Attorney for Joseph Richardson

IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: COURTNEY RICHARDSON, Petitioner, and JOSEPH RICHARDSON, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264401532 Judge: Anthony Howell Commissioner: Marian Ito

The above-entitled matter came before the court on the Petitioner's Petition for Divorce, the parties' Stipulation, and Petitioner's Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds. The Court, having entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders that the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved. The Court ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES:

Minor Children

1. The parties have 3 minor children born as issue of their marriage, to wit:
 - a. E.K.R., born May 2013;

Decree of Divorce

b. C.A.R., born Feb 2017; and

c. A.T.R., born June 2019.

Child Custody Jurisdiction

2. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-4-405, Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children and Utah has jurisdiction to make an initial custody determination because the children have lived in Utah with a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

3. Neither party is receiving any public assistance for the benefit of the dependent children.

Rule 100 Notice

4. There are no proceedings for custody, child support, or parent-time; a protective order; or a criminal or delinquency case in regard to the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court of this or any other state.

5. There is no other person who has physical custody of the children or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of or parent time with the children except for the parties in this matter.

6. There is no other pending proceeding that could affect this matter, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions.

7. Physical Custody: The parties have historically shared in the day-to-day responsibility and care for the minor children. Therefore, it is in the best interests of the parties' minor children that they be awarded joint physical custody.

8. Legal Custody: It is in the best interests of the minor children that the parties share joint legal custody. A parenting plan is included herein.

PARENTING PLAN

9. Legal Custody: The parties shall exercise joint legal custody of the minor children as outlined below.

10. Parent-Time: Parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, then parent-time shall be shared on a 50/50 basis. The parties agree that the statutory requirements of Utah Code §81-9-305 have been met to support the equal parent-time schedule. Regular parent-time shall be on a rotated on a week-on/week-off basis. This weekly rotating schedule shall continue through the end of September 2026. If the parties agree to continue under that arrangement, they shall do so. If not, the parties shall revert back to a 2-2-5-5 rotation. This two-week rotating schedule is consistent with what they exercised during separation and is represented visually as follows:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Wk1	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom
Wk2	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad

11. Holidays and Summer Parent-Time: The holiday and summer parent-time visitation shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, then holiday parent-time shall be consistent with Utah Code §81-9-302 with Joseph being designated as the custodial parent for the purpose of determining holiday and summer parent-time.

12. Each year, a parent may designate two consecutive weeks to exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session. Each parent shall provide notice of their plans to exercise extended parent time pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305 as follows:

- a. Odd Years: Noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by any time before May 1; and the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent after May 1.
- b. Even Years: Custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent any time before May 1; and the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent after May 1.
- c. A parent shall make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which the designated two-week period begins.
- d. The two consecutive weeks shall not include any holidays assigned to the other parent, unless both parents agree in writing to the change.

14. Transportation: Wherever possible, parent-time exchanges shall occur through the children's school/daycare, wherein the parent ending their parent-time timely drops the children off at school/daycare at the school/daycare start time and the parent beginning their parent-time picks the children up from school/daycare. In all other instances, the parent beginning his or her parent-time shall be responsible for transportation, and the exchanges shall occur at 9:00 AM. The parties shall be mindful of the importance of promptness when parent-time exchanges occur outside of the children's school/daycare. If either party is unavailable to personally transport the children for a parent-time exchange, they may designate an appropriate and responsible person to provide said transportation. If a third party is providing transportation for the children, the parent who elected that individual shall immediately provide the other parent with that third party's name and contact information.

15. Right of First Refusal: Pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202, parental care is presumed to be better for the children than surrogate care. Therefore, if either party is available when the other parent is not available to personally care for the child during their parent-time for a period of more than eight (8) hours, including overnight, they shall have the right of first refusal. A parent exercising the right of first refusal shall be solely responsible for picking the children up and dropping them back off. Parental care shall be given precedence over surrogate care.

16. Out-of-State Travel: If either party wishes to take the minor children outside the State of Utah, they shall, if possible, inform the other party 7 days in advance, or when the travel plans are made. If the notification of travel plans is less than 7 days in advance of the actual travel, the other party must agree in writing that the children may go. Additionally, they shall provide the travel itinerary (Mode of transportation, dates and location of travel). Both parties shall cooperate in obtaining a passport and signing any necessary documentation for the minor children if required for travel.

17. Education Plan: The children shall remain in their current school and feeder school, if possible. If the children are no longer able to remain in their current school and feeder school, The parties shall follow the Legal Custody provision below to make education decisions for the children if the parents cannot agree. Both parents shall have access to the children during school. Both parents have authority to check the children out of school.

18. Education Expenses: In addition to any children support obligation, both parties shall be equally responsible for all of the children's educational related expenses that are agreed to in writing, unless required by the school those expenses are mandatory. Said expenses include, but are not limited to, enrollment fees, school clothing, school supplies, any tutoring related expenses, field trip expenses, school lunches, and any school related activities.

19. Communication/Exchange of Information: The children shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. The parties shall communicate through Our Family Wizard unless there is an emergency with the children and then however best to reach the party shall be used. The parties shall use OFW for calendaring, exchanging of expenses and discussing all matters even those not regarding the children specifically. The communications shall be reasonable and be businesslike and brief. The parties shall give a reasonable time to respond to the messages, but shall give responses in a reasonable amount of time. Each party has an affirmative duty to make sure that both parties names are on all enrollment and that the parties sign up for all apps, portals etc. regarding the children's activity.

20. Maintaining Contact: Regardless which parent the children are with at any given time, each parent shall make an effort to have the children contact the other parent as desired by the children.

21. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate more than 25 miles from the other party, the parties shall follow the process outlined in Section §81-9-209 of the Utah Code.

22. Extracurricular Activities and Sports: The parties shall encourage and support the children's participation in extracurricular activities and sports. The parties shall enroll the children in a reasonable number of activities and shall not purposefully try to supplant parent time with activities. The parties shall attempt to allow participation in activities in which the children express a desire to participate. The parties shall facilitate participation in scheduled extracurricular activities or else forfeit parent time during the activities if the other parent is able to facilitate participation. The parties shall equally share the cost of any activities or equipment costs that are incurred for an activity in which the children are currently enrolled and any future activity that is agreed to in writing by both parties.

23. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties shall refrain from communicating with or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms in front of the minor children and shall remove the children should be third parties discussing the other parent in a negative manner.

24. Restraints Regarding Firearms: The parties shall ensure that the children are not allowed access to firearms without appropriate supervision. The parties shall ensure that all firearms in the parties' residences are secured in a safe and not accessible to any children.

25. Special Considerations:

- a. Both parents shall have access directly to all school reports including school reports and medical records.
- b. Both parents shall be listed as “emergency contacts” for medical emergencies with any school, daycare, or any other such providers.
- c. Both parents shall be allowed to access the children at school and shall be able to check the children out of school for any appropriate reason.
- d. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 48 hours of any change.
- e. Each parent shall make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children while the children are with that parent.
- f. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the children have. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the children, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental, or mental health professionals.
- g. Neither party shall enroll the children in services such as counseling without first notifying the other parent of the need for such a service and involving the other parent in choosing the professional who will see the children. If a party makes the first contact with such a professional, they shall provide that person with the name, address, and telephone number of the other parent.
- h. In the event of a medical emergency, each party shall make every effort to contact and consult with the other party but shall be entitled to make necessary decisions until both parties are available. Such efforts shall include every means at the party's disposal, including calls to work, home, and cell phone, as well as leaving messages at all such numbers, and at the homes of relatives in order to make sure the other parent knows about the medical emergency.

i. Both parties shall refrain from involving the children in "divorce issues." Such issues include, but are not limited to, parent time disagreements; discussions about children support or financial hardships brought about by the divorce; differences of opinion on how money is spent; discussions about court and legal matters; contents of legal papers; seeking information regarding what occurs in one another's homes (other than general conversation); and involving the children as "messengers" between the parties.

j. Both parties shall refrain from using illegal or un-prescribed drugs and from becoming intoxicated while the children are in his or her care.

k. The parties shall not smoke in the presence of the children or allow others to do so. The parties shall not smoke at all in any vehicle in which the children ride.

26. Joint Legal Custody: The parties shall discuss beforehand in a civil and business-like manner all important matters regarding the health, education, and general welfare of the children, and each parent shall give due consideration to the other party's point of view. Such important matters include, but are not limited to surgeries or other medical or dental procedures; where the children will attend school; any special education programs the children may enroll or participate in; what extracurricular activities the children will participate in, and to what extent, especially where those extracurricular activities may interfere with a parent's parent time; any tattoos, piercings, or major changes to the children's appearance; giving the children permission to marry or join the armed forces before age 18; etc.

27. If after due deliberation and discussion the parties are unable to reach an agreement, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution plan below.

28. Resolving Disputes: When disputes occur, the parties shall attempt to resolve those disputes before resorting to any other process, including litigation, and shall first meet with experts in the areas of disagreement, as necessary. If they still cannot reach a decision, they shall attend mediation before either party seeks judicial intervention. The significantly prevailing party shall be awarded his or her attorney fees and costs, excluding the costs of mediation.

29. Violation of Parenting Plan: If either parent fails to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan, or a provision is found to be invalid, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan or final Decree of Divorce shall not be affected. A parent may seek sanctions against a non-complying parent and be awarded attorneys fees if the matter is taken to court

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Child Support

30. Child Support: Joseph is employed full-time and earns a gross monthly income of $15,416 for purposes of calculating child support. Courtney is employed full-time and earns a gross monthly income of $4,702 for purposes of calculating child support.

31. The joint custody worksheet shall be used to calculate child support, awarding Courtney 183 overnights and Joseph 182 overnights. In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-203 and the joint custody worksheet, Joseph shall be ordered to pay child support to Courtney for the parties' children in the amount of $858 per month commencing August 1, 2026.

Decree of Divorce

In the Matter of the Marriage of Courtney Richardson and Joseph Richardson

32. The support of the minor children shall continue until said children become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

33. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support, unless otherwise provided in the order. The income used for the purpose of adjusting child support shall be the income of the parties at the time of the entry of the original order unless modified by subsequent order of the court.

34. All monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the final Decree shall be due on the first day of each month.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

35. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Joseph or Courtney shall maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. Joseph is currently providing the health insurance coverage and shall continue to do so unless the parties agree or there is a substantial change in his plan costs. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Joseph's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and Courtney's shall be considered secondary.

b. Joseph and Courtney shall be equally responsible to pay the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid for the children's medical and dental insurance on his policy. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. If insurance is covered by both parties, they shall each pay their own costs.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

36. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

TAX EXEMPTION

37. Joseph shall claim C.A.R. every year. Courtney shall claim A.T.R. every year. The parties shall rotate claiming E.K.R. with Joseph claiming in even years and Courtney claiming in odd years. When there is only one child then the parties shall rotate claiming A.T.R. with Courtney claiming him the first year.

38. For Joseph to claim a minor child, he must be current on all his child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

39. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain debts and obligations. Each party shall assume and pay the debts and hold the other harmless from liability. The parties shall continue to pay their separate debts and close any accounts in both names, or put them solely into their own names. Neither party shall incur any additional debt in the other parties name.

40. Each party shall assume and pay their own individual debts and hold harmless the other party from liability on all debts and obligations (i.e. credit cards, student loans, utility bills) incurred by that party after separation.

41. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-406(4), the parties shall notify respective creditors or obliges regarding the division of debts, obligations, and/or liabilities herein, and the parties' separate and current addresses.

42. The HELOC shall be paid off when the marital home is sold.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

43. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties acquired certain items of personal property which shall be divided as follows. Within 7 days of their stipulation the parties shall jointly prepare a list of personal property and shall take turns picking items of personal property until the list is exhausted. The parties shall flip a coin to determine who picks an item of property first. The parties shall cooperate in allowing access to the personal property for retrieval within 30 days of their stipulation. The parties shall receive their own separate personal property, i.e. personal documents, clothing etc. and any items that they received as inheritance. Courtney shall receive the Kia and Joseph shall receive the Toyota. The parties shall each be responsible for procuring their own car insurance within 14 days after the signing of the stipulation and all expenses with the vehicle.

44. Accounts: The parties shall receive their separate bank accounts and shall continue maintaining the joint bank account until the HELOC has been paid in full.

45. Businesses: During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in a business entity known as Enchanted Travels, LLC; and Impala Corporation, LLC. Courtney shall receive all interest in Enchanted Travels, LLC.

46. Courtney shall be awarded all right, title and interest in said business entity, including any inventory, assets, or receivables associated with Enchanted Travels, LLC, subject to Joseph OR Courtney being responsible for and holding Joseph OR Courtney harmless from any payables, encumbrances or other obligations associated with said business.

47. The parties' interest in Impala Corporation, LLC, and the resulting revenues split equally. The parties shall work towards selling their interest in this company which consists of one rental and if necessary winding up of the LLC.

RETIREMENT ASSETS

48. During the course of the marriage, Joseph acquired a 401(k)s, The retirement assets accrued during the marriage and to the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter shall be divided equally between the parties, one-half to each. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order or Domestic Relations Order shall be issued as needed. The parties shall use a mutually agreed upon attorney to draft the QDRO and equally share in the costs. Both parties shall timely submit and sign all documentation and payment.

REAL PROPERTY

49. During the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in multiple real properties, commonly known as follows:

- a. 1526 East Pheasant Run Drive, Springville, Utah 84663 (“Springville” Home);
- b. 6196 West 9740 North, Highland, Utah 84003 (“Highland” Home); and
- c. 123 East Impala Place, Casa Grande, Arizona 85112 (“Arizona” Home) owned through Impala Corporation, LLC.

50. All of these properties shall immediately be sold at market value. The parties shall retain a realtor for each property. Courtney shall select the realtor to sell the Highland home, and Joseph shall select the realtor to sell the Springville home. The realtors shall be retained within 14 days of the parties’ stipulation, and the parties shall follow the recommendations of the respective realtors in selling each house. The parties shall follow any recommendations of the realtor is staging and setting the price for the home. Any bona fide offer to purchase a listed home that is within 2% of listing price shall be conclusively deemed acceptable.

51. The parties shall immediately contact the other joint owners of the real property located at 123 East Impala Place, Casa Grande, Arizona 85112 (“Arizona” Home) owned through Impala Corporation, LLC, and cooperate with them in selling their interest in the same for market value. This property is owned by the entity owned 50% by the parties. Should any dispute arise as to the value of the parties’ interest, an appraisal shall be done (at mutual expense of the parties), and the appraised value less the mortgage on the property, divided by 2 shall be deemed to be the market value belonging to the parties.

52. The parties shall equally share all costs and expenses with the property, with the exception that Joseph shall be responsible for the payment and monthly expenses of the Springville home as he is using it as his primary residence. In the case of any repairs, they must be mutually agreed on over $250.00 and recommended by the realtor. Should either party pay expenses that have not been recouped prior to the sell, the parties shall receive their expenses at the time of closing and directly from escrow. Should there be any disputes about these issues, the funds in questions shall be held in escrow until the parties can reach an agreement or the court can make a decision.

ALIMONY

53. Alimony: Courtney has the need for alimony and Joseph has the ability to pay it. As such, Joseph shall pay Courtney alimony in the amount of $1,140 per month for 9 nine years commencing August 1, 2026. It is expected that both parties incomes may increase. Neither party may seek a modification of alimony based on this factor. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-4-505, alimony shall terminate earlier upon the remarriage or death of Courtney, or upon Courtney cohabitating with another person, or at nine years from commencement, whichever comes first.

MISCELLANEOUS

54. Restoration of Maiden Name: Courtney's name shall be restored to her Maiden Name (Johnson), if she so chooses.

MUTUAL RESTRAINTS 1

55. General Restraints. Each party is restrained and prohibited from harassing, making demeaning statements about, or in any other way bothering the other party either at work or at home, through third parties, and in no case, making any damaging and or defaming statements about the other party in public writing. Each party is restrained from harassing or bothering the other either at home, work or at any other location by any means or through any person whatsoever.

56. Likeness, Image, Credit. Both Parties shall be restrained from using the likeness, image, or credit of the other Party for any purpose. Should either party have any images of the other party where they are disrobed or naked, or portrayed in a manner that would be embarrassing it should be destroyed and or returned to the other party. At no point should it be disseminated to the internet or to any other hard drives or locations. Should any of these pictures already be posted they shall be immediately removed.

57. Electronic Access. The Parties hereby revoke all access to any individual electronic accounts or passwords that they may have given during the marriage. Neither Party shall use any passwords that they may know to look at e-mails, or account balances or any other information of the other parties at any time after the signing of the stipulation. The parties shall also return any keys or garage door openers or abilities to access any items of the other party. Neither party shall track or monitor the other party.

58. Social Media: Neither party shall make negative statements online or in other public forums about the other person in a direct or in-direct fashion. Courtney shall be awarded the joint Facebook account that she is uses for personal and business purposes. Joseph shall not access this account any longer nor attempt to change the password or interfere with the account.

Courtney can use the account for any purpose she deems necessary and or appropriate, but that does not negatively effect Joseph from a self-image perspective.

59. Family Photographs: The parties shall work together to make sure that all family photos and documents are equally shared and copies are given to both parties. The only exception is if there are photos of an intimate nature. Those shall be awarded to the person who they are depicting.

60. Delivery of Documents and Duty to Sign Documents: Each party shall be ordered to promptly execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.

61. Interpretation/Applicability: This document shall be governed by Utah law in all respects. Any references to Utah statute herein shall mean the Utah Code in effect as of the date of entry of the final order.

62. Severability: If a provision of the order resulting from this complaint is or becomes illegal, unenforceable, or invalid in any jurisdiction, it shall not affect: (1) the enforceability or validity in that jurisdiction of any other provision of the order, or (2) the enforceability or validity in other jurisdictions of that or any other provision of the order.
