PARENTING PLAN

Virtual Parent-Time

7. The parties shall be able to communicate with the children as arranged by the parent and children.

Decisions Regarding Raising a Child

8. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of a child. At the earliest convenience the parent involved in the emergency must relay the situation to the other parent.

9. If possible, the children shall remain in their current schools and school system. In the future and the children have to change schools, the parties with work with one another to reach a resolution, if they cannot then they will seek mediation.

Parallel parenting

10. The parties shall primarily parallel parent, with each parent making the day-to-day decisions the children on his or her day.

Communication between Parties

11. The parties shall communicate as little as possible to each other. When the parties do communicate, it shall only be in writing regarding the minor children. This can be done by text or by an agreed upon co-parenting communication app such as App Close or Talking Parents.

12. The parties will share with each other all medical, school, and important records/documents.

13. Neither party shall attempt to have a child transfer verbal or written messages between the parties.

Respect and Cooperation

14. Both parents shall recognize that the best interests of a child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of a child. Both parents shall encourage affection and promote respect toward the other parent.

15. Neither parent shall attempt to harm the relationship between a parent and a child. This includes making disparaging comments about the other parent, or allowing the child in the presence of anyone who does.

Contact Information and Records

16. Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

17. Morgan and Jayme shall both have access to all medical records and school reports for the child.

School Functions and Social Activities

18. Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions a child attends.

Illness

19. The parties shall notify the other when a child is ill. Prior to the exchange of a child who is ill, the parties shall discuss regular parent-times and shall reasonably accommodate the sick child. If the parties cannot agree, regular parent-time shall not be affected. A parent shall not use a child's illness to frustrate parent-time.

Parent-Time Respect

20. The parties shall not schedule or promote an activity that falls on the other party's parent-time without first obtaining permission from that party in writing. The parties shall cooperate so the children can participate in important family and social events that are important to the children.

Non-interference with the Parties' Personal Lives

21. Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority, and control of the other party, except as impacts the care of a child, as set forth in this Petition.

22. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other party.

Relatives

23. Ongoing relationships between a child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued. Any visitation by relatives shall be done during the scheduled parent-time of the parent to which they are related.

Relocation of a Parent

24. The parties shall also work with each other in the event they live more than 50 miles from each other to ensure the continuance of the 50/50 schedule.

Adjustments or Modifications

25. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes can be made whenever the parties agree, and it is memorialized in writing.

Failure to Comply

26. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions under this Parent-Time Section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

CHILD SUPPORT AND EXPENSES

Child Support

27. The Court should order child support that is consistent with the parties' income verification and a joint physical custody worksheet. Morgan's month income is $7203 and Jayme's month income $3293 with Morgan having 182 overnights and Jayme having 183 overnights, which would calculate to Morgan paying Jayme $339 a month in child support.

28. Child support shall continue until a minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during their normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

29. Any child support may be adjusted by motion when the most recent Child Support Order is older than three (3) years and by petition when the most recent Child Support Order is less than three (3) years old.

Medical Insurance and Medical Expenses

30. One of the parties shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of a child if it is available to them at a reasonable rate. Should one party obtain health/medical insurance through their employment or other business undertakings, the other party shall be liable for the payment of one-half of the cost of said insurance for a child's portion of that insurance. Currently, Morgan has the insurance and Jayme will be responsible for paying one-half of the children's pro rata portion of the insurance. She should also be responsible for her pro rata portion of the insurance.

31. If the parent that is paying child support is providing the insurance, that parent shall receive credit on his/her insurance for the other parent's portion of the child's insurance if that parent is not already receiving said money directly.

32. The parties shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, therapeutic, and optical expenses of a child which are not covered by insurance.

33. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment.

34. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification and payment within thirty (30) days of payment.

35. The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

36. Morgan and Jayme shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth herein.

37. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of a child.

38. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

Child care

39. The parties shall share the equal division of child care expenses and such expenses shall be reimbursed by the notified party within thirty (30) days of receipt of child care invoices, receipts, and/or bills. Any contribution by state or other assistance would only count toward the parent's obligation who received that assistance.

Extracurricular activities

40. The parties will equally share in the costs of all extracurricular activities that are agreed to in writing. If an activity is not agreed to in writing, the parenting signing the child up for the activity will be fully responsible for the costs and the child may still participate in the activity, but it is presumed optional on the non-agreeing parent's time.

ASSET/DEBT DIVISION AND PROVISIONS

Real Property

41. The parties purchased real property during the marriage located at 7259 N. Crystal Brook Drive, Eagle Mountain, Utah 84005. The house should be awarded to Morgan and he shall pay her $48,000 for her share of the equity as follows:

- a. $5000 by August 14, 2026.
- b. $43,000 within 90 days of the entry of the divorce.

42. Jayme will vacate the residence by September 21, 2026 or 30 days from the entry of the divorce, whichever happens sooner.

Personal Property

43. During the course of the marriage, Morgan and Jayme have acquired certain items of personal property, which should be divided as follows:

- a. Any retirement/pensions accrued during the marriage shall be split equally.
- b. Morgan shall be awarded the dogs.
- c. Each party shall take the vehicle he or she drives. Morgan shall receive the truck and motorcycle and trailer. Jayme will receive the vehicle she drives. Morgan shall pay her $1000 for the Toyota that was sold.
- d. The parties will divide the property from the home as they agree.

Separate Property

44. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

Debts and Obligations

45. Each party will be responsible for any debt in his or her own name.

Delinquency in Payments

46. A party, who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees and costs from the other party.

ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Alimony

47. Neither party shall be awarded alimony.

Taxes

48. If Morgan needs to claim both children for tax purposes because provides the medical insurance he shall claim both children. In the event this occurs, the Morgan shall pay Jayme the value of the child tax credit for that year. If not, then each party shall claim one minor child.

Attorney's Fees

49. Each party will pay their own attorney fees.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

50. Neither Morgan nor Jayme is receiving public assistance in the form of food stamps; therefore the State need not be joined as a party in this matter.

COOPERATION

51. Morgan and Jayme shall cooperate with each other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

52. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

DEFAULT

53. If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.
