Attorney for Respondent

IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT PROVO UTAH COUNTY - STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
DYANA LEE DELRIO,
Petitioner,
and
JOSHUA ROWAN,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264401648 DA

Judge Roger W. Griffin
Commissioner: Marian Ito

Respondent Joshua Rowan (Father) and Petitioner Dyana Lee DelRio (Mother), have entered into a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement (the “Stipulation”), resolving all issues relating to the above entered custody action. The Court, having now made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and good cause appearing: IT IS HEREBY

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION & VENUE

1. Father is currently a resident of Salt Lake County for two months, the parties were previously living in Lehi, Utah County.
2. Mother is a resident of Salt Lake County for two months, the parties were previously living in Lehi, Utah County.
3. The parties were married on September 19, 2020, in Salt Lake County Utah.
4. The parties separated on or around April 25, 2026.
5. The parties are the biological parents of two minor children.

- a. R.L.R. was born September 2017.
- b. C.K.R. was born February 2022.
- c. No other children are expected.

6. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time or visitation concerning the parties' minor children which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.

a. Father has no information about any proceedings that could affect the court proceedings, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, or adoptions.

b. Father does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody or the minor children or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the minor children.

c. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Father states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

GROUNDS

7. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION

8. Legal Custody: The parties should receive joint legal custody of the minor children.

9. Physical Custody: The parties should receive joint physical custody of the minor children with Mother receiving 183 overnights and Father receiving 182 overnights as outlined in the parenting plan below.

PARENTING PLAN

Verification

10. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-203(5), this parenting plan is submitted in good faith.

Decision Making

11. Minor Decisions. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time.

12. Major Decisions. The parties must discuss the major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training before making and implementing any decision.

a. If after discussion, the parties cannot agree, the parties should be required to seek the advice of any professionals involved in the children's life such as teachers, doctors, or therapists,

b. If after seeking the advice of professionals, the parties cannot agree, either party may request mediation. If mediation is requested, the parties should be required to attend one session of mediation unless the parties both agree in writing that mediation is unnecessary. The parties should be required to split the cost of mediation equally.

c. If after mediation the parties still cannot agree, either party may seek the advice and decision of the court.

13. Emergency Decisions. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the children. A parent making emergency decisions will notify the other parent immediately or as soon as reasonably able of any decisions that are being made.

14. Emergency decisions and day-to-day decisions are exempt from this provision.

Education Plan

15. The minor children should attend Peruvian Elementary school and the subsequent feeder schools. The children's school may be changed by written mutual agreement, or if the parties are unable to agree, pursuant to the decision making provision in this Decree, the parties should attend mediation. If the parties are unable to agree at mediation, either party may seek an order by the court.

Parent-Time Visitation

16. Parent-time should be as the parties agree. If there is disagreement between the parties, the parties should receive equal parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305 on a week on week off schedule with exchanges occurring each Friday at 8:30 a.m..

Holiday & Extended Parent-Time

18. Extended Summer Parent-Time. Each party is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with the children for two weeks, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break. If the proposed uninterrupted extended Parent-time is to take place during a holiday designated to the other parent, that parent who has the designated holiday must give express permission before the uninterrupted extended Parent-time can take place; the parent who has the designated holiday will be entitled to a make up day for each day of the holiday entitled to him or her in exchange.

19. In even numbered years Mother shall provide notice of her requested dates for extended parent-time by May 1 and Father shall provide notice of his requested dates for extended parent-time by May 15.

20. In odd numbered years, Father shall provide notice of his requested dates for extended parent-time by May 1 and Mother shall provide notice of her requested dates for extended parent-time by May 15.

21. If a parent fails to provide notice within the timeframes outlined above, the complying parent has the right to make a decision on if the plans will work with their schedule, and request another schedule.

Exchanges

22. Exchanges should be as the parties agree, if the parties disagree, exchanges occurring at school are preferred with the parent ending parent-time dropping the children off at school and the receiving parent picking up the children after school. When school is not in session, the parent beginning parent-time shall pick up the children at the residence of the other parent or at another agreed upon location with the exchange taking place at 8:30 a.m. All exchanges should be completed curbside with the receiving parent remaining within arm's length of their vehicle at all times and the giving parent remaining within arm's length of the threshold of their residence or vehicle.

Right of First Refusal

23. If either parent is unable to personally care for the minor child(ren) during their scheduled parenting time for a continuous period of six (6) hours or more, that parent (the "Offering Parent") shall first offer the other parent (the "Receiving Parent") the opportunity to care for the child(ren) before utilizing an agreed upon list of babysitters, daycare provider, or other third-party caregiver.

24. The Receiving Parent shall have two (2) hours from receipt of the notification to accept or decline the offer. If the Receiving Parent declines or fails to respond within this timeframe, the Offering Parent may arrange for alternative childcare.

25. Unless otherwise agreed, the Receiving Parent shall be responsible for picking up the child(ren) from the Offering Parent's residence or current location if they accept the parenting time and dropping the minor children off when the offering parent is able to personally care for the minor child(ren) during the offering parent's parent-time.

Virtual Parent-Time

26. Both parents shall allow communication between the children and the other parent at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations. The children should not be restricted from contacting the absent parent as they desire. Neither parent has the authority to block the other parent from communicating with the minor children through any of their devices or accounts.

27. Should a parent buy a cell phone or other device for a child to use, the children shall always be able to use this phone or device to contact either parent. Either parent may restrict the phone's or device's use to that purpose only, but neither parent may take the phone or device away completely.

Information Sharing

28. Both parents shall keep the other informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, email addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency. If either parent changes any of his or her contact information as indicated above, that parent must notify the other parent in writing within 24 hours of the change.

29. Both parents shall also provide their contact information to all third parties who are important in the children's lives, such as day care providers, educators, doctors, dentists, and both parents shall be listed as the children's parent and as an emergency contact with those providers.

30. Both parents shall have access to all records of the children including, but not limited to, school, medical, dental, and psychological records, and this Parenting Plan shall constitute a release to allow each parent access to all records of the children. The parents will make arrangements with the minor children's schools for each parent to receive a copy of the children's report cards, school calendars, etc.

31. Unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should share with the other all schoolwork, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of the minor children. Further, unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should take affirmative steps to share information regarding the times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices and other significant events involving the children.

Communication

32. Both parents should engage in civil communication to discuss matters relating to the minor children with each other only and shall avoid using the minor children to relay messages or information. Neither party should block the other parent on their own devices or the device of the minor children.

33. Communication should be as the parties agree. Should the parties disagree, the parties should primarily communicate through text or email with phone calls being appropriate in emergencies or when agreed to by both parties.

Respect and Cooperation

34. Both parents should support each other in their respective parenting roles and encourage a positive relationship between the children and the other parent and encourage third parties to do the same. The parties should respect the children's rights to have a meaningful bond with each parent, stepparents, and other relatives.

35. Both parents recognize that the best interest of the children requires them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the children.

36. Both parents shall share information with the other parent on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with the children or the well-being of the children.

37. The parties shall build a co-parenting relationship filled with trust and respect.

38. The parties shall start over and recommit to this Parenting Plan when one or both neglect a provision in this plan.

39. Both parents shall have full access to all electronic devices or accounts the children use, including knowing usernames and passwords.

40. Parent-time shall not be denied for failure to comply with any of the provisions in this pleading.

Extended Overnight Trips

41. Both parties shall notify the other whenever the children travel on any overnight trip. The traveling party shall provide an itinerary of travel dates; destinations; and a way the children or traveling parent can be reached in advance of the trip. The traveling party shall get the other's permission should this trip interfere with the parent-time schedule. In case of emergency, the traveling parent will provide as much notice as possible.

School Functions and Extracurricular Activities

42. Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all extracurricular activities and school functions the children attends.

43. The parties shall keep each other informed of any extracurricular activities the children are involved in and notify the other parent of any special events or ceremonies for the children within 24 hours of receiving notice of the same.

44. Neither parent should schedule or promote to the children events or activities that fall on the other parent's parent-time without first obtaining permission from the other parent in the following manner: The requesting parent will notify the other parent of the event or activity and discuss with them the benefits of the children's attendance prior to discussing it with the children. If the other parent has something scheduled or decides that the children cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent will abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the children.

Parent-Time Respect

45. Both parents shall comply with the parent-time schedules unless they mutually agree to alter the schedules in writing.

46. Notwithstanding the above provision, both parents should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parent-time schedules for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment but not unreasonably refuse.

47. Both parents should give special consideration to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of a child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedules.

48. The parties shall notify the other when a child is ill. Prior to the exchange of the child who is ill, the parties shall discuss regular parent-time and shall reasonably accommodate the sick child. If the parties cannot agree, regular parent-time shall not be affected. A parent shall not use the child's illness to frustrate parent-time.

49. Neither parent-time nor child support are to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

Non-interference with the Parties' Personal Lives

50. Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority, and control of the other party, except as impacts the care of the children, as set forth in this Petition.

51. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other party.

Relocation of a Parent

52. In the event either party intends to relocate outside of the State of Utah or more than 120 miles from their current residence, the parties shall be bound by all notice and other provisions of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 (60 days formal written notice shall be required). The parties shall be encouraged to give notice more than 60 days in advance of the desired relocation if possible, and to mediate the issue, insofar as time permits.

Adjustments or Modifications

53. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes can be made whenever the parties agree.

Failure to Comply

54. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions under this Parent-Time Section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

End of Parenting Plan

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Real Property

80. The parties do not own real property, and no real property was acquired during the marriage.

Financial Accounts

81. All Financial accounts have been divided between the parties.

Debts

82. The parties agree that each party shall be responsible for any debts and obligations that have been incurred in his or her name. Each party shall hold the other free and harmless from the debts or portions of debts for which he or she is liable. The parties represent that there are no joint marital debts shared in both parties' names.

Retirement Benefits

83. Each party shall keep their own retirement accounts free and clear of any interest by the other party.

Mutual Restraints

84. Neither parent shall do or say anything that tends to diminish the love and affection the children have for their parent. This includes making insulting, harmful, or disparaging comments about the other parent while in the presence of the minor children, while exercising parent-time, or on social media platforms. The parties have an affirmative duty to remove the children from the presence of anyone engaging in such behavior.

85. Both parties are restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening violence, or harming the other party at their place of residence, employment or any other place.

86. Neither party should introduce their romantic partner to the children or leave the child unsupervised with their romantic partner until they have been in a committed romantic relationship that has lasted 4 months. The parties shall introduce a romantic partner to the other party before introducing the romantic partner to the minor children.

87. Both parties should be restrained from using the image or likeness of the other party to obtain credit or incur debts. Any party that incurs debts in the other party's name shall be fully responsible for that debt.

Other

88. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

Attorney Fees

89. Each party shall be fully responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

Miscellaneous Provisions

90. If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the final Divorce Decree, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Divorce Decree.

91. Before bringing any future legal action in this case, other than an enforcement action, the parties must first attempt mediation to resolve issues that may arise between them.

END OF DECREE

In accordance with the Utah State District Courts' E-Filing Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Divorce Decree does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page along with the Court's seal and the date the same was executed by the Court.
