Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:

JASON WHITE,

Petitioner,

and

LINDSEY WHITE, fka LINDSEY
CHRISTIENSEN,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 264402354
Judge: Sean Petersen
Commissioner: Marian Ito

This matter came before the Court upon the Petition for Divorce filed by Jason White ("Jason"), the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement executed by Jason and Lindsey White, fka Lindsey Christiansen ("Lindsey"), and the Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds submitted by Jason. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and good cause appearing, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

- 1. Decree of Divorce. Jason is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Lindsey on the ground of irreconcilable differences, dissolving the marriage of the parties. This Decree becomes absolute on the date it is signed by the Court and entered by the clerk in the register of actions.
- 2. Prenuptial Agreement. The prenuptial agreement executed by the parties on August 16, 2024, is valid and enforceable and governs the parties' respective property rights except as otherwise expressly provided in this Decree.

3. Children. No children were born to or adopted by the parties during the marriage, Lindsey is not pregnant, and none are expected. No provisions for custody, parent-time, or child support are made or required.

4. Marital Personal Property. The parties have divided, or shall divide, their marital personal property and marital assets — including household goods, furnishings, personal effects, and any vehicles — as set forth in Exhibit 1 to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference. Each party is awarded the property allocated to him or her therein, free and clear of any claim by the other.

5. Separate Property. Each party is awarded all of his or her separate property, including, but not limited to, the separate property identified in the prenuptial agreement, free and clear of any claim by the other.

6. Financial Accounts and Retirement. Except as set forth in Exhibit 1 to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, each party is awarded the bank accounts, savings, investment accounts, and retirement or pension benefits held in his or her own name or under his or her own control, free and clear of any claim by the other.

7. Property Settlement. As an equitable property settlement, Jason shall pay Lindsey the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) in a single lump-sum payment, due upon execution of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement by both parties. This payment fully satisfies any and all claims Lindsey has to marital property, if any, acquired during the marriage.

8. Cellular Telephone Plan. Jason shall maintain Lindsey as a line on his Verizon cellular telephone plan until the balance owing on Lindsey's cellular telephone device is paid in full, which the parties anticipate will occur in approximately twelve (12) months. Once the device balance is paid in full, Lindsey shall be solely responsible for obtaining and paying for her own cellular telephone service.

9. Real Property. There is no marital real property to be divided.

10. Debts. Each party is responsible for the debts and obligations incurred in his or her own name, and each shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any liability thereon. Each party shall notify his or her respective creditors and obligees of the division of debts, obligations, and liabilities set forth in this Decree, and of the parties' separate and current addresses, in accordance with Utah Code § 15-4-6.5. This provision is enforceable by any remedy available to the Court, including an order to show cause, a judgment for amounts paid by the non-obligated party, and an award of attorney fees and costs incurred in enforcement.

11. Alimony. Neither party is awarded alimony or spousal support. Each party has knowingly and voluntarily waived any claim to alimony or spousal support from the other, and each party is forever barred from asserting any such claim against the other now or in the future.

12. Name Restoration. Lindsey's former name, Lindsey Christiansen, is restored to her.

13. Mutual Non-Disparagement. Neither party shall knowingly make, publish, or communicate to any third party any false statement of fact concerning the other party, or any disparaging, derogatory, or demeaning statement concerning the other party's character, personal life, family, business affairs, or professional reputation, whether verbally, in writing, electronically, through social media, or by any other means. This provision applies whether the other party is identified by name, initials, image, likeness, nickname, veiled or indirect reference, or any other means by which the other party could reasonably be identified. Neither party shall direct or encourage another person to engage in conduct prohibited by this provision. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits either party from giving truthful testimony in any legal proceeding or in response to lawful process, communicating candidly with his or her own attorney, accountant, therapist, physician, or member of the clergy, or reporting suspected criminal conduct to law enforcement.

14. No Other Claims or Liabilities. Except for the obligations expressly created by the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement and this Decree, there are no other claims, debts, or liabilities between the parties. Each party releases and forever discharges the other from any and all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, arising out of the marriage or otherwise existing as of the date of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.

15. Attorney Fees and Costs. Each party is responsible for his or her own attorney fees and costs incurred in this action.

16. Document Delivery. Each party shall execute and deliver any documents reasonably necessary to effectuate the terms of this Decree within fourteen (14) days of written request by the other party. If a party fails to do so, this Decree shall operate as a conveyance or transfer of the interest awarded, and the Court may appoint the clerk of the court or another person to execute the document on the non-complying party's behalf.
