Attorney for Petitioner Stacie Hayes

IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: STACIE CHERYL HAYES, and JOHN STEPHEN HAYES.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264402195 Judge: Derek Pullan Commissioner: Marian Ito

This matter comes before the above-referenced court on Petitioner Stacie Hayes' Verified Petition for Divorce. Having reviewed the pleadings, including Respondent John Stephen Hayes' default, the Court finds good cause to enter the following Decree of Divorce and hereby orders as follows:

JURISDICTION, VENUE AND GROUNDS

1. Jurisdiction. Petitioner Stacie Hayes ("Petitioner") is a resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been a resident of said county for the ninety (90) days immediately prior to the commencement of the above-entitled action.

2. Venue. Venue is proper in Utah County pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-3a-201.

3. Marriage Statistic. Petitioner and Respondent John Stephen Hayes ("Respondent") were married on April 15, 2019, in Provo, Utah.

4. Grounds. Petitioner is granted a decree of divorce pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-405(1)(h) as irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties making their marriage irretrievably broken and impossible to continue.

UCCJEA

5. No minor children were born of the marriage, and none are expected.

REAL PROPERTY

6. Any real property acquired by either party during the marriage is awarded to the party in whose name title to the real property is currently held. Petitioner represents that, to the best of her knowledge, she is not aware of any real property that is jointly titled in both parties' names. Each party will be solely responsible for all expenses, debts, taxes, mortgage payments, and other obligations associated with the real property awarded to them, and will indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any such obligations.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

7. Each party is hereby awarded, as his or her sole and separate property, all personal property currently in his or her possession or control, free and clear of any right, title, interest, or claim of the other party. Such property includes, but is not limited to, furniture, furnishings, household goods, appliances, electronics, tools, clothing, jewelry, collectibles, recreational equipment, and all other tangible personal property presently in that party's possession or control. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each party shall have no right, title, interest, or claim to any personal property awarded to the other party, and neither party shall be required to account for, transfer, or divide such property.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

8. Bank and Credit Union Accounts.

a. Joint Accounts. Petitioner is unaware of any joint bank and/or credit union account.

b. Separate Accounts. Each party is awarded ownership of all bank and/or credit union accounts in their sole name. Neither party shall have any claim or interest in the bank and/or credit union accounts of the other. If any bank and/or credit union accounts are overdrawn or subject to any debt, fees, or penalties, the party retaining the bank and/or credit union accounts shall be solely responsible for satisfying such obligations and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

9. Life Insurance Policies. Each party is awarded any life insurance policy currently held in his or her individual name, free and clear of any claim or interest by the other party. Each party shall retain all rights, title, and interest in and to his or her respective policies, including the right to change beneficiaries, coverage amounts, and policy terms. Neither party shall have any obligation to maintain the other as a beneficiary on any life insurance policy following the entry of this Decree of Divorce, unless otherwise expressly agreed to in writing. Each party shall cooperate, if necessary, in executing any documents required by the insurer to effectuate the terms of this provision.

10. Retirement Accounts. Each party is awarded, as his or her sole and separate property, any and all retirement accounts, pension plans, deferred compensation plans, annuities, IRAs, 401(k) accounts, investment accounts, brokerage accounts, or similar financial assets held in his or her individual name, free and clear of any right, title, claim, or interest of the other party. Any such account that is subject to an outstanding loan, lien, tax liability, early withdrawal penalty, surrender charge, or other financial obligation shall remain the sole responsibility of the party to whom the account is awarded. That party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other party harmless from any and all claims, losses, liabilities, taxes, penalties, costs, or expenses arising out of or relating to such obligations.

DEBTS

11. Joint Debts. Petitioner is unaware of any joint marital debt.

12. Separate Debts. Each party shall be solely responsible for the payment, satisfaction, and discharge of any and all debts, liabilities, credit card balances, loans, lines of credit, and other financial obligations incurred in his or her individual name, whether incurred before or during the marriage, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. Neither party shall incur any debt or obligation in the name of or on behalf of the other party. Each party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other party harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, costs, expenses, interest, penalties, and attorneys' fees arising out of or relating to any such individual debt or obligation.

ALIMONY

13. Neither party is awarded alimony.

MUTUAL RESTRAINTS

14. The parties are mutually restrained from attempting, committing, or threatening any form of abusive behavior or actions, including but not limited to physical threats of violence, whether directed toward either party, their respective families, or their friends. This includes any acts or threats of harm, intimidation, harassment, or any other conduct that may cause fear or distress to the other party or their loved ones.

15. The parties are mutually restrained from posting, publishing, or otherwise disseminating any statements, comments, images, or information about the other party on any social media platform or in any public forum that are intended to harass, disparage, defame, or cause emotional distress. This provision includes, but is not limited to, posts made directly by a party or indirectly through third parties. Each party shall further be restrained from encouraging or permitting any third party to post such content on their behalf.

16. The parties are mutually restrained from disclosing, publishing, or disseminating any confidential or private information of the other party, including but not limited to financial information, personal records, account information, or private communications, except as required by law or as necessary to enforce or comply with the terms contained herein. Neither party shall access, attempt to access, or use the other party's personal accounts, electronic devices, or digital information without express authorization. Each party shall further be restrained from providing such information to or encouraging any third party to disclose such information in violation of this provision.

17. The parties are mutually restrained from entering the residence, workplace, or vehicle of the other party without first obtaining the consent of the other party.

18. The parties are mutually restrained from permitting third parties to engage in any actions that they themselves are prohibited from undertaking herein. Each party shall have an affirmative duty to take reasonable and proactive measures to prevent third parties from violating any terms or provisions set forth herein.

ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

19. Each party is solely responsible for his or her own attorney's fees and costs.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

20. Business. If either party acquired an ownership interest in any business, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity during the marriage, that ownership interest is awarded to the party who acquired it as that party's sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim or interest by the other party. The party receiving the ownership interest shall be solely responsible for any debts, liabilities, or obligations associated with that interest and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any such debts, liabilities, or obligations.

21. Maiden Name. If desired, Petitioner is restored to the use of her maiden name – Stacie Brand.

22. Execution of Documents. The parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary to implement the provisions contained herein.

23. Certified Copy. Petitioner represents that, to the best of her knowledge, the parties have no joint debts, obligations, or liabilities. If any joint debt, obligation, or liability is identified or addressed herein, the parties shall provide a certified copy of the Decree to the affected creditor or obligee regarding the Court's allocation of the debt, obligation, or liability and the parties' separate and current addresses, as required by applicable Utah law.
