- a. The Mercedes and car lease contract associated is awarded to the Wife.
- b. Wife may have help from third parties to retrieve the items and may not be personally present. The parties will cooperate and be civil in the exchange process.
- c. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

7. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

| Debt Description: | Obligation of: |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|
| Debts in Husband’s Name  | Husband               |
| Debts in Wife’s Name     | Wife                  |

- a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards. The parties will cease from using either party’s phone number, email, or contact information for any purpose (for store purchases such as Old Navy, Smith’s etc.) without written consent.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in the agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

8. Checking and Saving Accounts. Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts.

9. Robinhood: The Robinhood account will be equally divided at the date of Divorce. Neither party will make any withdrawals from the Robinhood account.

10. Retirement Accounts The parties shall divide equally the net proceeds (after tax amount) of husband's retirement account, which has already been cashed out due to his loss of employment.

11. Name: Wife shall have the option of restoring her name to Marsden, if she so chooses.

12. Alimony Wife is imputed a monthly gross income of $1,256.66 and Husband earns a gross monthly income of $16,825.72. The husband shall pay Wife the following alimony:

Alimony is $2,500 per month, beginning September 1, 2026 for a length of three years. Husband shall not be obligated to pay alimony in August 2026. Then, alimony should change to $1,850 for one year. Then, alimony should change to $1,800 for six months. Alimony shall terminate upon the first of the following to occur: Alimony is paid for a period of 4.5 years (as detailed above); the wife's remarriage; cohabitation; OR death of either party. Alimony payments may be paid in two equal payments each month. Husband may pay Wife each payments on the date he is paid from his employment every other week. Payment should be made through Venmo or Direct deposit, but should remain the same method, depending upon what method husband prefers.

13. Life Insurance. As security for alimony obligations, Husband shall maintain a life insurance policy naming Wife as beneficiary in an amount no less than $230,796, the total alimony obligation owed in a 4.5 year period. Husband shall provide Wife with written proof of such life insurance policy within seven (7) days of execution of the Agreement, before July 4, 2026, and shall provide updated proof annually or upon Wife's written request. Alimony should terminate in the event Wife remarries, cohabitates in a marriage-like relationship, or dies.

14. Photographs and Electronic Records. Wife shall return all photographs and electronic records currently in her possession to Husband and then delete them.

15. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

16. Restraints. The parties should be restrained from coming to the other parties' residence without written consent or otherwise stated in the Decree of Divorce.

17. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in the Findings and Decree represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

18. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party is ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

19. Enforcement. In the event either party must bring the other party to court for enforcement of the Decree of Divorce, the noncomplying party shall be responsible for the complying parties' attorney fees. This includes, but is not limited to, any proceedings to garnish Husband's wages, any enforcement actions due to noncompliance with the Decree of Divorce, and any proceedings for a protective or restraining order arising from failure to comply with Decree of Divorce.
