Attorney for Taiya Lefler

IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT
WASATCH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Child of:

TAIYA LEFLER,
Petitioner,

vs.

ALEXANDER KROLL,
Respondent.

DECREE OF PATERNITY

Civil No: 264500051

Judge: Jennifer A. Mabey

The Court, having received and reviewed the file on record, having received the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds of Petitioner, and also having received and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and now being fully advised in the premises, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

CHILD CUSTODY & PARENT TIME

1. There are three (3) minor children born as issue of the relationship, to wit:
K.J.K. (Born: 07/12/2020), O.L.K. (Born: 08/07/2021), A.R.K. (Born: 02/23/2023).
2. There is one (1) additional child expected as issue of the relationship.
3. The Petitioner shall be designated as the primary custodial parent of the parties' minor children.

4. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor children with the Petitioner designated as the residential parent and having final decisions making. Each parent has the right to make day-to-day and emergency decisions concerning their children while the children are in the care of that parent. For decisions affecting the general welfare of the child, the parents shall cooperate and work together to make joint decisions that are in the best interest of their child. In the event of a dispute over major parenting decisions, the parties shall discuss the issue, consult professionals if necessary, and if they cannot agree, Taiya shall make the final decision. The parties may attend mediation if they cannot come to an agreement, with the expense of mediation going to the party that called for mediation.

5. Parent time shall be as the parties agree, if the parties do not agree, the Respondent shall be awarded weekly parent time visits on Tuesday and Wednesday from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and every other weekend from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

6. When the parties new child is born, Respondent shall have parent time pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-304.

7. A parent shall provide 24 hours of advance notice to the other parent if they would like to change the day or time for a child exchange.

8. Each party shall provide the other with his/her current address and telephone number at all times.

PARENTING PLAN

9. Child exchanges for parent time shall be at the Heber City Police Department.
10. The children's bedtime shall be at 10:00 p.m. in both homes. The parties shall not let the children stay up past 10:00 p.m.
11. The party who is not exercising his/her physical parent-time with the minor children shall be entitled to reasonable virtual parent-time for a reasonable duration. Reasonable virtual parent time on weekends for each party shall be 30 minutes on Saturday.
12. The parties shall be equally responsible for any extracurricular fees and costs for any activities approved by both parents in writing. Before enrolling the children in an activity, the parties shall discuss the activity and any potential associated cost.
13. The parties shall be equally responsible for school fees and school lunch fees.
14. The parties shall adopt the advisory guidelines of Utah Code Annotated. §80-9-202 and adopt those provisions into this parenting plan and will become familiar with it and abide by these guidelines.
15. Personal care is favored over surrogate care. In the instance that either party is in need of surrogate care for more than four (4) hours, then the parent requiring surrogate care shall contact the other parent within a reasonable time before the need of surrogate care and offer the other parent the ability to provide personal care. The party providing personal care in this instance for the minor children shall provide all transportation.
16. If either party takes the minor children out of the State of Utah, that party shall provide the other party with a copy of his or her itinerary prior to travel.

17. If a party wishes to move 150 or more miles from the other party, the relocating party shall provide written notice to the non-moving party as identified in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 (2024), and the parties shall attend mediation to address the issues of custody, parent-time and transportation.

18. The parties shall make a good faith effort to make the children available to one another for extended family functions, significant life events, and holiday celebrations.

19. The parties shall respect their children by communicating primarily with one another directly rather than making the children a messenger between them. The parties shall not to drill/question the children about the other parent or use the children to get information about the other parent's personal life. The parties shall not disparage or degrade the other parent or allow a third party to disparage or degrade the other parent while in the presence of the minor children. The parties shall treat each other with dignity and respect in the presence of the children.

CHILD SUPPORT

1. Based upon the Petitioner's gross monthly income of $1,914 verified by her 2025 taxes, and the Respondent's gross monthly income of $4,680 based upon earning $27/hr and verified by the declaration of income, and calculated on a sole custody worksheet, the child support obligation is $1,229.00 per month.

2. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 78-45-7.16, the Respondent shall pay child support for the parties' minor children until such time as the children become eighteen (18) years of age, or graduates from high school through a regular course of study, whichever occurs later, or until such time as the child has been otherwise emancipated prior to the age of eighteen (18).

3. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change to their income.

4. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-212(3), a parent may, at any time, petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A substantial change in circumstances may include material changes in custody; material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; material changes in the medical needs of the child; or material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

5. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-212(5), if a child support order has not been modified within the previous three years, a parent may move the court to adjust the amount of child support, and the court may determine if there is a difference in the ordered support and the support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines as outlined in this Utah Code Section, and without showing a substantial change in circumstances.

HEALTH INSURANCE & MEDICAL COSTS

6. The party who can obtain the most favorable coverage should be responsible to provide health insurance for the minor child. The party providing the insurance shall provide the other party with executed claim forms, medical card, insurance information, and other resistance necessary to ensure the prompt payment of the insured portions of such claim.

7. The parties shall share equally all medically necessary expenses for the children, including but not limited to, premiums, copays, deductibles, and all other out-of-pocket expenses.

8. Each party shall notify the other party regarding any medical, dental, orthodontic, visual or prescriptions for the minor child.

9. The party who is paying for health care expenses shall provide the other party with written verification of the cost and payment withing thirty (30) days.

10. Notice to Medical Expense Creditors: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §§15-4-6.7, 30-2-5, and 30-3-5(1)(c) (1953 as amended), when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of the minor children pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 or an administrative order under §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

Therefore, the party that paid his/her portion of the medical expenses should:

- a. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child;
- b. Notify the particular creditor of the other parties' current address;

c. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under §70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14 Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

CHILD CARE COSTS

11. Each party shall be responsible for one half (1/2) of the actually incurred work-related or educated related childcare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children.

12. The party incurring such expense shall furnish the other with appropriate verification regarding the expense incurred within thirty (30) days of incurring such expenses. The parties shall make payment directly to the other within thirty (30) days following the receipt of the verification of the expense.

TAXES

13. The Petitioner shall be allowed to claim the minor children each and every year for tax purposes.

MISCELLANEOUS

14. The parties shall enter into a mutual restraining order, preventing either party from committing domestic violence against the other, attempting to commit domestic violence, harassing, disparaging and etc. to the other party.

15. Each party shall pay their own attorney's fees incurred in pursuing this action.
