IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

COUNTY OF UTAH, STATE OF UTAH

STEVEN GUNN,

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Petitioner,

v.

Case No. UD4400307

MELISSA N. GUNN,

Respondent.

_____ /

The above entitled action came before the Court for default divorce, petitioner having filed his Affidavit in Support of Motion for Default Divorce Decree along with all other papers and pleadings on file, and respondent having previously executed and filed with the court a stipulation to divorce. Upon that evidence the court entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions, and thereupon enters the following Decree of Divorce:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from respondent.
2. Petitioner and respondent are awarded the joint legal care, custody and control of the minor children with petitioner being the primary custodial parent and his residence being the primary custodial residence of the children.
3. Respondent is awarded visitation with her four (4) minor children as worked out between the parties, but not less than that provided for by Utah Code Section 30-3-33 and 35.
4. Neither party is awarded child support from the other.

5. Petitioner is ordered to keep the children insured on his health insurance policy so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through his employment and each of the parties will be responsible for one-half of the cost of the children's portion of the medical insurance as provided for by Utah Statute.

6. Each of the parties are ordered to be liable for one-half of the reasonable child care expenses as necessitated by petitioner's employment and/or work related education.

7. Petitioner will have the right to claim the minor children as exemptions for income tax purposes.

8. Neither of the parties are awarded alimony from the other.

9. The parties are the owners of residential real estate in Utah County which is constituted the marital home. The parties will continue to own said home jointly until such time as the last of the parties' children turns 18 years of age or graduates from high school with her normal class, at which time the home will be appraised and petitioner may purchase respondent's one-half interest or the home shall be sold and the equity derived therefrom be divided equally between the parties. Equity shall be determined by subtracting from the sales price the mortgage balance of both the first and second mortgages against the home as of the date of the decree of divorce, all commissions and costs associated with the sale, and all sums paid by petitioner for repairs to the home that exceed $500.00. Petitioner will be reimbursed for the sums expended on the aforesaid repairs and for all amounts he has paid to reduce the mortgage balances.

10. Each party is awarded the vehicle and personal property now in their own possession. Petitioner is awarded all interest in his insurance business.

11. Petitioner is ordered to pay and hold respondent harmless from the first and second mortgages against the marital residence. Respondent is ordered to pay and hold petitioner harmless from the vehicle loan payable to Universal Campus Credit Union on her vehicle.

12. Each party is ordered to pay their own debts incurred subsequent to their separation in November, 1999.

DATED May 10, 2000.
