4. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event that the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties shall first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties shall mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical.

i. The parties shall continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending doctor.

ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party shall elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan. The children shall continue to attend Orchard Elementary School, Oak Canyon Junior High School and Timpanogos High School, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators. Both parties shall ensure the children get to school timely. If there is an extended sickness, the parent shall get a doctor's note.

5. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties shall be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

6. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and shall not use their children to deliver messages. The parties shall use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

7. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

8. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination;

c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and

d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

9. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

10. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

11. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

12. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents shall have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are, hereby, restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties shall also be restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

f. Both parties shall be restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are, hereby, mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or should remove the minor children from such circumstances.

13. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

14. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. Either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

15. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent should pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

16. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

17. Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time shall provide all of the transportation.

18. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent should be with the child by 7 p.m.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

19. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $5,000 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $30,000 per month. For the purposes of calculating child support, the Mother has 183 overnights and the Father has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation shall be $1,551 per month. Child support shall commence October 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support shall be payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

20. 2Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 4Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

21. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code §81-9-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

22. Dependency Exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are two minor children, the parties shall each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother shall claim the oldest child and Father shall claim the youngest child.

b. When there is only one minor child, the parties shall alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father shall claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

c. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

23. Real Property. The parties shall sell the home in Millcreek for a reasonable market value price. The Father shall make mortgage payments on the home commencing October 1, 2026. Father shall choose the Realtor. The parties shall list the home for sale no later than October 15, 2026. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

a. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

b. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

c. Thereafter, the equity shall be equally divided between the parties.

24. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item should be responsible for any associated debt with the item and shall refinance no later than 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Lexus	Mother
F-350	Father

a. Each party shall be awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

25. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debts in Mother's Name or acquired by Mother	Mother
Debts in Father's Name or acquired by Father	Father

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt shall remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

26. Financial Accounts.
