IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

SHELLY VINCENT,

Petitioner,

vs.

WADE CARL THOMPSON,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.044401182

Judge Howard

This matter came before this Court pursuant to Petitioner's Complaint for divorce, and was heard before the Judge of the Fourth District Court. The Court found that Respondent received and executed an Acceptance of Service, Waiver, and Consent and the document was filed before this Court, and therefore, default was entered against the Respondent, and the Court having made its findings of fact and conclusions of law, adjudges, decrees, and orders as follows:

1. The bonds of matrimony and marriage contract between the parties are hereby dissolved, and Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent.

2. Both parties are healthy, mature adults who are capable of caring for their own needs and who are currently employed or employable. Therefore neither party is in need of alimony, and no alimony should be awarded.

3. The parties have acquired certain items of personal property, which property has been divided to the parties' satisfaction, and each party should be awarded the property currently in his or her possession.

4. Petitioner should not be responsible for any of the parties' marital debts.

5. Petitioner acquired a mobile home prior to marriage located at 222 North 1200 West, #55, Orem, UT 84057, and said home shall remain the property of Petitioner.

6. Respondent acquired an interest in pension or retirement plan with his employer, and said pension or retirement account shall remain the property of Respondent.

7. Respondent shall be responsible for all tax liabilities he incurred prior to marriage, furthermore, Respondent shall also be responsible for all tax liabilities for tax years 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2003.

8. Each party should be required to pay his or her own attorney's fees and court costs.

9. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other party without cost any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

DATED this 15 day of November, 2004.

BY THE COURT.
