Attorneys for Jacob Andrew Butler

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH, PROVO DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN OF: JACOB ANDREW BUTLER, Petitioner, and MAEZIE LEIGH MCGRAW, Respondent.	DECREE OF CUSTODY AND SUPPORT Case No. 264400058 Judge Derek P. Pullan Commissioner Dustin A. Hardy

This matter comes before the Court pursuant to the parties' Amended Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation"). The Court, having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE as follows:

1. Father. Jacob is the natural Father of the minor child D.R.B.

2. Mother. Maezie is the natural Mother of the minor child D.R.B.

PARENTING PLAN

3. The parties have the following minor child together: D.R.B. (born March 24, 2023).

4. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor child. and use the terms herein and Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202 as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby. Minor and day-to-day decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall mutually discuss all major decisions in the child's life regarding health, safety, religion, and education. The parties will keep each other informed of the activities, events, and appointments in the child's life.

5. Decision-Making and Dispute Resolution. Each parent shall have the right to make day-to-day decisions concerning the child while in the care of that parent. Each parent shall also have the right to make emergency decisions regarding the child's safety or health while in the care of that parent. For all other decisions regarding the child, the parties shall comply with the following dispute resolution plan:

Step 1: The parties shall make a good faith effort to cooperate and work together to make joint decisions that are in the best interest of their child. The parties shall communicate with each other and discuss the issue(s) before either parent makes a decision.

Step 2: If the parties cannot agree, then the parties shall attend mediation regarding the disputed issue(s). Unless both parties mutually agree to waive this requirement, both parties must attend mediation in good faith with a mutually agreed upon neutral mediator, and both parties shall equally share the necessary costs of mediation.

Step 3: If the parties are still unable to agree, then either party may seek a court order regarding the disputed issue(s). The court shall have the final authority to decide the issue(s) as it determines is in the best interests of the child.

6. Communication with the child. Each parent shall be entitled to enjoy liberal telephone, Facetime, video conference, email, letters, or other alternative forms of contact with the child at reasonable times and places. Each parent shall provide access to the child while in his or her care to facilitate such communication. Further, the child may choose to initiate communication with either parent at any time of the child's choosing. Neither parent shall speak derogatorily about the other parent to the child (either in person, over the phone or in writing) or to another person within the hearing or in the presence of the child. Neither parent shall allow any third party to speak derogatorily about the other parent within the hearing or in the presence of the child.

7. Communication between parents. Each parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible in the event of a medical or other emergency concerning the child. Each parent shall provide the other with a current address, phone number and email address within 24 hours of any change. Each parent shall provide the other with the name and contact information for any surrogate care providers for the child. Whenever either parent intends to travel out of the state with the child, he or she shall provide the other parent with an itinerary of travel dates and locations. All communications between the parties shall be civil, and neither parent shall threaten, harass, or speak derogatorily or crudely to the other parent.

8. Participation. Both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate as appropriate in any significant school, social, sports, religious or community functions in which the child are participating or being recognized.

9. Access to records. Each parent shall be entitled to complete access to all educational, medical, religious or other records of the child. Each party shall be listed as a parent for purposes of school contact or medical care provider contact for the child.

10. Physical Custody. The parties shall have joint physical custody of the parties' minor child. Jacob's residence shall be designated as the child's primary physical residence for school records and all other legal purposes. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be pursuant to § 81-9-305 - equal parent time provision. The following table indicates the parent time to occur on a bi-weekly basis:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad

a. The parent time shall be effective upon the signing of the Stipulation and executed in this Decree.

b. Parent time shall begin at 9:00 AM when school is not in session or after school lets out when in session.

c. The table above reflects the days when the party has the overnight in a bi-weekly period.

11. Transportation. The parties will share transportation equally as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the receiving parent who is beginning parent time will pick up the child at school or at the residence of the other (except for a parent with overnight parent time will be responsible to drop the child/ren off at school, if school is in session at the time for the exchange).

12. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code § 81-9-305 as follows:

Father	Mother	Child's actual birthday: The holiday begins at 3 p.m. and goes until 9 p.m.
Father	Father	Father's Day: The holiday begins at 8:00 a.m. and lasts until the following morning.
Mother	Mother	Mother's Day: The holiday begins at 8:00 a.m. and lasts until the following morning.

13. Extended parent time / Summer. Extended summer parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-305. the parties shall have extended summer parent time in accordance with the statute. The parties shall have two consecutive weeks of extended parent time during the summer.

14. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the child/ren by May 1 each year with Petitioner having first choice of extended time in odd-numbered years and Respondent having first choice of extended time in even-numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent. Extended parent time may not be used to go over the other parent's holiday parent time.

15. Right of First Refusal. There shall be a right of refusal that shall work as follows: If a party is unable to provide care for eight (8) hours or more for work-related reasons (including remote work, which is considered unavailable), then the other party has the right to provide care for the minor child. The party invoking the right and providing substitute care shall be responsible for all transportation for the child during the exercise of this right (both back and forth). The party invoking this right shall make the child immediately available upon the ability of the parent to whom the right of refusal is invoked upon.

16. School and Residential Stability. The parties agree that the minor child shall attend school within the boundaries of the child's current school or designated feeder school based on Petitioner's current residence, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties.

17. Neither party shall relocate the minor child's primary residence more than twenty (20) miles from Petitioner's current residence without the prior written consent of the other party or order of the Court.

18. If either party relocates or proposes to relocate more than twenty (20) miles from Petitioner's current residence, such relocation may constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances warranting review of custody and parent-time.

19. Relocation. If either parent subsequently moves more than 150 miles away from the other parent, he or she shall comply with the notice provisions of Utah Code section § 81-9-209, including providing 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. Either parent may then motion the court to review custody and parent-time pursuant to Section § 81-9-209. However, the parties shall use their best efforts to come to an agreement as to custody and parent-time, either on their own or through mediation, prior to filing a motion with the court.

20. Travel: When the minor child is traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. See Utah Code § 81-9-202 (19).

a. Travel to New York: In addition to, and not in lieu of, the general travel-notification requirements set forth in Paragraph 24 above, the following restriction applies specifically to travel to the State of New York. Compliance with Paragraph 24 alone does not satisfy or waive the requirements of this paragraph. Both sets of obligations must be independently met before any New York travel may occur.

b. The minor child, D.R.B, shall not be transported to, or permitted to travel to, the State of New York by Respondent, or by any third party acting at her discretion or with her consent, absent one of the following: (i) the prior express written consent of Petitioner, which may be conditioned on reasonable terms; or (ii) Petitioner accompanying the minor child for the duration of the New York travel. This restriction applies to travel of any duration, including day trips, and encompasses any air, ground, or rail travel into or through the State of New York. Nothing in this paragraph relieves the traveling parent from also complying with the itinerary, contact, and third-party notification requirements set forth in the general travel paragraph above.

21. Modification. Neither parent may initiate court action to modify the provisions of this Parenting Plan without making a good faith effort at mediation. Unless both parties mutually agree to waive this requirement, both parties must attend mediation in good faith with a mutually agreed upon neutral mediator, and both parties shall equally share the necessary costs of mediation.

22. Mutual Restraining Orders: The parties shall be mutually restrained and enjoined as follows:

a. Non-Harassment and Safety. Each party is restrained from committing, attempting to commit, or threatening to commit any form of violence, abuse, harassment, corporal punishment or stalking against the other party or the minor child. Neither party shall harass, annoy, or otherwise disturb the peace of the other party or the minor child.

b. Communication. The parties shall communicate only in writing regarding matters related to the minor child, including parent-time, health, education, and activities, unless otherwise agreed. All communications shall remain civil. Neither party shall access or attempt to access the other party's personal devices, accounts, or data storage.

c. Non-Disparagement and Protection of Child Relationship. Neither party shall say or do anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. This includes, but is not limited to, demeaning, disparaging, or belittling the other parent, discussing litigation or adult issues with the child, or attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or parent-time.

d. Boundaries Involving the Child. Neither party shall:

- Interrogate or "pump" the child for information about the other parent
- Use the child to communicate between the parties
- Discuss the other parent's personal life or relationships with the child

e. Third Parties. Each party shall not permit third parties to engage in conduct prohibited by this Order and shall use best efforts to prevent such conduct or remove the child from such circumstances.

f. Substance Use. Neither party shall use illegal drugs, abuse prescription medication, or consume alcohol in excess of the legal driving limit within 24 hours prior to or during parent-time.

g. Discipline. Neither party shall use corporal punishment.

h. Incorporation of Prior Orders. The parties acknowledge that mutual restraining orders were previously entered in this matter. To the extent those provisions are consistent with the Stipulation, they are incorporated herein. To the extent of any conflict, the terms of the Stipulation and resulting Order shall control.

i. Child-Specific Restrictions. The parties agree that Jessica Catrow shall not be permitted in the presence of the minor child.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE MINOR CHILD

23. Jacob has a gross monthly income of $7,529.77. Maezie has a gross monthly income of $1,872.00. Effective May 1, 2026 child support is awarded to Maezie in the amount of $310.00 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. Either party may bring this Decree to the Office of Recovery Services to begin automatic withholding for child support and alimony.

24. Each party shall notify the other within thirty (30) days of any change in his or her monthly income.

25. The court's child support order may be subsequently modified pursuant to the provisions of Utah Code section 81-6-212 (5).

26. Pursuant to the Child Support Guidelines, the base monthly child support award is automatically adjusted or terminated when a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

27. Childcare Expenses. Utah Code § 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements existing during the marriage are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. Utah Code § 81-9-202 (13). A party using family members to provide childcare will not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs.

28. Insurance coverage. Health care coverage for the medical expenses of any minor child shall be provided by a parent. See Utah Code § 81-6-208. "Health care coverage" means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: (a) fee for service; (b) a health maintenance organization; (c) a preferred provider organization; (d) any other type of private health insurance; or (e) public health care coverage. See Utah Code § 81-6-101 (13). Either parent shall provide insurance for the medical expenses of their minor child(ren) if such insurance is available to that parent at a reasonable cost. See Utah Code § 81-6-208 (3)(d). Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the child(ren)' s portion of insurance. See Utah Code § 81-6-208 (3)(d). The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

29. Designation of Primary Insurance. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Jacob shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Maezie shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

30. Medical and Dental Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a dependent child, including deductibles and copayments. Utah Code § 81-6-208 (3)(e). A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor child, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. See Utah Code § 81-6-208 (10)(c). If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Utah Code § 81-6-208 (10)(d).

31. Division of Accounts: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that a medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of this Decree at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

32. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any extracurricular activities in which both parties agree in writing that the minor child may be involved. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the child attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the child attend during his or her parent time.

33. School Expenses: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket school expenses incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

34. Tax Filing Assignment: Starting in the 2025 tax year Jacob will claim half the minor child. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, the parties will alternate claiming the child when there is only one child eligible to be claimed, Maezie will claim for the even-numbered tax years, and Jacob will claim for the odd-numbered tax years. Either party's right to claim the child on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to being current on all child support obligations by December 31st of the particular tax year. Utah Code § 81-6-210 (4)(a). Either party's right to claim any child on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to claiming a child resulting in a tax benefit in any particular tax year. Utah Code § 81-6-210 (5). If a party cannot claim a child on his/her returns for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her returns for that year.

35. Debts. The parties acknowledge that they were never married and that no marital estate is subject to division. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each party shall be solely responsible for any debts incurred in his/her own name. Each party waives any claim against the other for contribution, reimbursement, or allocation of any past debts.

36. Hold Harmless: Each party will hold the other harmless on the debts ordered to be paid by him or her.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

37. Documentation Cooperation: Each party shall be ordered to sign any and all documents as are required to implement the provisions herein upon request.

38. Mediation: Prior to or concurrent with a Petition to Modify being filed to change any provision of this final Decree, the parties must first make a good faith attempt to offer to resolve the issue through mediation, for which both parties will share the cost equally.

39. Attorney Fees: Each party will pay his or her respective attorney fees.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
