IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AIMEE VIRGINIA GRANT, Petitioner,)

vs.

DAVID JOSHUA GRANT, Respondent.)

DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT OF LAW

Case No. 0144009 07

Judge: 08

The above-entitled matter came on before the court on Petitioner's Affidavit for Entry of Divorce Decree in accordance with Rule 4-913 Code of Judicial Administration. The parties have completed the class entitled, "Shared Parenting for Divorcing Parents" waiving the 90-day period or have a signed order waiving the 90-day waiting period or have a signed order waiving the class on file with the court. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent to become final upon entry.

2. The Petitioner and/or the Respondent are bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah and have been for at least three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. The Petitioner and the Respondent were married on 01-09-99 in Utah County, State of Utah and are presently married. The parties separated on or about 03-25-01.

4. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

5. All personal property shall be divided as the parties have already divided it.

6. There are no debts that the parties need the court to consider.

7. The parties do not own real property.

8. There has been one child born as issue of this marriage:

NAME	DATE OF BIRTH	SOCIAL SECURITY NO.
Starr Alice Grant	08-24-99	647-48-0564

9. Pursuant to Rule 4-901(b), Utah Code of Judicial Administration, the Petitioner states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor child filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

10. Utah is the home State of said minor child pursuant to U.C.A. S 78-45c-3(1) (a) (1953) as amended in that:

a. Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of commencement of this proceeding or it is in the best interest of the minor child that a court of this state assume jurisdiction because the minor child in addition to his/her parents or one of the contestants have a significant connection with this state and there is available in this state substantial evidence concerning the minor child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships, and

b. Said minor child has not resided in any place or with any parties outside of Utah.

c. The Petitioner has not been a party, witness or participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor child in this State or any other State, and

d. The Petitioner has no information of any custody proceeding concerning the parties' minor child pending in a court of this or any other State, and

e. The Petitioner does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

11. The Petitioner is a fit and proper person to be awarded the permanent care, control and custody of the minor child of the parties, subject to the Respondent's right to visit with the child at reasonable times and places.

Reasonable visitation should be defined as the parties may agree. If they are not able to agree, the definition for school-age children (beginning kindergarten) will be pursuant to Utah Code 30-

3-35.5, Minimum schedule for visitation for children under five years of age, or Utah Code S 30-3-35, Minimum schedule for visitation for children 5-13 years of age.

12. The Petitioner is unemployed but is capable of working at a job which would pay $5.25 per hour based upon the Petitioners work experience during the period of the parties' marriage, and income should be attributed to Petitioner in the amount of $910.00 per month.

13. The Respondent's workplace is unknown but Petitioner estimates Respondent earns $8.00 per hour, works 40 hours per week and therefore grosses $1,387.00 per month.

14. Pursuant to U.C.A. S 78-45-7 et seq. (1953 as amended) it is reasonable and proper that the Respondent be ordered to pay the Petitioner as and for child support:

a. A sum of not less than $201.60 per month as base support for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines until said child become 18 years of age, or have graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by order for at least 25 or any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Aid to Families with Dependent Children, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended visitation shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal visitation and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The obligee (custodial parent) shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. S 62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the Respondent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payers. All withheld income should be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the Respondent no longer owes child support to the Petitioner.

d. The issue of child support arrearages may be determined by further judicial or administrative process.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.

15. Pursuant to U.C.A. S 78-45-7.15 (1953) as amended, it is reasonable and proper that:

a. Both parties should be required to maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child where available at reasonable cost.

b. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by the parent for the child's portion of the insurance.

c. Both parties should share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and co-insurance payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the Subparagraph "d" above.

16. Pursuant to U.C.A. S 78-45-7.16 (1953 as amended) both parties should share equally the reasonable work-related or career or occupational training for child care expenses of the custodial parent.

a. The non-custodial parent shall begin paying his or her share of child care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense.

b. The parent who incurs child care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

17. The Petitioner has not received public assistance from the State.

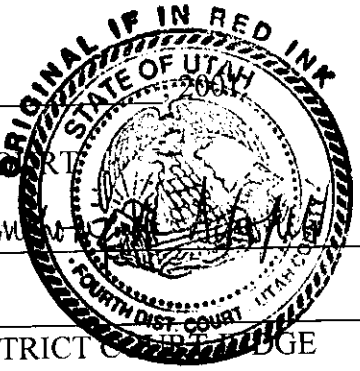

18. Neither party should be awarded alimony from the other.

19. Neither party has a pension or other retirement plan that the court needs to decide.

20. Petitioner should be restored the use of her former name of: Aimee Virginia Hoskins.

DATED this 10 day of May, 2001.
