Mother	Mother	Mother's Day: The holiday begins at 8:00 a.m. and lasts until the following morning.

c. Extended Parent Time. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305, each party shall have 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent time in the summer.

d. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the children by May 1 each year with Petitioner having first choice of extended time in even-numbered years and Respondent having first choice of extended time in odd-numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent. Extended parent time may not be used to go over the other parent's holiday parent time.

PARENTING PLAN

4. Relocation. Because of the equal custody provisions herein, the relocation provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 do not apply. If either party wishes to relocate outside the designated areas, they will schedule mediation to address the relocation and then file a petition to modify.

5. Transportation. That transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties may agree, or in the event they cannot agree, then the receiving party shall pick up the minor children for the commencement of his/her parent-time. All parent-time exchanges shall occur curbside if not at school. If there is school, the party with the overnight before school shall drop the child/ren off at school and the party to exercise their parent time on a particular day shall pick the child/ren up from school.

6. Communication. Petitioner and Respondent can communicate in person or by text or phone call as needed, unless either party feels as if they no longer want to, then the parties can consider an app (unless the parties agree in writing to use other written means (e.g., email) and shall limit their communication to child-related issues only.

7. Access to Records. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information or records concerning their children. The parties shall have the right to check out the children from school subject to the written agreement of the other parent.

8. Day-to-Day Decisions. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the child/ren is in his or her care. If there is an emergency, the party shall immediately inform the other party about the situation, and shall take immediate measures to protect and care for the minor children.

9. Major Decisions. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, they shall defer to the experts or professionals in the relevant field of the issue. The parties may mediate before court intervention to obtain a decision relating to said major decision.

10. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

11. Travel. When the children travel with either parent overnight, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destination; (c) places where the child/ren or traveling parent can be reached; (d) and, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

12. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

13. Third-Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child/ren if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child/ren by 7 p.m.

14. Education. The parties agree that the minor children shall attend and be enrolled in the current schools and the children shall attend the feeder/matriculating schools for these schools. If neither of the parents live in the school boundaries for the current school, then the parties will attempt mediation and court intervention, with neither party having default presumption on the issue.

15. Right of First Refusal. There shall be no right of first refusal.

16. Mutual Restraining Orders. The following mutual restraining orders shall be ordered:

a. The parties shall be mutually restrained from making demeaning and degrading remarks about the other party in the presence of the minor children, and shall refrain from allowing third parties to do so.

b. All communication between the parties shall be civil and courteous.

c. There shall be no negative or harmful remarks made by a parent about the other parent in the presence of the minor children or the parent will remove the minor children. The parties will not allow third parties to do what they cannot, and shall remove third parties if they are speaking derogatorily about the other parent.

d. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from discussing the case in the presence of the minor children, leaving papers out in the presence of the minor children, etc. The parties shall be ordered to isolate the minor children from the legal process as much as possible.

e. Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from entering the home of the other parent without written permission.

f. The parties shall not harass, threaten, stalk, harm, injure or abuse the other party.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR THE CHILDREN

17. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-201 et seq. Child support shall be ordered as follows:

- a. Britt's gross monthly income is $3,466 per month.
- b. Aaron's gross monthly income is $16,666 per month.
- c. Aaron shall be designated as having 182 overnights. Britt shall be designated as having 183 overnights.
- d. Aaron shall pay to Britt $1,172 per month in child support.
- e. Child support shall be effective July 1, 2026.

f. Child support shall be due and payable as follows: ½ due by the 5th of the month and ½ due by the 20th of the month.

18. Except as otherwise provided in the child support order, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base child support award for the remaining number of children due child support, without the need to modify the most recent child support order by a court, when a child: (a) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (b) dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; or (c) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

19. Child support is modifiable in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212.

20. Medical/Dental Expenses and Insurance. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child/ren in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents. If both parties are covering the minor children, then they shall be responsible for their own insurance premiums.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child/ren are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Aaron shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Britt shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance for the children, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

21. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children. Each party will be given the opportunity to provide childcare before they have to pay for a child care expense on the other parent's time for work-related childcare. Care by family and friends presumed to be free, and should be used first.

22. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a party does not agree to an activity, the other parent cannot schedule an activity that conflicts with parent time.

23. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

TAX CREDITS

24. Dependency Exemption/Tax Credit. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. When there are five children, in even-numbered tax years, Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the three youngest children and Respondent shall claim the two oldest children. In odd-numbered tax years, Respondent shall be entitled to claim the three youngest children and Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the two oldest children.

b. When there are four children, Petitioner shall claim the two youngest children and Respondent shall claim the two oldest children.

c. When there are three children, in even-numbered tax years, Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the two youngest children and Respondent shall claim the oldest child. In odd-numbered tax years, Respondent shall be entitled to claim the two youngest children and Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the oldest child.

d. When there are two children, Petitioner shall claim the youngest child and Respondent shall claim the oldest child.

e. When there is one child, Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the child in odd-numbered tax years and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the child in even-numbered tax years.

f. A party can claim any child that he/she is ordinarily entitled to claim that year, pursuant to the plan above, only if he/she is current on their child support obligation as of December 31 of that year.

g. Any future stimulus payments shall be equally divided between the parties, assuming the supporting party is current on support obligations. If the supporting party is not current on support obligations by the end of the month when the stimulus payment is issued, then the party will forfeit their share of the stimulus payment to the other party, which will be used to satisfy the deficiency in the support obligation. Any excess shall be awarded to the party paying support obligations.

ALIMONY

25. Britt shall be awarded alimony from Aaron as follows: The following table shall reflect the overall total family support (“Total Family Support”) from Aaron. Alimony for each period of time shall constitute as the Total Family Support number less the Child Support during the current month for each time period. For example, for the month of July 2026 in the time period of July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2027, it will be: $4,600 in Total Family Support, $1,172 in Child Support and $3,428 in Alimony.

Time Period of Alimony	Total Family Support Amount
July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2027	$4,600
July 1, 2027 to June 30, 2028	$4,000
July 1, 2028 to June 30, 2029	$3,800
July 1, 2029 to June 30, 2030	$3,000
July 1, 2030 to June 30, 2031	$3,000
July 1, 2031 to June 30, 2032	$3,000
July 1, 2032 to June 30, 2033	$3,000
July 1, 2033 to June 30, 2034	$3,000

26. Alimony shall be due effective July 1, 2026, and payments shall be paid ½ by the 5th of the month and ½ by the 20th of the month. Alimony shall be automatically terminated by any of the following: the cohabitation of Britt with another (as defined by Utah law), Britt’s remarriage to another, or the expiration of the term of months, which shall take place on June 30, 2034.

DIVISION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

27. Real Property. During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired a home and real property located at 3892 W. Jordan View Dr., Lehi, UT 84043. The home shall be addressed as follows:

a. Britt shall be awarded the home, and shall have exclusive use and possession of the home. Britt shall be responsible for the mortgage, minivan, solar panels and other debts relating to the home, as well as the utilities and all other expenses and costs associated with the home. Britt shall have 180 days from the execution of the Stipulation to refinance Aaron off of the obligations relating to the home. If she fails to remove Aaron from the obligations of the home (including the mortgage and solar panels), or if she fails to make timely payments for the debt obligations relating to the home prior to removing Aaron's name, then the home will be listed for sale. The parties shall use a mutually agreed upon realtor. The parties will follow the reasonable recommendations of the realtor, and the parties will be entitled to access to all information and documents related to the sale of the home. Britt shall be responsible to make the home available as well as ensure its upkeep for showings, and keeping the home in showing condition. The parties shall act in good faith to sell the home quickly. In the event of a sale, Britt shall keep the proceeds of the sale of the home.

28. Home Insurance Claims/Proceeds. Any insurance claim proceeds that have been issued or awarded shall be used toward the repair of the roof. Any remaining insurance proceeds shall be equally split between the parties after the repairs are made. Any costs and expenses beyond this shall be borne solely by Britt.

29. Personal Property. The parties have accumulated personal property (including personal effects, vehicles and other tangible property) during the marriage. The parties' personal property shall be divided as follows:

Vehicles	Awarded To
2022 Toyota 4Runner	Aaron
Toyota Sienna minivan	Britt
2015 Toyota Prius C	Given to child, but co-owned by the parties
2007 Toyota Sienna minivan	Given to child, but co-owned by the parties

30. The party awarded with the vehicle shall be responsible for the debt on the vehicle. The party awarded with the vehicle, as stated above, shall indemnify the other party and hold the other party harmless for any debts and/or obligations for the vehicle. The party awarded with their respective vehicle(s) shall remove the other party from all obligations within 30 days of the date of this Agreement.

31. The parties shall be awarded the belongings at their respective residences, except that Aaron shall be entitled to the following out of Britt's residence:

- One-half of the camping gear;
- One-half of the climbing gear;
- One-half of the climbing holds;
- The two Jobe paddle boards;
- One-half of the children's toys, games, books, and general children's gear purchased before separation;
- One-half of the children's clothing purchased before separation;

- One-half of the children's keepsakes, art projects, school papers, awards, journals, baby books, handmade items, and other memorable items;
- One-half of the physical family photographs, photo albums, wedding photographs, and printed family pictures from the marriage;
- One-half of the Chat Books
- One-half of the children's outdoor, bike, ski, sport, and activity gear purchased before separation, to the extent not already divided;
- Each party shall receive a complete digital copy of all family photos and videos from the marriage, including photos and videos stored on phones, computers, cloud accounts, external hard drives, or other digital storage, to the extent reasonably accessible

The physical items shall be made available for pickup within 30 days of execution of this Agreement. The complete digital photo and video copies shall be provided within 60 days of execution of this Agreement. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to divide children's items fairly and in a way that allows both homes to be appropriately supplied for the children.

32. Financial/Investment/Retirement Accounts. The parties have accumulated financial accounts (including banking, checking, investment, retirement and other accounts) during the marriage. The parties' financial accounts shall be divided as follows:

Financial Account	Awarded To
Joint Savings	Split equally (as of signing date)
Strive 401K	Aaron
IRA - Aaron	Aaron
IRA – Britt	Britt
Human Interest 401K - Workstream	Aaron
Fidelity 401K - Bill.com	Aaron

E-trade stock options - Bill.com	Aaron
Robinhood	Aaron
Bank/Checking Accounts in Aaron's Name	Aaron
Bank/Checking Accounts in Britt's Name	Britt

33. Debts. The parties accumulated debt during the marriage. The parties' debts shall be divided as follows:

Debt	Awarded/Assigned To
Note to Richard Wimmer	Britt
Wells Fargo Home Loan	Britt
Mosaic Solar Panels	Britt
4 Runner	Split equally (paid off within 90 days)
Aaron's Credit Cards	Aaron
Britt's Credit Cards	Britt
Toyota Sienna minivan	Britt

34. The parties shall be awarded and assigned the debts in the table above. Additionally, if they are any undisclosed debts, the party shall who failed to disclose the debt shall be fully responsible for the debt. Any other debts not listed above shall be assigned to the party whose name is associated with the debt.

35. The parties shall not incur any other joint debts with the other party. If there are any joint debts that are not addressed above, the parties shall be equally responsible for equal payments for such debts.

36. Any joint debts shall be paid off within 30 days, unless expressly identified otherwise herein.

37. Business Interests. The parties business interests shall be awarded as follows:

- a. Wilkinson Trophy. This business interest is awarded to Aaron free and clear from Britt.
- b. Budget Plumbing. The parties shall equally split all payments due and owing from Budget Plumbing. Said payments shall be split as they come in.
- c. W&W. Aaron's $105,822.50 equity interest in the business shall be paid as part of the Global Payment indicated below. Upon the buyout, Aaron's interest in the business shall be extinguished.
- d. If a party is awarded a business interest from the other, the awarded party is awarded all rights, titles, obligations, debts, accounts, etc. associated with that business free and clear from the other party, holding the other party harmless therefrom.

38. Global Payment. Britt shall pay to Aaron $302,843 (which shall include Aaron's W&W equity interest of $105,822.50) within 90 days of the execution of the Agreement. If Britt fails to pay this amount by that time, then the marital home shall be placed for sale and Aaron shall receive the first $302,843 of proceeds.

MISCELLANEOUS

39. Deeds and Other Documents. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Agreement, and the forthcoming Decree of Divorce to be entered by the Court, including but not limited to titles and deeds, and addressing debt obligations.

40. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.

41. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Up through the entry of the Decree of Divorce, each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

42. Waiver of Claims. The parties shall waive any and all claims that either party can assert against one another.

43. Name Change. Britt shall be entitled to change her name to Wimmer, if she so chooses.

44. Notice to Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

b. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

i. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each joint creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

ii. Notify that joint creditor of the current address for each party.

iii. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract, and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt.

45. Notice to Medical Expense Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.7, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§30-3-5, 30-4-3, or 78-45-7.15, as amended, or an administrative order under Utah Code Ann. §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

b. Therefore, each party shall:

i. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child.

ii. Notify the particular creditor of the party's current address.

Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order, and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtors repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.
