If necessary to establish separate billing, the parent requesting separate billing shall provide a copy of their divorce decree to the minor child's school or the appropriate third-party provider. In order to facilitate separate billing and avoid ambiguity and misunderstanding, the parties agree to draft and include language in their divorce decree directed at the minor child's school and any third-party providers who might bill for school fees, to put them on notice of their duties under Utah Code Ann. Sec. 15-4-6.7 to separately bill the parties for school fees. In the event that, notwithstanding the separate billing provisions above, one party pays for 100% of a school fee for the party's minor child, the party incurring that expense shall provide verification of the expense, preferably in the form of an invoice, and proof of payment of the expense, preferably in the form of a receipt, within 30 days of having paid the expense. The other party shall reimburse the paying party within 30 days of receiving the verification.
