Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AMBER JOY FRANCIS DAVIS, Petitioner, vs. JONATHAN MICHAEL DAVIS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No.: 264401038 Judge: Anthony Howell Commissioner: Marian Ito

THE ABOVE CAPTIONED MATTER is submitted to the Court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The signed Stipulation of the Parties was previously filed. The Court, having reviewed the Stipulation, the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, based thereon and for good cause appearing therefore;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The Court hereby enters a Decree of Divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony as between the Parties, and each party is awarded a Decree of Divorce from the other, upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry.

2. Children. The Parties do not have any children together. Therefore, the Court will not make a determination regarding custody, parent time, or child support.

3. Alimony. Petitioner has waived any and all right to receive monthly alimony payments from Respondent. In lieu of alimony, Petitioner will accept a lump sum payment in the amount of $2,000.00 which Respondent has agreed to pay within 30 days.

4. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the Parties have acquired personal property. The personal property shall be distributed as follows, together with all respective debt, liability, and equity for each item listed below:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2018 Tesla Model 3	Respondent
2013 Fiat 500 E	Petitioner
Boat and Trailer	Respondent
Kiki's Collar	Petitioner
Petitioner's personal belongings	Petitioner
Respondent's personal belongings	Respondent

a. Each Party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated above.

5. The Parties do not own any real property. Therefore, the Court will not make a determination on real property.

6. Debts. The Parties' debt, other than any debt associated with the personal property listed in Paragraph 7 above, shall be handled as follows:

Any and all obligations to Respondent's family	Respondent
--	------------

If any other debt exists, any such debt shall be handled as follows:

a. Other Debts. Each Party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred in his or her own name.

b. Notification to Creditors. For any joint debts, the Parties may notify their respective creditors regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the Parties' separate current addresses.

c. Delinquency in Payments. If either Party is obligated on any joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A Party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other Party.

7. Banking, Retirement, and Financial Accounts.

a. Bank Accounts. The Parties have equitably divided the funds in all banking accounts and have divided ownership of the banking accounts themselves. The Parties shall take any necessary steps to remove themselves or the other Party from any account that is still open and has been divided which lists the Parties jointly. The Parties are awarded any individual bank accounts they have. Neither Party shall use the name, likeness, or any other identifying information of the other Party to open any financial accounts, on any loan application, or for any other purpose.

b. Retirement Accounts. The Parties do not have any retirement accounts. Therefore, the Court will not make a determination related to retirement accounts.

c. Investment Account. The Parties do not have any investment accounts. Therefore, the Court will not make a determination related to investment accounts.

8. Income Taxes. The Parties shall file tax returns separately for tax years 2025 and 2026. To the extent that any filed tax return needs to be amended to allow the other Party to file his or her return, the Parties agree to file an amended return. All future tax returns shall be filed separately.

9. Attorney's fees. Each Party will be responsible for his or her own attorney fees and court costs incurred in pursuing this action. This includes the cost to prepare the stipulation, findings of fact/conclusions of law, and the decree which will be borne by Petitioner.

10. Cooperative Execution of Documents. It is reasonable and proper that each Party should be ordered to promptly and timely execute and deliver to the other such documents that are required to implement the provisions of the decree of divorce entered by the Court. This shall include, without limitation, cooperating to remove one another from title to automobiles, the boat and trailer, any other personal property, and any accounts.

11. Full Disclosure. Each Party warrants to the other that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both Parties understand and agree that any deliberate failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either Party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either Party, separately or by the Parties jointly.

12. Petitioner's Name. Petitioner may, at Petitioner's sole discretion, change her name back to her maiden name at any time.

13. The Parties shall execute any and all documents necessary to comply with the above listed terms of the Stipulation. The parties stipulate and agree to hold the other Party harmless from any debts, obligations, liabilities regarding any property or debts that have been divided pursuant to the Stipulation.
