Counsel for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – STATE OF UTAH IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY – PROVO DEPARTMENT
[137 N Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601]

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE AND PARENTING PLAN
KORTNIE LYNN STUBBS,	Case No.: 244400234
and	Judge: SHAWN R HOWELL
DYLAN CHRISTIAN STUBBS.	Commissioner: MARIAN ITO

This matter came before the Court on Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce, Acceptance of Service, and Default Certificate. Respondent having failed to appear, default has been entered. The Court having reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and the record, finds that the following provisions are in the best interest of the minor child and hereby adopts them as Court ORDERS:

- 1) Dissolution of Marriage. Marriage between the parties is dissolved on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
- 2) Custody. Petitioner is awarded sole legal and sole physical custody of the minor children.
- 3) Parent-Time. The children shall live with the Petitioner and shall have parent-time with the Respondent according to a custom parent-time schedule, including holidays, as set forth in the Verified Petition of Divorce. The Respondent shall have supervised parent-time at reasonable times and places. Parent-time shall be left up to the parents to decide when it shall be if all parties are available to participate in parent-time. The Respondent's parent-time shall be supervised.

4) Parent-Time for Special Occasions: The parents shall follow the schedule for special occasions as outlined in the following table. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children shall remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school (Utah Code § 30-3-35, 35.1).

Other Civic or School Holiday (Custom)	Parent-Time shall be decided between parents. Respondent shall be supervised during his parent-time.
Other Special Occasion (Custom)	Parent-Time shall be decided between parents. Respondent shall be supervised during his parent-time.

5) Parent-Time Transfers and Exchanges. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time shall be as described below: No arrangements can be made at this time for who shall pick up, deliver and return the children for parent-time.

6) Education Plan. The school the children shall attend is based on Petitioner's home residence. The Petitioner has authority to check the children out of school. The Petitioner has access to the children during school.

7) Communication with the Children.

- a) The parents agree they shall:
 - i) Provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
 - ii) Give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents shall not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.
- b) Parents and children shall communicate with each other whenever the children choose.
 - i) By any method.

8) Records and Information Sharing. Both parents shall have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, childcare, and health care.

9) Travel by the Children. During their parent-time, the parents shall consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others. If the children shall be traveling for more than one (1) day, the parent arranging the travel shall notify the other parent at least one (1) day in advance. That parent shall give the other parent the travel schedule, locations, and phone numbers at least one (1) day in advance. In case of emergency, the parent shall provide as much notice as possible.

10) Relocation of a parent (Utah Code § 30-3-37) Other terms about relocating: Petitioner shall be allowed to relocate at any time. The Petitioner shall notify the Respondent that she is relocating by phone call, email, text, through attorneys, or any means to notify him of the move. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time shall be shared equally. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they shall be responsible for the child's related travel expenses. Reimbursement of the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

11) Child Support. The Respondent shall be ordered to pay child support to the Petitioner in the amount of $30.00 per month base child support while incarcerated. Upon release from incarceration, the Respondent shall pay child support starting the 5th of each month. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a) A child turns eighteen (18) or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- b) A child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States Armed Forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code § 78A-6-801).
- c) Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children shall be recalculated using the child support worksheet. The parties shall not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

12) Sole Custody Worksheet. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support. If physical custody of a child changes from what the court orders:

- a) The parent owing support must pay the support amount to whomever has physical custody of the child.
- b) The parent must pay the support amount without asking the court to modify the child support order.
- c) This does not apply to temporary parent-time changes (Utah Code § 78B-12-108).

13) Child Support Reduction for Extended Parent-Time. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- a) Twenty-five (25) of any Thirty (30) consecutive days, base child support shall be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time.
- b) Twelve (12) of any Thirty (30) consecutive days, base child support shall be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time.
- c) The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

14) Cash Assistance. If a child receives cash assistance through the TANF or FEP programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

15) Mandatory Income Withholding. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding. If support is past due, the State of Utah shall take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support order.

- a) Withheld income shall be sent to the Office of Recovery (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments shall be sent to:
- b) Office of Recovery Services
- c) PO Box 45011
- d) Salt Lake City, UT 84145-0011
- e) Unless ORS gives notice that payments shall be sent elsewhere. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and shall be past due on the first day of the next month.

16) ORS Fees. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and shall be past due on the first day of the next month. The Respondent shall pay any ORS fees. If the Petitioner is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to the Petitioner, the Respondent shall reimburse the Petitioner.

17) Past-Due Child Support. The issue of past-due child support shall be decided by future court or administrative action.

18) Change in Income. The parties must notify each other within thirty (30) days of any change in their income.

19) Modification of Child Support. The parties may ask to change this child support order by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if:

- a) There is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines,
- b) The difference is not temporary, and
- c) The amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the Utah Child Support Guidelines.
- d) If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment to child support is sought, ORS shall review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate.

20) Substantial Change in Income. The parties may ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of marital changes in:

- a) Custody;
- b) The relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- c) Income of a parent of 30% or more;
- d) The employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- e) The medical needs of the child; or
- f) The legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.
- g) The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines. The difference shall not be temporary.

21) Natural or Adoptive Children Born After the Entry of the Decree. The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law.

22) Dependent Children for Tax Purposes. The Petitioner shall claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

23) Child Health Care. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. The parent who is able to obtain the most affordable medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost, then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a) If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage shall be as follows:

i) The Respondent's insurance shall be the primary coverage.

ii) The Petitioner's insurance shall be secondary coverage.

b) If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage shall be as follows:

- i) The Respondent's spouse's insurance shall be primary coverage.
- ii) The Petitioner's insurance shall be secondary coverage.
- c) Both parties shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- d) Both parties shall equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e) The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- f) If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they shall not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- g) On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

24) Public Assistance Statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS). The Petitioner has received or is receiving public benefits from a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP, General Assistance, or other similar means-tested welfare benefits. This income does not count for child support purposes.

25) Personal Property. All personal property not addressed in the divorce shall be divided as the parties have already divided it.

26) Other Personal Property. The Petitioner shall maintain possession of everything in her possession until the Respondent is released from incarceration. At which point, they shall sort through all possessions and mutually agree on who gets what possession.

27) Vehicles. The following vehicles shall be divided as indicated:

- a) The Respondent shall receive the following vehicles:
 - i) Make: Dodge, Model: Ram 1500, Year: 2013, VIN Unknown. Estimated current value:
 - (1) $8,000.00. Owner (before divorce): Dylan Christian Stubbs

 - (5) Monthly Payment: 380.00
 - (6) The Respondent shall pay the entire debt.
 - (7) Person to provide creditor divorce decree: Petitioner.

28) Financial Accounts. Bank and credit union accounts shall be divided as follows:

- a) Account number: 1973
- b) Name of Institution: Mountain America Credit Union
- c) Names on Account: Kortnie Lynn Stubbs, Dylan Christian Stubbs
- d) Divide as follows: Do not divide.
- e) Account number 7596

f) Name of Institution: Mountain America Credit Union

g) Names on Account: Kortnie Lynn Stubbs

h) Divide as follows: Do not divide.

29) Debts. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

30) Real Property. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

31) Alimony. Neither party shall pay alimony.

32) Retirement Income. The parties do not need a court order about retirement income.

33) Enforcement. This Decree shall be enforced by all remedies available under Utah law, including contempt proceedings. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Decree.

34) Modification. Custody, parent-time, and support provisions shall be modified only upon proper petition and in accordance with Utah law.

35) Duty to Sign Documents. The parties shall sign all documents necessary to effectuate this Decree within 60 days.

36) Name Restoration. The Petitioner changed her name when the parties married. Petitioner shall be Kortnie Lynn LeFevre-Stubbs after the divorce.

37) Final Order. This Decree is a final judgment resolving all issues between the parties. Any relief not expressly granted is denied.
