Attorney for Tegan Reese

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: JESSIE NICOLE REESE, Petitioner, and TEGAN KARL REESE, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 254403500 Judge: Denise M. Porter Commissioner: Marla Snow
--	---

The Court, having received and reviewed the file on record, having received the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds of Respondent, and also having received and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and now being fully advised in the premises, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

GROUND

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, and the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the parties should be dissolved. The divorce shall become final upon entry by the Clerk of the Court.

CHILD CUSTODY & CHILD SUPPORT

2. The parties have one (1) minor child born of this marriage, to wit: R.L.R. (Born: May 2021).
3. The parties shall share joint legal and physical custody of the minor child. Each parent has the right to make day-to-day and emergency decisions concerning their child while the child is in the care of that parent. For decisions affecting the general welfare of the child, the parents will cooperate and work together to make joint decisions that are in the best interest of their child. In the event of a dispute over major parenting decisions, the parties shall discuss the issue, consult professionals if necessary, and if they cannot agree, the parties shall attend mediation before bringing the matter to court for a decision.
4. Jessie shall be designated as the residential parent.
5. Parent time shall be as the parties agree, if the parties do not agree, Tegan shall have every other week from Wednesday to Sunday night with exchanges at 6:00 p.m.
6. The holiday and summer parent time schedule shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the holiday and summer parent time schedules shall be pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-302.
7. A parent shall provide 24 hours of advance notice to the other parent if they would like to change the day or time for a child exchange.

PARENTING PLAN

8. The party who is not exercising his/her physical parent-time with the minor children shall be entitled to reasonable virtual parent-time for a reasonable duration.
9. The parties shall be equally responsible for any extracurricular fees and costs for any activities approved by both parents in writing. Before enrolling the child in an activity, the parties shall discuss the activity and any potential associated cost.

10. The parties shall be equally responsible for school fees and school lunch fees.

11. The parties shall adopt the advisory guidelines of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-302 and adopt those provisions into this parenting plan and will become familiar with it and abide by these guidelines.

12. Transportation for child exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, the parties shall exchange the child at a halfway point between their residences, at an agreed upon time for pick up and drop off of the child.

13. If either party takes the minor child out of the State of Utah, that party shall provide the other party with reasonable notice of the travel, and an itinerary prior to the travel with dates, and contact information.

14. The parties shall make a good faith effort to make the child available to one another for extended family functions, significant life events, and holiday celebrations.

15. The parties shall not introduce the child to significant others unless they have been in a committed relationship for 6 months or longer.

16. While the child is with a parent, that parent shall not engage in, nor permit the presence of any excessive alcohol consumption, unlawful drug use, sexually explicit activities, violence, dangerous/unsafe locations and situations, disrespect for law and order.

17. The parties shall respect their child by communicating primarily with one another directly rather than making the child a messenger between them. The parties shall not drill/question the child about the other parent or use the child to get information about the other parent's personal life. The parties shall not disparage or degrade the other parent or allow a third party to disparage or degrade the other parent while in the presence of the minor child. The parties shall treat each other with dignity and respect in the presence of the child.

CHILD SUPPORT

18. Based upon on a sole custody worksheet and the affidavit of incomes provided by ORS with Tegan having a gross monthly income of $1,747.00 per month and Jessie's gross monthly income of $2,195.00 per month, Tegan's child support obligation shall be $244.00 per month.

19. The payor of child support may pay one half of the child support on the 5th of the month and the other half on the 20th of the month.

20. Child support continues for the parties' minor child until such time as a child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school through a regular course of study, whichever occurs later, or until such time as the child is otherwise emancipated prior to the age of eighteen (18).

21. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-212(3), a parent may, at any time, petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A substantial change in circumstances may include material changes in custody; material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; material changes in the medical needs of the child; or material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

22. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-212(5), if a child support order has not been modified within the previous three years, a parent may move the court to adjust the amount of child support, and the court may determine if there is a difference in the ordered support and the support amount that would be required under the child support guidelines as outlined in this Utah Code Section, and without showing a substantial change in circumstances.

HEALTHCARE COVERAGE & MEDICAL COSTS

23. The parties shall follow the Standard Utah Code regarding Health Insurance Premiums, Medical Expenses, Dental Expenses, Vision Expenses, and etc., where each party shall pay one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the costs associated with these expenses incurred for the minor child.

24. Both parties shall be responsible to provide healthcare coverage for the minor child, where the party who is able to obtain healthcare coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain the coverage and should provide the other party with executed claim forms, medical cards, insurance information, and other assistance necessary to ensure the prompt payment of the insured portions of such claim. The parties shall equally divide the cost of the minor child's premiums.

25. The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses incurred for the minor child, and all reasonable and necessary dental expenses incurred for the minor child.

26. A parent who incurs a reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expense or dental expense for the minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expense to the other parent within thirty days of payment. The other parent shall pay his/her one half (½) of the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the written verification.

27. Notice to Medical Expense Creditors: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §§ 15-4-6.7, 30-2-5, and 30-3-5(1)(c), when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208 or an administrative order under § 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, each party should:

- a. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child.
- b. Notify the particular creditor of that parties' current address.
- c. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under § 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14 Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

MARITAL ASSETS & DEBTS

- 28. The parties do not have any marital assets, and there are no assets to divide.
- 29. The parties have no real property to divide.
- 30. The parties do not share any joint or marital debts.
- 31. Any individual debts or obligations should be the responsibility of the party who incurred such debt or obligation.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

- 32. The parties have no marital or joint financial accounts, retirement accounts, or investment accounts.
- 33. Each party shall be awarded any financial account titled in their individual names, including retirement accounts if any exist.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

- 34. Any personal property shall be awarded to the party who currently has possession of the item.
- 35. The parties shall be awarded any vehicle that is titled in their individual name along with any debt attached to that vehicle.

ALIMONY

- 36. No alimony shall be awarded.

TAXES

- 37. The parties shall equally divide claiming the minor child on their tax returns with Jessie claiming the minor child on odd years and Tegan claiming the minor child on even years.

ATTORNEY FEES

38. Each party shall pay their own attorney's costs and fees incurred in this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

39. The parties shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

40. The parties shall refrain from disparaging, derogatory, abusive, and/or threatening language to each other in any form, including but not limited to, in person, text, email, and written communication, etc.
