Parent-time transfers

12. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

13. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

14. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

15. The school the children will attend is based on a specific plan for where the children will attend school: Joint or Either Derek Jackson or Lily MacLeod. Whoever has the best living situation when that time comes. .

16. Lily Catherine MacLeod and Derek Jeffrey Jackson has authority to check the children out of school. Lily Catherine MacLeod and Derek Jeffrey Jackson has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Lily Catherine MacLeod.

Communication with each other

17. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 1 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 14 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

23. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

24. Other terms about child care: must be Mitzi MacLeod, Amber Jackson or Jeffrey Jackson. When they are old enough for school , there must be cameras.

Relocation of a parent

25. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 50 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

26. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

27. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

28. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

29. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

Military Parenting Plan (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 10, Part 4)

This Military Parenting Plan is proposed by the petitioner.

30. This Military Parenting Plan is in addition to the standard Parenting Plan because Respondent is a servicemember.

Military Parenting Plan: Notice of deployment

31. After receiving notice of deployment, a deploying parent will give written notice to the other parent within 7 days or as soon as reasonably possible. If the non-deploying parent has a protective order against the deploying parent, the deploying parent will give written notice of deployment to the court. The written notice of deployment should include the destination, duration, and conditions.

Military Parenting Plan: Caretaking authority during deployment

32. Only Respondent is a servicemember. While Respondent is deployed, caretaking authority of the parties' children is given to:

- Lily Catherine MacLeod, who is not deployed.
- Derek Jeffrey Jackson will keep some caretaking authority.
- Mitzi MacLeod
- Jeff Jackson
- Amber Jackson

33. A person granted caretaking authority must notify the following people of any change in mailing or residential address:

- The deploying parent,
- Anyone with physical or legal custody,
- Anyone who has parent-time, right to access, visitation, and
- Anyone with authority to grant limited contact with the children.

34. However, if a person granted caretaking authority has a court order protecting their address, they must give written notice of any change in mailing or residential address to the court.

Military Parenting Plan: Decision-making authority during deployment

35. The people given caretaking authority above will have decision-making authority to:

- Make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children.
- Make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decisions with the other people who have caretaking authority as soon as reasonably possible.

36. Joint decision-making. The people given caretaking authority above will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the people given caretaking authority will resolve the dispute as provided in the resolving disputes section below.

37. Other details about joint decision-making:

Military Parenting Plan: Visitation for nonparents

38. The nonparents listed below will have visitation with the children as follows:

Full name of person	Schedule
Mitzi MacLeod	Sunday- exchange children. Have the kids Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, exchange children again Thursday.
Jeff Jackson	Sunday exchange children. Have the children

Full name of person

Schedule

Amber Jackson

Thursday, keep the children Friday, Saturday, Exchange children Sunday.

Amber and Jeff are married. Sunday exchange children. Have the children Thursday, keep the children Friday, Saturday, Exchange children Sunday.

Military Parenting Plan: Resolving disputes

39. If the people given caretaking authority need to resolve a dispute about the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for the children.

40. If the people given caretaking authority are unable to agree, they will participate in the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Military Parenting Plan: Contact with the deployed parent

41. There will be contact with the children and the deployed parent. Lily MacLeod will arrange for the contact. Contact will be as follows:

Frequency: Weekly

Duration: 30 minutes - 1 hour

Method: Email or facetime

Military Parenting Plan: Contact when deployed parent is on leave or is otherwise available

42. When the deployed parent is on leave or is otherwise available, contact with the children will be as follows:

b. The parent can visit the children and/or call.

Military Parenting Plan: Child support not modified

43. Child support obligations cannot be modified by the Military Parenting Plan.

44. Changing child support requires a court order.

45. The arrangements in this Military Parenting Plan terminate 30 days after the deploying parent gives notice of the return from deployment.

46. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Lily Catherine MacLeod) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

47. Lily Catherine MacLeod's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2080. Lily Catherine MacLeod receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Lily Catherine MacLeod is employed at Sunny Lilly. Lily Catherine MacLeod earns $2080 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

Income: Respondent (Derek Jeffrey Jackson) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

48. Derek Jeffrey Jackson's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1907. Derek Jeffrey Jackson receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Derek Jeffrey Jackson is employed at Chubbys. Derek Jeffrey Jackson earns $1906.67 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

49. The adjusted gross monthly income for Derek Jeffrey Jackson is $1907.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

50. It is in the best interest of the children that Lily Catherine MacLeod be ordered to pay child support to Derek Jeffrey Jackson as follows:

a. $11.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

51. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

52. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

53. The base child support amount using the joint custody calculation is $11 per month.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

54. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

55. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

56. Child support will be paid as follows:

I, Lily MacLeod, can Venmo Derek Jackson or give him cash.

57. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

58. Lily Catherine MacLeod and Derek Jeffrey Jackson will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Derek Jeffrey Jackson, Lily Catherine MacLeod will reimburse Derek Jeffrey Jackson for half the fee.

59. The parties must notify each other of any change in their income as follows:

If either parent gets a new job or deployed, will let the other parent know as soon as they are made aware of the change.

60. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

61. As long as Lily Catherine MacLeod is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Lily Catherine MacLeod may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

a. Vanessa Jackson

62. As long as Derek Jeffrey Jackson is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Derek Jeffrey Jackson may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

b. Thomas Jackson

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

63. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

64. Derek Jeffrey Jackson must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Derek Jeffrey Jackson's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Lily Catherine MacLeod's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Derek Jeffrey Jackson's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Lily Catherine MacLeod's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

65. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
