Attorneys for Laura Macy

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH, PROVO DISTRICT, UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of

LAURA CHRISTINE MACY,

Petitioner,

and

MICHAEL SHATTUCK MACY,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No: 264401630

Judge: Denise M. Porter

Commissioner: Dustin A. Hardy

The above captioned matter came before the court on Petitioner's Petition for Divorce, filed on May 27, 2026. From the records, files, and papers in the matter, the Court having taken all matters herein under advisement and being fully advised in the premises, and having heretofore entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

JURISDICTION

1. Petitioner and Respondent were married on November 11, 2005, and are currently husband and wife.
2. Petitioner and Respondent have been separated since February 5, 2026. Soon after separation, Respondent moved to New Bern, North Carolina.

3. The Petitioner has been a bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three months immediately prior to the filing of this Divorce.

GROUND

4. Petitioner and Respondent have experienced significant marital problems that they have been unable to resolve, making continuation of their marriage impossible, and they should be granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-1(3)(h).

MINOR CHILD

5. The Parties have one (1) minor child. There are no other children expected as issue of this marriage. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Rules of Judicial Administration, the name and birth date of the child will be submitted to the Court on the Non-public Information – Minors form. The initials, birth month and birth year of the minor child are:

a. AM, July 21, 2008

6. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. § 78B-13-101, et seq. The child has resided in Utah for more than six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the child. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the child, and the child and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over the child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-201.

8. The Parties are not aware of any other custody or parent-time proceedings concerning the minor child pending in a court of this or any other state.

9. The Parties do not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings, who has had physical custody of the subject minor child or who claims to have custody or parent-time rights with respect to said child.

CHILD CUSTODY

10. Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent, it would be in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner is awarded SOLE LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

11. Given the relationship and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent, it is in the best interest of the minor children that Petitioner be awarded SOLE PHYSICAL CUSTODY subject to reasonable and appropriate parent time with Respondent.

12. Petitioner's home is established as the child's residential home.

13. Since Respondent has moved more than 149 miles from Petitioner and child, Respondent's parent time should be based on Utah Code 81-9-209(9) & (10).

14. Respondent will pay all expenses for child to visit him.

15. Respondent will pay all expenses when he comes to visit child.

16. Petitioner agrees Respondent is invited and welcome to attend all special occasions.

CONTACT INFORMATION

17. Each party will keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

18. Petitioner is employed full-time at Prestige Financial Services and earns $3,900.00 gross per month for the purpose of calculating child support.

19. Respondent is employed full-time at PFC Insurance Services of the West and earns $4,493.02 gross per month for the purpose of calculating child support.

20. Effective upon the signing of the Divorce Decree, Respondent will pay child support to Petitioner in the amount of $499.00 per month, consistent with the calculation set forth in U.C.A §78B-12-112.

21. Child support is payable in full by the 1st day of each month, or it will be due one-half by the 5th and half on the 20th of each month.

22. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-12-219, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

23. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-12-216, there will be an automatic reduction in child support for extended parent-time.

24. Child support will continue until the minor children reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during their normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later. However, should the child graduate early, then child support will terminate upon the child turning 18 or upon graduation, whichever occurs later.

25. It is fair and reasonable that an order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A Utah Code Annotated, be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

ALIMONY

26. Petitioner is in need of spousal support from Respondent and Respondent is capable of paying, therefore Respondent is ordered to pay half of the housing costs until the current lease expires on May 26, 2026.

CHILD MEDICAL EXPENSES

27. Respondent will continue to pay the family insurance premium until the divorce is final. After the divorce is final, Respondent is responsible for child's out-of-pocket medical costs for child and 100% of medical insurance premiums for the child.

28. Pursuant to Utah Code §78B-12-212, it is fair and reasonable that Petitioner and/or Respondent should provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child where such insurance is available at a reasonable cost. Should a party maintain health/medical insurance through their employment or other business undertakings, or individually, the other party is liable for the payment of one-half of the cost of said insurance for the child's portion of that insurance.

29. The party who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other party's share of the expenses, if that party fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code §78B-12-212.

30. The party who incurs medical expenses should be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing the other party with verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses.

31. The party who maintains insurance will provide written notice to the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in Utah Code §78B-12-212.

ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

32. All school enrollment fees, lunch costs or other school related costs shall be split evenly by the parties.

33. Extra-curricular activity costs shall be split evenly between the parties.

NOTICE OF DIVORCE EDUCATION

34. Both parties are required to take the education course for divorcing parents pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-4-402 and 81-4-105. The parties must take the course within thirty (30) days of receiving written notification of class. Upon completion of the course, both parties should submit proof of completion to both the court and to counsel of record.

35. If Respondent has not attended the class by the time this matter is otherwise ripe for granting of the Decree of Divorce, it is just and proper that the Divorce Decree shall be granted with a provision that Respondent's right to enforce the divorce decree is stayed until Respondent has taken the class and provided proof to the Court and to Petitioner's counsel.

REAL PROPERTY

36. The Parties did not acquire any Real Property during the marriage.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

37. During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain items of personal property.

38. It is fair and reasonable that all property left in Utah upon separation shall remain with Petitioner.

39. Petitioner is awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

- a. Her personal effects and her sole personal property.
- b. All remaining marital assets not already divided including:
 - i. The 2019 Jeep Cherokee
 - ii. The 2017 Jeep Renegade
- c. All personal property possessed by or given to Petitioner prior to the marriage or given during the marriage by Petitioner's family or through inheritance.
- d. All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent is awarded to Petitioner as her sole and separate property.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

40. The money in the parties' joint checking accounts and savings accounts, if any exist, is awarded solely to Petitioner, and the joint accounts closed. Any money in the parties' separate checking accounts is awarded to the party named on the account.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

41. All stocks, bonds, securities, or money market fund accounts, if any exist, should be awarded to the party named on the account.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

42. Both parties have retirement accounts. It is fair and reasonable that all contributions and income during the marriage to retirement accounts or pension funds are awarded to the party named on the account.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

43. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

44. Petitioner filed bankruptcy on all of her debts prior to filing for divorce.

45. If any other debt exists, the Respondent shall assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a. All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent prior to the marriage or after the date of separation, a full accounting of which is to be disclosed.

b. All debts and obligations solely in Respondent's name or incurred without the knowledge and written assent of Petitioner.

46. Respondent and Petitioner will provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

47. The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other and the parties shall not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. The parties should understand that this provision does not bind the bankruptcy court.

48. Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

TAX CREDITS

49. Petitioner shall be entitled to claim federal and state income tax exemptions and credits and claim the child as a dependent every year for as long as the child is eligible to be claimed.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

50. Petitioner and Respondent will each pay their own respective attorneys' fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

NAME CHANGE

51. Petitioner will be restored to her previous name, if she wishes.

COOPERATION

52. Petitioner and Respondent will cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

53. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

54. Both parties should be restrained from saying or doing anything including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the children about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties should also be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party. It is fair and reasonable that both parties should be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

55. In the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.

 This Decree of Divorce is effective when signed by the Court electronically as indicated at the top of the first page.**
