IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR WASATCH COUNTY
STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

CLINTON MIZE,
Petitioner

And

NATALIE MIZE
Respondent

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 254500083

Judge: Jennifer A. Mabey

Commissioner: Hardy

The parties herein, CLINTON MIZE ("Clinton") represented by Michelle Robbins, and NATALIE MIZE ("Natalie") represented Aubrey Staples, having negotiated in good faith, executed a Stipulation and Marital Settlement Agreement to resolve all issues in dispute in the above captioned divorce case. Based upon the Stipulation fully incorporated herein by reference and the Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, orders and decrees as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce to become final upon signature and entry.

Divorce And Separation

1. The parties were married in Heber, Utah on September 17, 2022. The parties separated on May 1, 2025.
2. Child: Petitioner and Respondent are biological father and mother respectively to R.A Mize who was born in Murray, Utah on September 8, 2024. No other children are expected.
3. During the marriage, irreconcilable differences arose between the parties therefore continuing the marriage become unworkable.
4. The parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce from each other based upon irreconcilable difference which shall become effective immediately upon final signing by the Court.

Jurisdiction

5. Both parties are and have been residents of Wasatch County, Utah for more than three months immediately proceeding the filing of the Petition for Divorce therefore fulfilling the jurisdictional requirement of Utah Code § 81-4-402 (1).

6. The Fourth Judicial District Court in and for Wasatch County, State of Utah has subject matter and personal jurisdiction and is an appropriate and proper venue to hear this matter and to enter a final Decree of Divorce.
7. Utah is the home state of the child and therefore this court has jurisdiction over the custody and parent time issues in the case. UT Code §81-6-103(1).
 - a. The parties are the legal parents of the above-identified child under Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code §78B-15-101 et seq. and this Court has jurisdiction to determine the issues related to the children in this divorce action because the parties became the legal parents of the children before or during the time the parties were married.
 - b. Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this matter according to Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act because Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children under Utah Code §78B-13-102(7) and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code §78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208.
 - c. Under Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code §78B-14-101 et seq., and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code §78B-14-101 et seq., the parties stipulate that:
 - i. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time, or visitation concerning the parties' minor children that have been filed, are pending, or have been completed with an order.

- ii. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' children.
- iii. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceeding who has physical custody of one or more of the parties' minor children and who claim to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with one or more of the parties' children.

Child Custody And Parent Time

8. Legal Custody: The parties shall share joint legal custody of the child. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement on decisions related to the child, they will follow the dispute resolution plan, as outlined below. Neither party shall have final say except as stated in the medical section.
9. Medical: The parties shall work together to resolve any differences of opinion when it comes to medical decisions concerning R.A. Mize. If parties disagree, they shall first consult with the minor child's pediatrician or specialist, absent an emergency. If the parties cannot agree thereafter, then Natalie shall have final decision-making authority.
10. Dispute Resolution: Significant legal decisions including without limitation health, education, and religious upbringing shall be discussed in advance in attempt to reach an agreement. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, parties shall consult with an expert on the subject. If parties are still unable to reach an agreement, parties shall bring the matter to mediation equally sharing the cost of the mediator. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, either party may bring the matter to the Court.

11. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that a child has while in their home for parenting time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental or mental health professionals.
12. Each party shall make day-to day decisions on behalf of the child when exercising parent time. UCA § 81-9-203(12). This includes their respective selection of childcare.
13. The parties are allowed to make emergency decisions on behalf of the child when she is in their care. UCA § 81-9-203(11)(c). Emergency decisions shall be immediately communicated, as soon as practicable, to the other parent and by any means possible.
 - a. Both parents are to be listed as the minor child's parents on and have access to all, registered forms, medical records, and any other documents with legal importance or other significance.
14. Both parents are to be listed as "emergency contacts" for medical emergencies with any school, daycare, or any other such providers.
15. Parties shall regularly and timely exchange information concerning the health, education, religion and general welfare of the children. This includes the full name, address and contact information for medical and educational institutions.

16. Each parent shall be fully entitled to participate in, be notified of, and attend any educational, religious or other such activities or special occasions in which the children are participating or involved, including parent- teacher conferences, P.T.A. meetings, and the like, and to meet privately with any teacher or educational staff about matters dealing with the child without prior consent of the other parent.
17. Each parent is to provide the other with their current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.
18. Each parent shall honor one another's parenting style, privacy and authority. Neither parent shall interfere with the parenting style of the other, nor shall either parent make plans or arrangements that would impinge upon the other parent's authority or time with the child without the express agreement of the other parent.
19. Both parties shall act with best interest of their child in mind at all times.

Parenting Plan

20. Upon the child reaching 18 months old, parent time in accordance with UCA § 81-9-303 which shall commence as follows:
 - a. Clinton shall exercise parent-time every Monday from 5:30 pm until Tuesday at 5:00 pm in accordance with UCA § 81-9-303(6)(a)(ii). If Clinton is available to provide direct care and there is no school, then parent time shall begin at 8:00 am on Monday and continue until 8:00 am the following day. UCA § 81-9-303(6)(a)(ii)(B).

- b. Clinton shall exercise parent time alternating weekends beginning Friday at 5:00 pm through Monday at 8:00 am, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

21. When the minor child reaches 3 years and six months old, the parties agree to increase parent-time to a 50/50, 2-2-5 schedule. Should a parent move more than 40 miles from the other parent, the presumption would remain equal parent time at the age of 3.5 years old to the extent it is practical. Clinton shall exercise parent time on Mondays and Tuesdays and Natalie on Wednesdays and Thursdays. The parties shall rotate the weekends.

- a. This schedule shall remain in effect until the child reaches the age of 18 and the parties agree that when the child turns five, this in and of itself does not constitute substantial and material changed circumstance as contemplated by UCA 81-9-208(3).

22. Relocation: If a party moves more than approximately 40 miles, then notice of relocation must be given in accordance with UCA §81-9-209.

23. Neither party shall be designated as the residential parent for school purposes. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, then parties shall participate in mediation. Mediation must be completed on or before March 1, 2030.

24. For purposes of parent-time, “weekends” include any snow days, teacher development days, or other days when school is not scheduled and that are contiguous to the weekend period. The parties shall follow the Wasatch School District calendar.

25. The parties shall be entitled to virtual parent-time at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration on their non parent-time days. Each parent should call/have virtual parent-time with the child two (2) times during their non-custodial time to speak with the child for a reasonable duration to begin immediately following the parties' signing the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.

26. The party exercising parent-time shall take the child to all medical, therapeutic, dental, etc., appointments that occur during their parent-time.

27. Extended Parent-Time: Pursuant to UCA § 81-9-303, the parties have extended parent-time during the child's summer break, when school is not in session (or as determined by the Wasatch School District), as follows:

- a. Clinton shall have four (4) weeks of extended parent-time during the summer break. The extended parent-time shall be exercised in one-week blocks, and neither parent shall have the minor child for more than seven (7) consecutive days at a time.
- b. Natalie shall have two (2) weeks of extended parent-time during the summer break. The extended parent-time shall be exercised in one-week blocks.
- c. Extended parent-time would be modified to UCA §81-9-305 when parent-time increases to 50/50 parent-time resulting in both parties having two weeks of summer parent-time.
- d. Regular parent time schedule shall resume immediately upon the end of extended parent time schedule so long as it does not exceed more than seven (7) consecutive days at a time.
- e. Even years: Clinton shall provide notice of his elected extended summer parent-time to Natalie by April 1st and Natalie shall provide notice of her elected extended parent time to Clinton by April 15th.

- f. Odd years: Natalie shall provide notice of her extended parent-time elected to Clinton by April 1st and Clinton shall provide notice of his extended parent-time elected to Natalie by April 15th.
- g. In the event that both parents fail to provide notice of their elected summer parent-time, the first parent to provide notice may designate their summer parent-time schedule has priority.

28. Holiday Parent-Time Schedule: In the event the parties cannot agree to a holiday parent-time schedule, they shall use the parent-time schedule as outlined below:

29. Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule as stated above, except if the parties agree in writing to a deviation or in the event a conflict arises with the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- a. The holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
- b. The holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
- c. The holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the child's birthday;
- d. Extended summer parent-time; and
- e. The schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

30. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

31. Transportation of Child: Parent-time exchanges shall occur as agreed upon by the parties or as follows:

- a. Each parent shall be responsible for picking the child up at the beginning of his/her parent-time, so that the parents share equally the responsibility for transporting the child for the purpose of facilitating parent-time. The parents shall limit in-person communication during parent-time exchanges. The parties shall utilize school to school exchanges when applicable.
 - b. Additionally, when the child is not in school, parent-time begins at 8:00 am and ends at 7:00 pm until or unless otherwise modified by the parties in writing.
 - c. The parties shall cooperate and be flexible in the pick-up and delivery and be mindful of the importance of promptness.
 - d. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the receiving parent may pick up the child for parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the receiving parent shall be with the child within two (2) hours of their parent-time.
 - e. Notice of the unfamiliar or unknown third party must be provided to the other parent within 24 hours prior to the pickup occurring absent emergency circumstances.
 - f. The parties shall use the appropriate child car seat/restraints as recommended by their pediatrician.
32. Right of first refusal shall be for the parent not exercising parent time if childcare needs to be arranged for more than overnight.
33. Travel-The parties shall follow UCA § 81-9-202(19) for travel out of the state of Utah overnight. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor child travels with a parent, the parent shall provide the following information to the other parent at least 3 days before leaving the state of Utah overnight, unless the travel is for emergency purposes:

- a. Itinerary of travel dates;
- b. destinations;
- c. places where the minor child or traveling parent can be reached; and
- d. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor child's location.

General Welfare Of The Children

34. Parental bonding with the children by both parties is critical, and every reasonable step should be taken by the parties to assist in this end.

35. Both parties shall be ordered not to consume alcoholic beverages to an excess, abuse prescription medications, smoke, engage in vaping, or use illicit drugs to any degree while caring for the minor children, and each shall be ordered not to consume alcoholic beverages, abuse prescription medications, or use illicit drugs while driving with the minor children as passengers in a motor vehicle. They shall additionally be ordered not to allow third parties to be intoxicated, abuse prescription medications, or use illicit drugs while in the presence of the children, and shall be required to remove the children from the presence of any such person immediately.

36. Each party shall be enjoined from doing anything which may estrange or alienate the children from the other parent, or which may hamper the free and natural development of the children's love and respect for the other parent. At no time shall either party speak, write or portray anything inflammatory, derogatory, embarrassing, disparaging, or otherwise hurtful about the other party in the presence of the children, nor shall they permit such conduct by third persons in the presence of the children.

37. When having overnight guests when the children are present in the home, both parents shall be sensitive of the children's needs and feelings towards new significant others, and should therefore exercise prudent behavior when introducing the children to significant others.

38. Communication Between Parents:

- a. Absent an emergency, all communications shall be directly between the parties and not through third parties such as significant others, spouses, etc. The parties shall communicate via email or text messaging as first choices, and telephone calls used for emergencies or when more urgent contact is necessary, such as emergencies or situations requiring urgent attention only. The parties shall keep all lines of communication open. Each shall receive and respond timely to communications from the other parent.
- b. Communications shall be at all times civil and courteous towards the other parent, and shall be strictly limited to matters concerning the children. At no time shall either parent make any derogatory accusations, remarks, or engage in name calling against the other parent. The parents shall endeavor to keep all communications limited to issues concerning the children, which generally shall relate to parent time exchanges and visitation times, and to a lesser extent education and medical issues, among others. Neither parent shall use such communications to belittle, deride or question the other parent's lifestyle or parenting.

- c. At no time shall either parent interrogate the children as to the other parent, life in the other parent's home, time spent with the other parent, or the like.
- d. Each parent shall seek educational information directly through the school whenever possible.

Child Support

- 39. The parties have agreed that Clinton's income shall be imputed at $7,500 per month and Natalie's income shall be imputed at $4,134 per month.
- 40. Child support shall be paid by Clinton to Natalie in the amount of $528 per month until the child turns 3 years and 6 months. Child support shall then adjust based upon equal custody to Clinton paying respondent $175 per month. This shall be effective July 1, 2026.
- 41. Any child support ordered for a child shall continue for the child until the child attains eighteen years of age or the child's regular school class graduates from high school during the child's normal year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or upon emancipation or death of the child.
- 42. In order to collect child support the obligee parent should be entitled, if she so chooses, to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Annotated 62A-11- 401, et seq., and 62A-11-501, et seq. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors of the non-custodial parent. All withheld income shall be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor party no longer owes child support to the obligee party. If either parent requests that withholding take place through the Office of Recovery Services that parent shall be ordered to pay any administrative fee for such service.

43. In the event the obligee parent does not elect to exercise her right to collect child support by mandatory withholding through the Office of Recovery Services the obligor parent shall be entitled to pay the support directly to the obligee parent.

44. Any child support payable by the obligor parent shall be paid on the first day of each month, or at the election of the obligor parent by paying one-half of the amount due not later than the 5th day of each month and the remaining half not later than the 20th day of each month. In addition to the child support adjustment provided for under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-213, the Parties shall also have the right to adjust base child support in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202.

Health Care Expenses

45. With regard to providing medical insurance and coverage of medical bills for the minor child, pursuant to section 81-6-208, Utah Code Annotated, it is just, reasonable and proper that:

- a. In the event either party currently has now, or in the future, medical insurance available to them through their places of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain medical insurance at a reasonable cost shall be required to obtain such medical insurance for the benefit of the minor children of the parties. If both parties have insurance coverage available they shall not be required to contribute to the premiums of the other party as long as such insurance is available and maintained by each party, and provided such double coverage results in a financial benefit to both parties. If only one party maintains insurance for the children the party who is able to obtain adequate coverage at the lowest, reasonable cost shall be required to obtain the insurance, with contributions from the other party as set forth below. Health insurance shall include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

- b. Double coverage shall not in any event be required unless it results in a financial benefit to both parties.
- c. The parties shall equally share any and all out-of-pocket costs for health insurance premiums paid for the benefit of the parties' minor children and shall equally share the costs of any and all non-covered medical expenses including insurance premiums, deductibles and co-payments. This shall include any treatment for mental illness.
- d. A parent who incurs medical or dental expenses for a child shall be required to provide the other parent with written verification of payment or the incurring of medical and dental expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment by the parent incurring the bill, or the date of payment by any insurance carrier with a balance remaining owed by the parents. Pursuant to 81-6-208, Utah Code Annotated, the parent who fails to comply with this requirement may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses. The burden of proving that such proof of expenses has been provided shall be upon the parent making the claim for reimbursement.
- e. Reimbursement by the obligor parent shall be made within thirty (30) days to the obligee parent.

- f. With regard to contributions from either parent, neither parent shall be required to provide coverage, contributions or co-payments for any medical or dental procedure that is incurred primarily for cosmetic purposes without his or her express written consent. This does not include orthodontic care, counseling, care for mental illness, or contact lenses.
- g. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party shall be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the children if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.
- h. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses shall remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of age that he would be entitled to receive child support.
- i. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, and/or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 602, et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent carrying insurance shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of the insurance carrier, premium amount, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

46. A child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount (the numerator) by the number of persons covered under the policy (the denominator) and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in this case that are covered by such a policy. This amount may be deducted from the child support obligation.
47. Currently, the child is on Medicaid. The parties shall continue to fulfill any and all requirements of Medicaid until they are no longer able to qualify for Medicaid.

Child Related Expenses

48. Childcare: Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, both parties shall equally share the reasonable work-related or career or occupational training related childcare expenses. All childcare shall be discussed between the parties prior to utilizing that service for the first time.
48. Both parties shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses directly to the provider on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense.
49. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider, and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

50. If a parent assumes the full cost of childcare, he/ she shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of childcare expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the childcare expenses one-half the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification. The parties shall pay one half of the following expenses:

- a. Agreed upon extracurricular activities and equipment up to $250 per parent per activity, unless otherwise agreed to in writing, necessary to participate.
 - i. The parties shall encourage and support the child's participation in extracurricular activities and sports. The parents shall not unreasonably withhold their consent for the child to participate in extracurricular activities.
 - ii. If one party no longer agrees to the activity, they shall provide written notice and they shall no longer be responsible for the payment of the activity. However, they shall continue to pay for the ½ of the activity for 30 days after written notice. If an extracurricular activity that is not agreed upon interrupts the non-agreeing parent's parent-time, the non-agreeing parent shall not be required to take the child to the extracurricular activity.
- b. School related expenses but excludes clothing, lunches, and private tuition.

- c. Car insurance—when the child is of driving age as permitted by law, the parties shall work together to decide whose policy is the best option to add the child.
- d. Cell Phone—parties shall work together to determine the age in which the child shall receive their own phone and which plan is the best option to add the child.

Child Tax Deductions

- 51. Petitioner and Respondent shall file joint but separate in the year 2025.
- 52. The petitioner shall be able to claim the child in odd years.
- 53. The respondent shall be able to claim the child in even years.
- 54. Any deviation from this schedule shall be in writing and mutually agreed upon.
- 55. Both parties shall execute any necessary tax forms to enable either party to claim said children tax credit(s). Clinton's claim as the minor children's dependent/ children tax credits shall be conditioned upon his being current on all child support and all other financial obligations herein.

Division Of Property

- 56. Real Property and Retirement Division: Clinton shall pay Natalie a lump sum of $25,000 within 120 days of the day the Decree is entered. If Clinton does not pay the $25,000 within 120 days, it shall immediately begin accruing the statutory interest of 5.51% per annum.
- 57. The parties waive any marital interest in the other's retirement accounts and shall execute any documents necessary to such effect. Specifically, Natalie shall keep her Trowe Price 401(k) and Clinton shall keep his Phiadon International 401(k) and Bolt 401(k). Natalie waives any further interest in Clinton's property located at 475 W. 400 N Heber, UT 84032.

58. Personal property: All other property has been equitably divided.

59. Automobiles:

a. The 2012 Subaru Outback shall be awarded to Respondent free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

i. Petitioner shall execute any document to remove his name from title within 60 days from when the Decree of Divorce is entered as the convenience of both parties.

b. The 2002 Ford Excursion shall be awarded to Petitioner free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

i. Respondent shall execute any document necessary to remove her name from the title within 60 days from when the Decree of Divorce is entered as both parties convenience.

c. Clinton shall keep the 2020 Polaris free and clear of any claim by Natalie.

60. Banking Accounts: Each party shall keep their accounts held individually free and clear of any claim by the other and any joint accounts shall be equally divided within fourteen (14) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Specifically, Natalie shall keep the Wells Fargo accounts 5844, 8506 and 0772. Clinton shall keep the Wells Fargo accounts 2804 and 5559. The parties shall equally divide and close the AFCU account ending in 8775.

61. Debts: Each party shall keep their own debts including but not limited to credit cards and student loans. The parties shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from any and all individual liabilities associated with their sole debts. The parties are not aware of any joint debts.

62. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-406(3), the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and the parties' separate, current addresses and refinance any debt that is in the other party's name into solely their name within 60 days.

Alimony

63. The petitioner and respondent are both income earning individuals with their respective careers and therefore it is agreed that alimony shall not be awarded. The parties agree to waive alimony both now and in the future.

Attorney Fees And Court Costs

64. Each party shall be responsible for their respective attorney fees and costs.

Miscellaneous Provisions

65. Each party shall be required to execute and deliver to the other any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.
66. Name Change: Natalie shall be allowed to restore her maiden last name shall she so choose.
67. This document shall be governed by Utah Law in all respects.

Restraining Order

68. Each party shall be permanently restrained from harming, threatening, molesting, intimidating, or harassing the other party, and from destroying or taking any property belonging to the other party, from going to the other party's work or residence, except for arranged children care exchanges, and from speaking in a derogatory, disparaging or slanderous manner to third persons in such a way that it will adversely affect the business, employment, or general reputation in the community of the other party. Furthermore, neither party shall access electronic accounts in the other party's name, including social media accounts, email accounts, financial accounts, utilities accounts, or medical accounts; neither party shall distribute the other party's image or personal information; neither party shall use the other party's name, likeness, image, or identification to conduct any sort of transaction, make any type of agreement or contract, open an account for service, or obtain a service; and neither party will increase or otherwise incur any additional debt or encumbrances on any joint account or marital property.

END OF THE ORDER**

In accordance with the Utah State District Court's Efiling Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Order does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order.
