IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
VAL HARWARD,	Case No. 264402427
Petitioner,	Judge Kraig Powell
and	Commissioner Marian Ito
MARGENE HARWARD,
Respondent.

This matter comes before the Court pursuant to the Stipulation of the parties resolving all issues pending before the Court. The parties have filed all of the appropriate and necessary pleadings. The Court received the Stipulation, reviewed the file, and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now ORDERS:

1. Decree of Divorce. The Court awards a Decree of Divorce dissolving the bonds of marriage existing between them.
2. Premarital Agreement. The parties executed a valid and enforceable Premarital Agreement prior to their marriage. Except as expressly provided herein, the Premarital Agreement remains in full force and effect and shall govern the division of the parties' assets and liabilities.

3. Real Property. The residence presently occupied by Val Harward was acquired by Val Harward prior to the marriage and constitutes Val Harward's separate property pursuant to the Premarital Agreement. Val Harward shall be awarded all rights, title, and interest in the residence, free and clear of any claim by Margene Harward. Margene Harward waives any claim to the residence. Val Harward and Margene Harward acquired no marital real property during their marriage.

4. Personal Property. Except as otherwise provided in the Premarital Agreement, each party shall retain all personal property presently in his or her possession. To the extent any jointly owned personal property exists, it has been divided to the parties' mutual satisfaction and neither party shall have any further claim against the other.

5. Retirement Accounts. Pursuant to the Premarital Agreement, each party shall retain all retirement accounts, pensions, retirement benefits, investment accounts, and other retirement assets titled in his or her individual name, free and clear of any claim by the other.

6. Debts. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his or her individual name and shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from those obligations. The Court shall find that the parties represent that there are no jointly incurred marital debts requiring allocation by the Court.

7. Financial Settlement Val shall pay Margene $12,000.00 on December 30, 2026. When the payment is made to Margene it will constitute a complete and final settlement of any and all financial claims arising out of the marriage or that either party may have against the other.

Remaining balances in joint accounts, if any, shall be awarded to Val. Upon the signing of this agreement and the completion of the $12,000.00 settlement payment to Margene, all financial obligations between them are fully satisfied, and neither party shall have any further claim against the other for the division of marital or separate property, reimbursement, equalization, or any other financial matter arising from the marriage, except as expressly provided in this Agreement or the Premarital Agreement. As Trustee and individually, Val Harward shall pay $12,000.00 to Margene Harward on December 30, 2026 contingent upon a final decree of divorce is entered. This obligation is enforceable against Val's assigns, estate, and heirs. If there is not a final Decree entered before December 30, 2026, Val shall pay Margene the $12,000.00 within three days of the entry of a decree of divorce. Upon receiving payment Margene will remove her name from all joint accounts she holds with Val by 5:00 p.m. on January 4, 2027.

8. Waiver of Alimony. The marriage was of short and neither party shall pay alimony to the other now or in the future. Each party expressly waives any claim for temporary or permanent alimony.

9. Auto Insurance. Margene shall obtain her own separate auto insurance policy on or before October 2, 2026, and will no longer remain on Val's auto insurance policy.

10. Attorney Fees and Costs. Provided this matter remains uncontested, each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees and costs incurred in connection with this action.

11. Mutual Release. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his or her individual name and shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from those obligations. Except for the obligations specifically set forth in this Agreement, each party releases and forever discharges the other from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, and obligations arising out of or relating to the marital relationship.
