PARENTING PLAN

This Parenting Plan is being filed in good faith.

This parenting plan is proposed by Bryandt William Auman.

Children - custody

(Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 9, Part 3)

7. It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded Joint Legal and Joint Physical Custody. Bryandt William Auman is filing this Parenting Plan and verifies the plan is filed in good faith.

8. The children should reside in Bryandt William Auman's home 182 overnights each year and in Stephanie Peck Auman's home 183 overnights each year.

9. The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule:

a. Each parent shall be entitled to alternating one-week periods of parent-time with the children. Each parent-time period shall begin on Monday at 8:00 a.m., or, when school is in session, at the beginning of each child's respective school day, and shall end the following Monday at the corresponding time. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the parent whose parent-time is ending shall be responsible for transporting the children to the exchange location. When school is in session and the exchange coincides with the beginning of the school day, the exchange shall occur through the children's attendance at school. Otherwise, exchanges shall occur at the receiving parent's residence. The parents may mutually agree to an alternative exchange location or transportation arrangement. Each parent shall make reasonable efforts to complete exchanges at the scheduled time. If a parent anticipates being 30 minutes or more late, that parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible and, when practicable, at least 30 minutes before the scheduled exchange. Except in the case of an emergency or circumstances beyond the parent's reasonable control, an exchange shall not be delayed by more than two hours. If the parent beginning their scheduled parent-time is unable to receive the children at the scheduled exchange time, the children shall remain with the other parent until the receiving parent is able to assume care. The parent who was unable to receive the children shall be responsible for transportation when subsequently assuming care. A delayed exchange under this provision shall not extend that parent's scheduled parent-time or alter the timing of any future scheduled exchanges unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. Both parties shall receive "right of first refusal".

Parent-time for special occasions

10. The parents will follow the schedule for special occasions below. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school. 	Stephanie Peck Auman	(385) 248-2298
By texting:	Bryandt William Auman	(385) 248-8695

Communication with the children

20. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

21. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

22. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

23. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

24. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

25. Other agreements about travel by the children: Any travel, vacation, or temporary modification to the regular parent-time schedule that would interfere with a scheduled exchange must be agreed upon by both parents in advance. If the either parent retains one or both children beyond their regularly scheduled parent-time, the other parent shall be entitled to an equivalent period of extended parent-time, not to exceed fourteen (14) consecutive days. The dates of such make-up parent-time shall be selected and agreed upon before the extended stay begins, with the parent receiving the child being the tie breaker. Any extended or make-up parent-time under this provision shall not permanently modify the regular alternating-week parent-time schedule unless both parents expressly agree otherwise in writing.

Child care

26. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.
A relative, friend, or neighbor.
Other qualifications: Either parent utilizing a family member, babysitter, daycare provider, or other third party to provide childcare shall provide the other parent with the individual's or provider's name and current contact information. Such information shall be provided prior to the commencement of childcare when reasonably practicable.

Relocation of a parent

27. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 150 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

28. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved, except one-half of the expenses for the summer or off-track time will be paid by the other parent.

29. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

30. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

31. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

36. The adjusted gross monthly income for Stephanie Peck Auman is $1062.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

37. It is in the best interest of the children that Bryandt William Auman be ordered to pay child support to Stephanie Peck Auman as follows:

a.$478.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

38. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

39. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

40. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

41. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

42. Stephanie Peck Auman will give Bryandt William Auman the information needed to set up direct deposit through Bryandt William Auman's employer. Once Bryandt William Auman has the information, Bryandt William Auman will have Bryandt William Auman's employer set up direct deposit to an account of Stephanie Peck Auman's choice. One half of the child support is due by the 5th of each month, and the other half is due by the 20th of each month.

43. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

44. Bryandt William Auman and Stephanie Peck Auman will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Stephanie Peck Auman, Bryandt William Auman will reimburse Stephanie Peck Auman for half the fee.

45. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

46. The Office of Recovery Services (https://ors.utah.gov/) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

49. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Heath care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

50. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Bryandt William Auman's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Stephanie Peck Auman's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Bryandt William Auman's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Stephanie Peck Auman's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

51. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

52. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)
