Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY
STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

KYLEE HAYES
Petitioner,

and

JAMES MICHAEL HAYES
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 234100205
Judge Griffin
Commissioner Ito

This matter comes before the court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Court having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner ("Kylee") and Respondent ("Michael") are hereby dissolved, and Kylee is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Michael on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions:

1. Residency. Kylee and Michael have been residents of Utah County, State of Utah, for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage. The parties were married on July 13, 2013, in Mapleton, Utah, and are presently married.
3. Grounds. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties making continuation of the marriage impossible.
4. Minor Child. There has been one minor child born of the marriage: E.L.H. (born in August 2020) (the “Child”).
5. Joint Legal and Joint Physical Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the Child. The parties shall exercise equal parent-time on a week-on/week-off schedule.
6. Parent-Time Exchanges. The parties shall continue exchanging the Child on Mondays at school. On a Monday when school is in session, the parent concluding his or her week shall ensure the Child attends school, and the parent beginning his or her week shall receive the Child from school. When school is not in session on the scheduled Monday exchange day at 6pm, the receiving parent shall provide transportation, unless the parties otherwise agree. The parties may agree to a different arrangement through OFW for a particular exchange, otherwise, the exchanges will be “curbside” (defined as the receiving parent remaining within arm’s reach of his or her vehicle, and the delivering parent remaining within their doorway).
7. Extended Summer Parent-time. Each party shall receive two uninterrupted weeks when school is not in session for the summer (commencing in 2027), which, unless otherwise agreed, will be designated in either one 14-day block or two 7-day blocks. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. A parent's notice of extended summer parent-time shall identify the beginning and ending dates of the requested period. Unless otherwise agreed, awarded holiday parent-time shall take precedence over extended summer parent-time. Michael shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Kylee shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent shall have priority. Unless otherwise agreed, chosen extended summer parent-time may not override awarded holiday parent-time.

8. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties mutually agree. Any agreement to deviate from the holiday schedule should be confirmed through OFW. In the absence of an agreement, the holiday schedule set forth herein shall control:

Odd Years	Even Years	Holiday and Time
Kylee	Michael	Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday after school on the Friday before holiday to Tuesday morning with the exchange at school
Michael	Kylee	President's Day after school on the Friday before holiday to Tuesday morning with the exchange at school

Kylee	Kylee	Mother's Day from 9:00 a.m. on the holiday to the day after with the exchange at school

9. JOINT PARENTING PLAN. The parties shall follow these joint parenting plan provisions:

10. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall make best efforts to mutually agree on the major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training of the Child. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution as set forth below. Both parties shall have the authority to make emergency and routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

11. School Placement and Educational Decision-Making. So long as Kylee resides within the Nebo School District, the Child shall remain enrolled within the Nebo School District. So long as Kylee resides within the Nebo School District, Kylee shall have final decision-making authority concerning the Child's school and educational placement, subject to the consultation and dispute-resolution requirements set forth herein. Nothing in the consultation requirement shall be construed to prevent Kylee from meeting a school-imposed deadline after reasonable efforts to complete the required consultation.

12. Before exercising final decision-making authority, Kylee shall consult with Michael in good faith, provide Michael with relevant information reasonably necessary to evaluate the issue, consider Michael's position, and make a good-faith effort to reach agreement. Kylee's final educational decision-making authority shall not permit Kylee to unilaterally commit Michael to extraordinary expenses or make decisions concerning matters otherwise requiring joint agreement under this Stipulation. If Kylee no longer resides within the Nebo School District, Kylee's final educational decision-making authority under this provision shall terminate.

13. Both parents shall make their best efforts to ensure that the Child attends school as scheduled and arrives at school on time during their respective parent-time.

14. Medical Decision-Making. Michael shall have final decision-making authority regarding major medical decisions affecting the Child, subject to the consultation and dispute-resolution requirements contained herein. Before exercising final decision-making authority regarding a major medical issue, Michael shall: obtain and consider the recommendations of appropriate medical professionals; provide Kylee with relevant information concerning the proposed treatment or decision; consult with Kylee in good faith and consider her position; and make a good-faith effort to reach agreement. For purposes of the required consultation, Michael shall provide Kylee with reasonably available provider recommendations and information material to the proposed decision sufficiently in advance of a non-emergency decision to permit meaningful consultation when reasonably practicable. If the parties remain unable to agree after good-faith consultation, Michael may exercise final decision-making authority, subject to Kylee's right to request mediation and, if necessary, seek review by the Court.

15. Major medical decisions include matters such as surgery, orthodontic treatment, significant non-emergency procedures, or other substantial medical treatment. This provision does not require either parent to obtain advance permission from the other to obtain routine, urgent, or emergency medical care for the Child during that parent's parent-time. Either parent may appropriately obtain ordinary medical care for illness or injury while the Child is in that parent's care and shall timely communicate material medical information to the other parent.

16. Religious Decisions. Major decisions concerning the Child's religious upbringing shall be made jointly. The parties shall consult with one another in good faith concerning significant religious decisions and activities. Neither parent shall have unilateral final decision-making authority concerning religion. If the parties are unable to resolve a significant religious dispute after good-faith consultation, they shall participate in mediation before seeking relief from the Court, absent an emergency or other circumstance making mediation impracticable.

17. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, lunches, required supplies, lab fees). incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

18. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall consult with one another and reasonably attempt to agree concerning the Child's participation in extracurricular activities. Neither parent shall unreasonably withhold agreement to reasonable activities that benefit the Child, nor shall either parent unilaterally enroll the Child in activities that unreasonably interfere with the other parent's parent-time or impose financial obligations upon the other parent without agreement. The parties shall consider, among other things, the Child's interests, the duration and frequency of the activity, the impact upon both parents' parent-time, the cost, transportation requirements, and the Child's existing commitments. A parent's failure to respond to a request for agreement concerning an extracurricular activity shall not, standing alone, constitute agreement to assume a financial obligation for the activity.

19. For mutually agreed extracurricular activities in writing, the parties shall equally divide the agreed expenses, with each paying fifty percent (50%). The parties shall reasonably cooperate in allowing the Child to participate in mutually agreed activities during both parents' respective parent-time.

20. Dispute Resolution. Except where this Stipulation expressly provides otherwise or in the event of an emergency, the parties shall first communicate and consult with one another in good faith concerning major decisions affecting the Child. Where appropriate, the parties shall consult relevant professionals in the area of disagreement. If the parties are unable to resolve an issue requiring joint agreement, either party may request mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, either party may seek appropriate relief from the Court. The existence of final decision-making authority concerning education or major medical matters does not preclude the other parent from seeking subsequent Court review. Nothing in this dispute-resolution provision shall prevent either party from seeking emergency relief where appropriate, nor shall the mere pendency of a mediation request operate as a stay of an otherwise applicable deadline or of final decision-making authority expressly granted by the Court, absent agreement or further order of the Court.

21. Our Family Wizard. All non-emergency communications concerning the Child shall occur through Our Family Wizard, except where circumstances reasonably require more immediate communication. Communications shall remain respectful, child-focused, and reasonably limited to matters concerning the Child. Each party shall timely communicate significant information concerning the Child's education, medical care, activities, travel, and welfare through Our Family Wizard so that a reliable record of the parties' communications is maintained.

22. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns at any time needed and shall not use their child to deliver messages. The parties may use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange. Communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the child.

23. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child

24. Travel. When the child travels with either parent, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel: An itinerary of travel dates; Destination; Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passport and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

25. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

26. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the shared calendar shall constitute notice.

27. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. The parties shall communicate requests for special consideration concerning weddings, funerals, or other significant family events through OFW as soon as reasonably practicable. Unless the parties agree to an accommodation, the otherwise applicable parent-time schedule shall remain in effect.

28. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent.

Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent or otherwise diminish the child's relationship with the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to support the other and to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. The parties shall not go to the other party's place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

29. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. An offer under this provision shall be communicated through OFW as soon as reasonably practicable after the parent becomes aware that overnight third-party care will be required and shall identify the anticipated overnight period for which care is needed. The other parent shall respond within a reasonable time under the circumstances so that alternative childcare arrangements may be made if necessary.

[End of Joint Parenting Plan]

30. Child Support Income. For purposes of calculating current child support, the parties stipulated to the following gross monthly incomes: Michael: $7,500.00 per month; and Kylee: $6,101.00 per month. For purposes of the joint physical custody child-support calculation, Kylee shall be credited with 183 overnights per year, and Michael shall be credited with 182 overnights per year.

31. Child Support. Based upon the stipulated incomes and overnight allocation, Michael shall pay Kylee $76.00 per month in child support, commencing September 1, 2026. Child support shall continue until terminated pursuant to Utah law or further order of the Court. Child support is due one-half on the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month. Neither party may unilaterally offset a separate reimbursement or property claim against a current child support payment absent written agreement or further order of the Court.

32. Alimony. Michael shall pay Kylee $459.00 per month in alimony, commencing September 1, 2026. Accordingly, commencing September 1, 2026, Michael's combined monthly child-support and alimony payment shall be $535.00, consisting of $76.00 in child support and $459.00 in alimony. Alimony shall continue for four (4) years, subject to earlier termination upon: Kylee's remarriage; Kylee's cohabitation as provided by Utah law; or the death of either party. For purpose of clarification, claims related to cohabitation dated prior to trial (i.e., August 11, 2026) were waived by the parties.

33. Alimony is due one-half on the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month. Neither party may unilaterally offset a separate reimbursement or property claim against a current alimony payment absent written agreement or further order of the Court.

34. Child Medical Expenses. The parties shall each be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of the Child's uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, psychological, and other healthcare expenses as provided herein:

- a. 1Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

- b. 2Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.
- c. 3The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.
- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Kylee shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Michael shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.
- e. Double coverage shall not be required; however, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Separate Accounts. Each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated if possible.

35. Work-Related Childcare. The parties shall equally divide qualifying work-related childcare expenses as provided by Utah law. Documentation of childcare expenses for which contribution is requested shall be timely provided through Our Family Wizard. Each party shall cooperate in providing information reasonably necessary to verify the expense. Documentation submitted for reimbursement shall reasonably identify the childcare provider, date of care, amount incurred or paid, and sufficient information to establish that the expense constitutes qualifying work-related childcare.

36. Child Tax Benefits. The parties will alternate the applicable federal and state tax benefits associated with the Child, with Kylee claiming in even-numbered tax years, and Michael claiming in odd-numbered tax years. Michael must be current in child support on December 31st of the applicable tax year to claim the Child, otherwise, Kylee will claim.

37. Marital Residence and $200,000 Property Settlement. The marital residence located in Highland, Utah, shall be awarded to Michael as his sole and separate property. In full settlement of Kylee's interest in the marital residence and the parties' competing debt and reimbursement claims, except as expressly preserved herein, Michael shall pay Kylee $200,000.00 in ready funds within six (6) months of August 13, 2026, and therefore no later than February 13, 2027. Upon receipt of the $200,000.00 property settlement, Kylee shall execute any documents reasonably necessary to transfer or release her ownership interest, if any, in the marital residence.

38. The parties acknowledged that this $200,000.00 amount is a negotiated property settlement and compromise and does not constitute an admission by either party concerning the value of the residence, the amount of marital equity, or the validity of any disputed reimbursement claim.

39. Kylee's obligation to execute documents transferring or releasing her ownership interest, if any, in the marital residence shall arise only after receipt of the full $200,000 property-settlement payment. The existence of an unresolved personal-property or other dispute shall not extend the February 13, 2027, payment deadline unless otherwise agreed in writing or ordered by the Court. Kylee shall maintain an equitable interest against the marital residence until payment.

40. Debts Associated With Marital Residence. As part of the foregoing property settlement, Michael shall be solely responsible for, and shall indemnify and hold Kylee harmless from, all debts and obligations associated with the Marital Residence, which include: the BHG loan; the Highland mortgage; the Steven Geduld loan; the Shaun Hayes loan; and the solar loan associated with the residence. Michael shall be solely responsible for these obligations regardless of the allocation of the $200,000.00 property settlement.

41. California State Tax Liability. The parties shall remain equally responsible, fifty percent (50%) each, for the California state tax liability incurred during the marriage. Neither party shall be required to affirmatively pay the liability unless and until payment is collected by the taxing authority. If any portion is collected from one party in excess of that party's fifty-percent share, the other party shall reimburse that party and indemnify that party to the extent necessary so that the ultimate responsibility for the liability is divided equally. A party seeking reimbursement shall provide reasonable documentation establishing the amount collected from that party and the resulting equalization amount. This obligation is specifically excluded from the parties' general settlement and release of debt and reimbursement claims.

42. Other Debts. Except for the debts specifically allocated above and the California state tax liability, each party shall be solely responsible for debts in his or her own name. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any debt assigned to that party. To the extent either party remains an authorized user, joint obligor, or otherwise associated with an account assigned to the other, the parties shall reasonably cooperate in removing the other party from the account when practicable.

43. Release of Equity, Debt, and Reimbursement Claims. Except for the obligations expressly preserved in this Stipulation, including the personal-property and hot-tub provisions below, the $200,000.00 property settlement resolves all competing claims between the parties concerning: equity in the marital residence; marital debts; reimbursement claims; payments made during separation; mortgage, loan, utility, vehicle, medical, tax, household, or other marital expenses; claims for contribution, credit, offset, or equalization; and other financial reimbursement claims asserted or which could have been asserted through the date of settlement. Neither party shall be entitled to an additional judgment or reimbursement against the other concerning such matters except as expressly provided herein.

44. Checking and Saving Accounts. Each party shall be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts.

45. Personal Property List. The division of marital personal property shall be completed separately from the $200,000.00 property settlement according to the following procedure:

- a. Kylee shall prepare a list of the items of marital personal property that existed as of the parties' separation and shall provide the list to Michael through counsel;
- b. Michael shall review the list and identify any items he contends were not marital property or did not exist as marital property at separation;
- c. Property received by a party as a gift or inheritance from a third party shall not constitute marital property merely by reason of possession during the marriage. Gifts exchanged between the parties during the marriage, however, shall be included as marital property for purposes of the selection process unless otherwise agreed;
- d. After the marital-property list has been established, the parties shall divide the property by alternate selection. Michael, as Respondent, shall make the first selection. Kylee shall make the second selection, and the parties shall thereafter alternate selections until all listed property has been allocated. Items that constitute a set and are ordinarily used together, such as a dining table and its chairs, shall ordinarily be treated as a single item for purposes of selection;
- e. Marital property that existed at separation but was subsequently sold, gifted, transferred, disposed of, or is otherwise no longer available may nevertheless be included on the personal-property list. If the party responsible for the disposition of an item selects that item during the alternate-selection process, the item shall count as that party's selection notwithstanding that the physical property is no longer available. For example, if a party sold an item and retained its proceeds, that party may select the disposed-of item as his or her selection, thereby eliminating the need to separately value the item;

f. If neither party selects or the parties otherwise cannot fairly account for a disposed-of item through the alternate-selection process, they shall attempt in good faith to agree upon an appropriate value or credit; and

g. Kylee shall provide her proposed personal-property list within fourteen (14) days after entry of the Decree. Michael shall identify any objections to the list within fourteen (14) days thereafter. The parties shall commence and complete the alternate-selection process within thirty (30) days following Michael's response, unless otherwise agreed in writing. A party's failure to comply with a deadline contained in the personal-property procedure shall not prevent the other party from proceeding with mediation or seeking appropriate enforcement or other relief as provided herein.

46. Bullfrog Hot Tub. The Bullfrog hot tub shall be excluded from the ordinary alternate-selection process (Michael sold or otherwise disposed of the hot tub following separation). The parties shall attempt in good faith to agree upon the amount Kylee should receive as her share of the hot tub's value or sale proceeds, and Kylee shall receive one-half of the value attributable to the marital interest in the hot tub, which may be satisfied by payment, credit against the property settlement, additional personal property of equivalent agreed value, or another method agreed upon by the parties.

47. Mediation of Personal-Property Disputes. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute concerning the marital personal-property list, characterization of property, valuation or credit for disposed-of property, the hot tub, or completion of the alternate-selection process, the parties shall submit the unresolved issue to mediation. The parties shall equally divide the mediator's fee. The existence of an unresolved personal-property dispute shall not delay entry of the Decree of Divorce. If mediation does not resolve the dispute, either party may thereafter seek appropriate enforcement or other relief from the Court.

48. Business Interests and Other Property. Except for the property expressly addressed herein, each party shall retain property, accounts, business interests, retirement interests, and other assets presently titled solely in that party's name or otherwise allocated to that party by agreement, and all debt, liabilities, and obligations associated therewith. The $200,000.00 settlement constitutes a compromise and resolution of any competing financial, equity, reimbursement, or equalization claims concerning such property unless specifically preserved herein.

49. Attorney Fees and Costs. Each party shall be responsible for and shall pay his or her own attorney fees and costs incurred in this action.
