IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of Marriage of

TAYLOR JAMES HADLOCK,

Petitioner,

and

JAYDRIEN HADLOCK,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264400371

Judge Christine Johnson

Commissioner Marian Ito

The Court, having reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law for Decree of Divorce, and being duly informed as to all the facts of the case, and for good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

DIVORCE

1. Marriage: The parties married on November 5, 2016, in Lindon, State of Utah.
2. The parties are granted a divorce based on the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce, the divorce to become final upon entry.
3. Child: There is one (1) minor child of this marriage: C.R.H., born February 2019.

4. Legal Custody & Parenting Plan: Both parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child and use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby.
5. Information Sharing: Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the child's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided to all third parties who interact with the child (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, childcare, etc.). The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the child so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.). The parties will keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments of the child. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the child such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.
6. Decisions: Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the child's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education. If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the child, the parties will first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. If the parties still disagree on the issue, then the parties will promptly submit the matter to mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, then either party may file a motion in court and schedule a hearing, and the court will decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child.

7. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the child during school and authority to check the child out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties will obtain separate passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor child in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the minor child's homework is complete and transporting the minor child to and from school on time. The child will continue to attend her current school and the appropriate feeder schools, unless the Father or the child's cousins move out of that school zone. In the future, if the parties disagree on the school placement or registration, they will use the dispute resolution procedures outlined herein.

8. Contact Information: The parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change.

9. Communication between Parents: All communication between the parties shall be primarily via text, email or an agreed-upon parenting app. All communication between the parties shall be civil in nature. Medical emergencies will be communicated by whatever means possible to reasonably alert the other to the situation as soon as possible.

10. Communication with Child: Communication between a parent and the child (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, and shall be unmonitored. If the child is not available when a parent calls, then the party with parent time will initiate or have the child initiate return contact as soon as possible the same day, but not later than 24 hours. The child may initiate contact with either parent at any reasonable times and durations.

11. Travel: When the minor child is traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

15. Exchanges: The parties will share transportation for parent time exchanges as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the child will be dropped off by the sending parent curbside at the residence of the receiving parent. The “sending parent” is the parent whose parent time is ending. Curbside means that the sending parent will remain at the curb and within 5 feet of the car, the receiving parent will remain at or within 5 feet of the door of the residence, the child is sent to and from the car, and no communication is to take place at the exchanges.

16. Moves: The parties have joint physical custody, and therefore, the provisions of Utah Code 81-9-209 do not apply. As such, absent a written agreement of the parties, a parent desiring to relocate the child to a distance that makes joint physical custody unworkable or impractical, that parent must file a petition to modify seeking court assistance for custody and parent time.

17. Mutual Restraining Orders re Child:

a. Disparaging: Both parties shall be restrained from demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent in the presence of the minor child. - c. No Involvement in Legal Case: Both parties are restrained from discussing any legal or financial issues in this case with the child.

- i. Substance Abuse: Neither party will use alcohol, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 12 hours prior to or during parent time with the child.

j. Third Parties: Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

18. Child Support: Neither party is employed as of the date of this agreement. However, each parent agrees to be imputed $3,500 per month for child support purposes. Under the equal time-sharing arrangement child support is $0 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines.

19. Childcare: Utah Code 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements with family members are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. A party using family members to provide childcare will not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs. The parties will share the contact information of all childcare providers with the other parent and share the contact information of both parents with the childcare provider.

20. First Right: Each parent will have the first right to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available for a period of overnight or longer during their parent time. The parent exercising the first right must be personally available, willing to provide the transportation, and shall return the child when the other becomes available.

21. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor child if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost should do so. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the child's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 81-6-208. If, in the future, any child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Mother shall be primary, and the coverage of the Father will be secondary.

22. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the child, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor child, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208.

23. Division of Accounts. When a parent is arranging for and making payment for medical, school, childcare or other activities, the parent will request that the provider create separate accounts for each party to pay their respective half of the costs separately. See Utah Code 15-4-6.7.

24. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the child attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the child attend during his or her parent time.

25. School Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket public-school expenses for the minor child incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

- b. The Mother will claim the child on her returns for the odd-numbered tax years.
- c. A party's right to claim any child on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to being current on all child support obligations by December 31st of the particular tax year. A party's right to claim any child on any tax return for any particular tax year is subject to a party receiving a tax benefit in a particular tax year. If a party cannot claim a child on his/her tax return for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her return for that year. See Utah Code 81-6-210.
