3. This court has jurisdiction over the minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-201, et seq.
4. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-11-205, Petitioner is unaware of any other proceedings regarding custody of the child.
5. Pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code § 81-11-101, et seq., and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code § 81-8-101 et seq., Petitioner is unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to the minor child.

GROUNDS

6. The parties were involved in an intimate relationship which resulted in, or will result in, the birth of the minor child.
7. The minor child's birth certificate does not yet exist, but is presumed that no other individuals are listed as the father of the minor child.
8. Respondent was not married to another individual at the time of the minor child's birth.

MANDATORY PARENTING COURSE

9. Petitioner and Respondent are required by law to attend the "Mandatory Parenting Course", unless waived by the Court under Utah Code Ann 30-3-11.3, 78B-15-610, and Code of Judicial Administration Rule 4-907. Notice of Mandatory Parenting Course attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

CHILD

10. There has been, or will be, one child born to the parties: the child does not yet have a name.
11. No other children are expected.

PARENTAGE

12. Genetic testing shall be ordered to officially establish Petitioner as the father of the minor child, and all parties shall be ordered to participate and make the minor child available for such testing.

15. If the Respondent has suitable living arrangements, then the parties are fit and proper parents to be awarded the joint physical care, custody and control of the minor child.

However, in the event such relocation is within the State of Utah, or is less than 150 miles, the parties shall each provide the other party forty-eight (48) hours notice prior to the relocation.

SUPPORT PAYMENTS

8. Based upon the parties' respective gross monthly incomes, and the Uniform Child Support Worksheet, Petitioner shall pay to Respondent child support in the amount of $354.00 per month, effective October 1, 2026 and continuing each month thereafter until a child attains the age of eighteen (18) years and graduates from high school with his or her regular class, if later, or otherwise becomes emancipated, at which time child support shall be re-computed given the remaining number of minor children.

9. The Petitioner shall be given a right of first refusal to provide the employment or occupational related child care for the minor child in lieu of any third-party child care provider.
10. The parties shall equally share all expenses for extracurricular activities for the minor child so long as the activity is agreed upon by each party in writing.
11. The child support order shall require that each party share equally all reasonable work-related, or occupational related, child care expenses as incurred by either party.
12. If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a party shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that party may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.
13. A party who incurs a child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other party upon initial engagement of the provider and thereafter as requested by the other party. The party shall notify the other party of any change of child care provider or change in the monthly expense of child care within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the change.

HEALTH INSURANCE

14. The parties shall be ordered to obtain health and medical insurance for their minor child through their place(s) of employment, if it becomes available and at a reasonable cost.

15. Each party shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the premium paid for the child's portion of the insurance. This is to be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy, and multiplying the result by the number of one child.

16. Each party is to pay for one-half (1/2) of any deductible of non-covered amounts for such essential medical or dental services or prescriptions related thereto that are not paid by the insurance provider.

17. A party who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment. The other party is ordered to make their portion of those payments or make arrangement to do so within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the documentation supporting required participation.

18. Neither party shall contract for or incur any obligation for orthodontia work or elective surgery for the child, or any type of psychological counseling or evaluation for a child, anticipating co-payment from the other party without the prior agreement or consent of that party in writing. The parties shall each participate in the selection of doctors and procedures for any and all orthodontia, surgery procedures, or psychological counseling, for which he/she is expected to contribute. If such debts are incurred without said consultation, and written consent, then the party who incurred the expenses shall have the prima facie obligation to pay any non-covered expenses.

19. If an agreement cannot be reached, then before any (other than emergency) medical, orthodontic or psychological counseling be done as a co-obligation, the matter shall be brought back before the Court. If a party is found to have been unreasonable and frivolously created the need for the hearing, that party will be ordered to pay court costs and attorney's fees. For procedures not covered by the insurance but reasonably within the parties' ability to pay and necessary to the welfare of the child, such as orthodontia or mental health evaluation, each party will normally be required to pay one-half (1/2) of the costs associated with such treatments or procedures.
