, commencing upon school dismissal and concluding the day prior to school resuming.

53. Summer/Extended Parent Time: Dad shall further be entitled to extended parent-time consisting of one-half (1/2) of the child's summer break, to be exercised consecutively, with Dad being entitled to the first half in odd-numbered years and the second half in even-numbered years. For extended parent-time, Dad shall return the child to the Mom no later than seven days before school starts. This week is counted when determining the amount of parent time to be divided between the parents.

54. Virtual parent-time shall continue to apply during extended parent-time/summer time, and neither parent shall unreasonably deny virtual access to the minor child from the other parent.

55. In the event finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum parent time for Dad during the school year, the court shall consider awarding more time for Dad during the summer time.

56. Transportation of child: The parties shall follow Utah Code Ann. 81-9-209(17) for purposes of the child's travel expenses, with Dad being listed as the relocating parent.

57. The parties shall consult together regarding flights at least 30 days before travel.

Direct flights shall be used whenever available, and the minor child shall not travel on red-eye flights. No later than 48 hours after the purchase of the tickets, Dad shall provide Mom with a copy of the flight itinerary.

58. Accompaniment of Minor Child: The minor child shall be permitted to fly unaccompanied upon reaching twelve (12) years of age. Either parent may choose to accompany the child on any flight or utilize an airline's unaccompanied minor service, however, any accompanying parent shall do so at their own expense.

59. Responsibility for Delays or Cancellations: Neither parent shall be held responsible for airline delays, cancellations, or other travel disruptions beyond their control. In the event of a delay, cancellation, missed connection, or other travel disruption, the parent exercising parent-time shall remain responsible for the child until the child is safely delivered to the destination parent or otherwise safely placed in the care of airline personnel or appropriate accommodations. The traveling parent shall promptly notify the other parent of any travel disruption and shall provide updated itinerary information as soon as reasonably possible. Any additional expenses incurred as a result of travel disruptions, including but not limited to meals, lodging, transportation, and airline change fees, shall be the responsibility of the parent exercising parent-time unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties.

60. Allocation of Costs: The parties shall not share any additional travel-related costs beyond the airline ticket expenses and reimbursable travel costs expressly outlined herein.

61. Travel Within the Continental United States: Either parent shall have the right to travel with J.A.H. to any location within the continental United States without the need for prior consent of the other parent, provided that such travel does not interfere with the other parent's custodial time as outlined in this agreement.

62. Travel Expectations and International Travel: In the event the parties vacation away from their home, the parent exercising parent-time with the child shall provide, as soon as reasonably possible, but not less than 72 hours to the other parent the following prior to leaving for vacation with the minor child:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destinations, including an exact address where the child will be staying and a phone number where they can be reached (for example, if they are staying at a hotel or at the home of a family member or friend);

c. Places where the minor child or traveling party can be reached.

i. Passports: Both parties shall facilitate in a timely manner in obtaining passports for the minor child upon written agreement between the parties for any out-of-the-country trips the minor child takes with either parent.

ii. The minor child shall not leave the United States unless agreed to in writing by the parties.

63. Education Plan: Mom's home shall be designated as the primary residence of the child for purposes of identifying the appropriate school. Mom shall have authority to make education decisions for the child if the parents cannot agree. Both parents shall have access to the child during school and both parents have authority to check the child out of school. The minor child shall attend school absent extenuating circumstances, medical appointments, sickness, or as otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing.

64. Education Expenses: In addition to any child support obligation, both parties shall be equally responsible for any and all of the child's educational related expenses. Said expenses include, but are not limited to, enrollment fees, school clothing, school supplies, any tutoring related expenses, field trip expenses, school lunches, and any school related activities.

65. Car Insurance: When the child is able to legally drive, Mom shall be responsible for obtaining car insurance for the minor child and both parents shall be equally responsible for any and all fees associated. If a car is purchased for the minor child, the parent buying the care shall maintain the insurance.

66. Cell Phones: The parties shall purchase the minor child a GABB watch and each pay the bill equally (50/50). Dad's virtual time shall be done using the GABB watch or cell phone. Once the child is old enough for a real cell phone (not before the age of 14), Mom shall place the child on a family plan and both parents shall be equally responsible for any and all fees associated.

67. Communication/Exchange of Information: The child shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. The parties shall communicate with each other via text or email, and by telephone when necessary. The parties shall share all information about the child regarding special events, homework assignments, parent/teacher meetings, report cards, medical events, and prescriptions that the other parent may not have access to. Information relating to the child shall be provided to the other parent as soon as it is practical.

68. Changing Needs of the child: The parties acknowledge that as the child gets older, the child's needs may change. Those needs shall be addressed as they occur. To the extent that the parties cannot reach an agreement on their own to address those changes, the parties shall submit to mediation as set out in this Parenting Plan. Without intending to be inclusive, the kinds of changes or circumstances that might arise in the future for further discussion could include the following:

- a. Religious training and affiliations;
- b. Travel out-of-state alone or with other parents;
- c. International travel and passports;
- d. Obtaining driver's license, insurance and driving or owning a car;
- e. Military service;
- f. Underage marriage; and
- g. Alcohol, drug abuse, or other criminal violations of the parties or the minor child.

69. Difference in Parenting Styles: It is probable that differences in parenting styles have and will occur. To that extent, the parties shall focus their attention on conversations on the child rather than each other and encourage the child to understand that differences occur and attempt to adapt to those differences without suggesting that the other parent is better or worse. The parties shall respect the other parent's right to establish an independent life with the child so long as it is not detrimental.

70. Consistency in Raising the child: There will undoubtedly be inconsistencies in the way each party creates ground rules and imposes discipline on the child. In an effort to maintain some consistency and standards for discipline, the parties shall attempt to adopt behavior rules that will apply in both homes, which shall include bedtime, homework, types of movies and video games, frequency of TV, and computer time. Should the child complain about a particular parent's rules for the child, the explanation shall be that it must be resolved with the other parent so that the parents do not become an ally with the child in that regard. If it is perceived by one party that the discipline of the other is inappropriate, the discussion shall be had with the other parent without going through the child.

71. Extended Family Relationships: The parties shall encourage the child to maintain relationships with grandparents and other relatives, and each parent shall assist, as may be necessary, to permit those relationships to continue. This may include permitting the child to attend special events for the other family and permit the child to spend time with extended family which may otherwise interfere with the time-sharing arrangement earlier anticipated. The child's grandparents and other extended family may arrange time to take the child at the discretion of the party who is exercising parent-time.

72. Maintaining Contact When Child Are With the Other Parent:

which parent the child is with at any given time, each parent shall make an effort to have the child contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the child. Each party shall have uncensored, reasonable virtual parent time with the minor child.

73. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate, the relocating parent shall give the other 60 days' notice along with his or her new contact information. If the parties are already exercising UTAH CODE ANN. §81-9-209 parent-time, then that shall remain the parent-time when one party relocated. If the parties live in the same state and if the custodial parent is relocating, the non-custodial parent's parent time shall automatically revert to that outlined in UTAH CODE ANN. §81-9-209.

74. Extracurricular Activities and Sports: The parent who enrolls the minor child in any extracurricular activity shall be solely responsible for payment of all costs and fees associated with such activity, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties.

75. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties shall refrain from communicating with or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms and shall prevent third parties, and the child from doing so as well.

76. Mutual Non-Harassment Restraints:

a. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or visitation.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

c. Both parties are restrained from discussing custody issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child.

77. Special Considerations:

a. The parents shall notify one another within 72 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

b. Both parents shall have access directly to all school reports and medical records, and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.

c. Both parents shall be listed as "emergency contacts" for medical emergencies with any school, daycare, or any other such providers.

d. Both parents shall be allowed to access the child at school and shall be able to check the child out of school for any appropriate reason.

e. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.

f. Surrogate care provided by family members (stepparents, relatives) shall be presumed to be better care for the child than outside childcare, and the parties shall cooperate in using family members to provide care when possible.

g. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the child, in order to keep one another apprised of what is happening in the child's life.

h. The parties shall discuss with one another any situations with the child in which significant discipline was used. The parties shall not use any form of corporal punishment. Further, they shall consult with one another if they experience problems with discipline and try to create consistency with house rules and discipline techniques used. They shall consult with a mental health professional or counselor together if they are unable to resolve behavioral issues involving the child.

i. Neither parent shall make major changes in the child's physical appearance without first working out an agreement with the other parent to do so. This shall extend to cosmetic surgery, ear piercing, tattoos, etc.

j. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the child has while in their home for parent time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental, or mental health professionals.

k. The child is already seeing a therapist and may continue attending. If the child is to see a new therapist, neither party shall enroll the child in services such as counseling without first notifying the other parent of the need for such a service, and involving the other parent in choosing the professional who shall see the child. If a party makes the first contact with such a professional, they shall provide that person with the name, address, and telephone number of the other parent.

l. In the event of a medical emergency, each party shall make every effort to contact and consult with the other party but shall be entitled to make necessary decisions until both parties are available. Such efforts shall include every means at the party's disposal, including calls to work, home, and cell phone, as well as leaving messages at all such numbers, and at the homes of relatives in order to make sure the other parent knows about the medical emergency.

m. Both parties shall refrain from involving the child in "divorce issues." Such issues include, but are not limited to, parent time disagreements; discussions about child support or financial hardships brought about by divorce; differences of opinion on how money is spent; discussions about court and legal matters; contents of legal papers; seeking information regarding what occurs in one another's homes (other than general conversation); and involving the child as "messengers" between the parties.

n. Household Exposure to Romantic Partners: Neither parent shall expose the child to overnight romantic parents in the home unless the relationship is stable and established, generally understood as lasting at least six (6) months, and the parent has exercised reasonable judgment that the relationship is safe, stable, and appropriate for the child. Notwithstanding the duration of the relationship, each parent shall ensure that any individual present in the home does not present a risk to the child's safety, including any history of domestic violence, abuse, or other behavior that may reasonably endanger the child. The parties agree that the child's safety, stability, and wellbeing shall take priority in all household arrangements involving third parties.

o. Both parties shall refrain from using illegal or un-prescribed drugs and from becoming intoxicated while the child is in his or her care. "Intoxicated" shall be defined as drinking more than one mixed drink, or two beers in a four-hour period.

p. Both parties shall refrain from taking the child around other individuals who are using drugs or excessive alcohol, or around any place where drugs are being used, or are common.

q. Neither party shall ever drink and drive with the child in the car, nor shall either of them knowingly allow the child to be in a moving vehicle of any kind in which the driver is under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs.

r. The parties shall obey all traffic laws while transporting the child. Neither part shall expose the minor child to situations of "road rage".

78. Violation of Parenting Plan:

a. If either parent fails to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan or final Decree of Divorce shall not be affected.

b. If either party violates any terms of the Parenting Plan, once approved by the Court, and shall court action become necessary, the violating party shall pay attorney's fees necessary to enforce this plan.
