Parent-time transfers

10. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

11. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

12. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

13. The school the children will attend is based on Jason Matthew Hruban's home residence.

14. Jason Matthew Hruban and Melissa Lynn Hruban has authority to check the children out of school. Jason Matthew Hruban and Melissa Lynn Hruban has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Jason Matthew Hruban.

Communication with each other

15. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

16. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

17. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

18. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

19. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

20. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 7 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

21. Other agreements about travel by the children: Both parents must consent to children traveling with anyone other than Melissa Hruban and Jason Hruban

Child care

22. A child care provider for our children must be:

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent

23. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 25 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

24. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the the parent who moved.

25. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

26. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

27. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Jason Matthew Hruban) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

28. Jason Matthew Hruban's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $10833. Jason Matthew Hruban base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $1715. Jason Matthew Hruban receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Melissa Lynn Hruban) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

29. Melissa Lynn Hruban's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $5000. Melissa Lynn Hruban's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $808. Melissa Lynn Hruban receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Melissa Lynn Hruban is voluntarily unemployed. Based on Melissa Lynn Hruban's work experience, Melissa Lynn Hruban is capable of earning 0 per hour, or $5000 per month. (Utah Code 81-6-203)

b. Melissa Lynn Hruban receives $298 per month in public benefits from a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP, General Assistance, or other similar means-tested welfare benefits. This income does not count for child support purposes, (Utah Code 81-6-203(7)).

30. The adjusted gross monthly income for Melissa Lynn Hruban is $5000.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

31. Jason Matthew Hruban believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are absence of need of the parent to receive child support.

32. It is in the best interest of the parties' children that neither party be ordered to pay child support to the other. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

a. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

33. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

34. Child support will be paid as follows:

Venmo will be used for any support payments

35. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

36. Jason Matthew Hruban and Melissa Lynn Hruban will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Jason Matthew Hruban, Melissa Lynn Hruban will reimburse Jason Matthew Hruban for half the fee.

37. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

38. The parties will do the following for child related support or expenses:

a. Any child education, extracurricular, or medical expense greater than or equal to $100 will be shared 50% by both parents.

39. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

40. Jason Matthew Hruban may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

41. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

42. The parent who is able to obtain the most affordable medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Jason Matthew Hruban's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Melissa Lynn Hruban's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Jason Matthew Hruban's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Melissa Lynn Hruban's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

43. All reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses will be paid as follows

Each parent shall be solely responsible for any child care expenses that he or she incurs.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

44. Melissa Lynn Hruban has received or is receiving public benefits from a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP, General Assistance, or other similar means-tested welfare benefits. This income does not count for child support purposes. (Utah Code 78B-12-203(3))

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

45. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

46. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

47. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

48. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

49. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

50. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
