Attorney for Tristen Dawn Johnson

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: TRISTEN DAWN JOHNSON and RYAN LANCE JOHNSON	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264402163 Judge Ryan Stack Commissioner Marian Ito

The above-entitled matter has been presented to the Court. Tristen Dawn Johnson ("Tristen") is represented by Theodore G. Davis of the law firm of Davis Law Office. Ryan Lance Johnson ("Lance") is represented by Jill Bohn. Based upon the Stipulation and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court therefore enters this Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Residency. Both parties are bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah and have been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on December 30, 2015, in the city of Payson, Utah County, Utah and are presently married. The parties separated on or about April 30, 2026.

3. Grounds. Since the marriage of the parties, there have arisen irreconcilable differences between the parties, making it impossible to continue the marital relationship.

4. Children. The parties are the parents of three (3) minor children: E.J.J., born August 2018, E.T.J. August 2020, and E.W.J. born August 2022.

5. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13 et seq. (1953 as amended), in that Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

6. Child Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor children.

7. Joint Legal Decision-Making. Each parent will make the day-to-day decisions during their individual parent time as they impact the children. The parties shall consult with each other regarding major decisions for the children, including elective medical care, education, and religious upbringing. If the parties cannot reach an agreement, they shall consult with relevant professionals to assist in making a decision. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, they shall return to mediation before seeking court intervention.

8. Parent Time. Parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree parent time, during the school year shall be in accordance with UCA §81-9-303 except as modified below:

a. Regular Rotation.

i. Father shall have parent time with the child on alternating weekends from Friday after school (or 9:00 a.m. if there is no school) until Monday with a drop off at school (or 9:00 a.m. if there is no school).

ii. Father shall have mid-week parent time with the child every Thursday after school (or 9:00 a.m. if there is no school) until Friday with a drop off to school (or 9:00 a.m. if there is no school).

	Sun	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat
Week 1	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad	Mom	Mom
Week 2	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad

9. Summer. The parties shall share the summer months equally, with parent-time alternating on a week-on, week-off basis with the exchange occurring on Fridays at 9:00 a.m. The alternating weekly schedule shall begin with the parent who exercises Memorial Day weekend and shall continue on a week-on, week-off basis through the Labor Day holiday. The parent who exercises the Labor Day Holiday will have the last week of the summer break, at which time the regular school-year parent-time schedule shall resume.

a. For purposes of designating summer uninterrupted parent time, both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time (including the two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time in the summer) or vacation weeks with the children to the other parent.

b. In odd-numbered years, Father shall provide notice to Mother by April 1st and Mother shall provide notice to Father by April 15th.

c. In even-numbered years, Mother shall provide notice to Father by April 1st and Father shall provide notice to Mother by April 15th.

d. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

e. Neither parent may choose time that conflicts with holiday parent time or the children's birthdays which would be exercised by the other parent.

10. Holidays. The parties shall alternate holidays as they agree. If they cannot agree they follow the holidays in accordance UCA §81-9-303 with the exception that holiday time on Juneteenth will not be exercised. Father shall be designated as the non-custodial parent for purposes of holiday allocation only. Holidays take precedence over the regular and summer parent time rotation.

a. Holidays include any "snow" days, teacher development days after the children begin the school year, or other days when school is not scheduled, contiguous to the holiday period, and take precedence over the weekend parent-time.

b. For any holiday that lands on a weekend, the parent awarded that holiday will exercise parent time from Friday after school, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, until Monday with a drop off to school, or if the holiday falls on a Monday, until Tuesday with a drop off to school. If a parent would miss a weekend pursuant to their standard rotation because of a holiday, that parent would be entitled to exercise parent time on the next non-holiday weekend, with the normal rotation then continuing from that point. For any holiday that lands only on a school day and not on a weekend, that parent's time shall begin when school is dismissed, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, until school the next day, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session.

c. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for Minor Child's attendance at school for that school day.

d. A parent exercising parent-time for a child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.

e. If a summer holiday occurs on a weekend the parent exercising the holiday will have the entire weekend beginning from Friday at 9:00 a.m. until Monday at 9:00 a.m.

11. Precedence of Parent Time. Changes may not be made to the parent time schedule, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:
    a. The holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
    b. The holiday schedule for Minor Children's birthdays, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the Minor Children away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
    c. The holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or Minor Children's birthdays.
    d. Extended parent-time; and
    e. The schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.
    f. The party exercising Easter shall also exercise Spring Break.
12. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the advisory guidelines found in UCA§ 81-9-202 as their parenting plan, in addition to the following provisions:

a. First Right of Refusal. Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the minor children over any other third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for a period of one or more overnights during parent-time, and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent-time under the right of first refusal shall (1) provide all transportation to and from parent-time, and (2) provide direct parental care. This provision relates solely to parental absences away from their residence and shall not be construed to prevent the minor children from having sleepovers with friends and family.

b. Sleepovers. The minor children shall not participate in any sleepover with a person who is not a family member without the prior written consent of both parties.

c. Medical Emergency. Each parent shall be notified immediately by the custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency with a minor child.

d. Appointments. Both parents shall have the right to know about and attend all dental, vision, medical, and other healthcare appointments for the minor children. The parent who schedules an appointment shall notify the other parent of the date, time, and location of the appointment within 24 hours of scheduling the appointment. Both parents shall have the opportunity to attend the appointment. If either parent is unable to attend, the parent who attends the appointment shall provide the other parent with any notes, recommendations, or other information provided by the healthcare provider as soon as such information is made available.

e. Hygiene and Clothing. Each parent shall ensure that the minor children are appropriately bathed and maintain appropriate personal hygiene while in that parent's care. Each parent shall ensure that the children are clean, appropriately groomed, and dressed in clean, weather-appropriate clothing when attending school or being transferred to the other parent. Clothing purchased by either parent shall remain the property of the parent who purchased it and shall be returned to that parent following the children's use of the clothing.

f. Haircuts. Mother shall be responsible for scheduling and paying for the children's haircuts. Neither parent shall give the children an extreme haircut or hairstyle that substantially alters the child's appearance without first discussing the proposed change with the other parent and obtaining mutual agreement. Routine haircuts, trims, and age-appropriate hairstyles may be made without prior agreement.

g. Each parent shall be listed as "parent" and "emergency contact" at the children's school (if applicable), doctor's office, dentist's office, and any other similar location/provider, but it is each parent's individual responsibility to acquire such access.

h. Sharing Information. Each party shall be entitled to directly access the children's medical, church, education, counseling, and other records. The parties shall share information with one another regarding the children's school, church, extracurricular, and other activities, medical care, counseling, and any other significant information. Each parent shall have access directly to all medical, dental, and optical records of the minor children. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the children will continue to see their current physicians, dentists, and other current health providers.

i. Contact Information. The parties shall immediately notify the other parent of any change of address or change of telephone number.

j. Romantic Partner/Roommates. Neither Party shall introduce the Minor Child to any romantic partner unless and until the relationship has been ongoing and exclusive for at least three (3) consecutive months. Additionally, if either Party resides with any individual who is not a biological or adoptive relative of the Minor Child, that Party shall provide the name of such individual(s) to the other Party.

k. The minor children shall not be permitted to share a bed with any romantic partner of either parent. In addition, the minor children shall not share a sleeping room with a romantic partner of either parent unless the parent is also present in the room.

l. Children's Accommodations. Both parents shall provide adequate sleeping arrangements for the children including providing the children with their own beds.

m. Transportation. The parties shall utilize school-to-school exchanges when possible. A parent, grandparent, step-parent, or extended relative may transport a child for regular exchanges and activities as needed. The parties shall not engage in conversation with one another during exchanges, other than what is necessary to facilitate the exchange of the minor children. The parties shall each strive to make exchanges positive, calm, and respectful and shall avoid any conduct or communication that may create conflict or tension in the presence of the minor children.

n. The parties will communicate effectively if they are going to be late for parenting time exchanges. If no communication takes place, the parties will adhere to a fifteen-minute rule. During exchange, in the event that the receiving party is late, the other party does not need to wait more than 15 minutes. The receiving party will need to make alternate arrangements for pickup. A parent shall forfeit their scheduled parent-time if they fail to arrive within one (1) hour of the designated exchange time, unless they effectively communicate alternate arrangements within that same one-hour period. Pick up of the minor children is to be done by the parent and not by any substitute.

o. Religious Upbringing. The parties agree to be supportive of the children's decisions to participate in attendance, activities, callings, and ordinances consistent with the teachings of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

i. The parties agree that Father shall be allowed to perform ordinances for the minor children associated with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints including baptisms and priesthood ordinances so long as he is deemed worthy by his ecclesiastical leaders. Baptism's, Ordinances, etc. shall only be performed with the consent of the minor child(ren).

ii. The parties acknowledge and agree that the minor children's baptisms and related religious ordinances are expected to occur at the appropriate and projected age, with the child's consent, consistent with the parties' religious tradition and the children's developmental milestones, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by the parties.

iii. Mother shall be responsible for planning and coordinating the minor children's baptism, including any celebration or gathering held thereafter. Mother shall also be responsible for purchasing the children's baptism clothing. Both families shall be included equally in such events.

p. Communication. The parties shall communicate primarily through Our Family Wizard (OFW). The parties may communicate by email or text message only in the event of a time-sensitive matter or legitimate emergency. All communications between the parties shall remain civil, respectful, and related to the children. Name-calling, derogatory remarks, or hostile communication shall not be considered civil communication. Each party shall be responsible for the cost of their own OFW account.

q. Parent Time Calendar. The parties shall use the parent-time calendar feature in the Our Family Wizard (OFW) application to maintain and document the minor child's parent-time schedule. Each parent shall be responsible for keeping the calendar current and accurately reflecting all scheduled parent-time, exchanges, holidays, vacations, and agreed-upon changes to the parent-time schedule. Any changes to the parent-time schedule agreed upon by the parties shall be promptly documented in the OFW calendar.

r. Virtual Communication. The minor children shall be permitted to have reasonable communication and contact with the noncustodial parent at any times and for reasonable durations, including by telephone, text message, video call, or other agreed-upon means, provided such contact does not unreasonably interfere with the children's schedule, school, or activities. The children shall be permitted to have their phone watches at all times.

s. Cell Phones/Electronic Devices.-Each party shall share equally the cost of the children's phones/electronic devices. The children may use watches as communication devices until reaching the age of twelve (12). A cellular phone may be gifted to a child on the birthday or Christmas immediately preceding the child's twelfth (12th) birthday.

    i. Contacts on any electronic devices shall be limited to immediate family members and other individuals approved by both parents.

ii. Phones and watches shall not be used as a form of punishment or withheld from the child as a disciplinary measure.

iii. Each parent shall have access to all parental controls, passwords, and account information associated with the child's electronic devices.

iv. As a safety measure, each parent shall collect the children's internet enabled devices at the child's regular bedtime and return the devices when the child wakes up.

t. Social Media. The minor children shall not be permitted to maintain or use any social media accounts unless the parties otherwise agree in writing. Neither party shall post or permit the posting of images of the minor children on social media or other public online platforms. Each party shall also request and require that family members refrain from posting images of the minor children on social media or other public online platforms. Any social media accounts maintained by the minor children shall be jointly monitored by both parents. The parents shall mutually agree upon the monitoring applications or services to be used, and both parents shall have access to the applicable accounts, monitoring applications, and relevant account information. Neither parent shall change passwords, privacy settings, or other account access information in a manner that prevents or limits the other parent's access. The parents shall cooperate in establishing reasonable and age-appropriate rules regarding the children's use of social media.

u. Media. Both parents will take adequate safety measures in their homes for the children's electronic and internet access. The children will only be exposed to age-appropriate media including but not limited to movies, audio, television, and video games.

v. Discipline. Neither parent shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline. Both parents shall use only age-appropriate, reasonable, and non-physical forms of discipline that are appropriate to the child's age and developmental needs.

w. Travel. In accordance with UCA §81-9-202(19) each party shall be responsible to provide the other with an itinerary and contact information before traveling with the child overnight. When the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure:

    i. An itinerary of travel dates;

    ii. Destination;

    iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and

    iv. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

x. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

y. Children's Events. The parents shall notify each other of any events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party shall have the option of attending the special event if possible. For any event that is not posted online, each party shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

z. Extracurricular Activities. The parties will equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities or other organized events for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to the children being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the children in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. Any party unilaterally enrolling the children in extracurricular activities will not interfere with the other party's parent-time. The children shall be permitted to continue participating in their current activities, including E.J.J.'s dance and music activities, E.T.J.'s hockey and music activities, and E.W.J.'s music activities.

13. Relocation. If either party intends to relocate more than one hundred fifty (150) miles, that party shall strictly comply with the requirements set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-209(2), including but not limited to providing proper written notice within the timeframes and containing the information required by statute. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to address any necessary modifications to parent-time or custody arrangements consistent with the statute and the best interests of the minor child.

14. Educational Plan.

    a. The children shall continue in their current and projected school matriculation within the Yates Place school program. If either party is unsatisfied or has concerns with the quality, level, or success with the education they may address the change using the joint legal decision-making process set forth herein to resolve the disagreement. Any change in the children's current or projected schools shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing before a child is enrolled in a different school.

    b. Each parent shall have direct access to school emails, school teachers, school websites, online school tools, parent teacher conferences and school calendars.

    c. Each parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and each parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

    d. Each parent will be responsible for assisting the children with homework and assignments on his or her parent-time.

e. Unless otherwise agreed by both parents, neither parent may remove the children from school during regular school hours without a school excused absence (school excused absence means those absences recognized by the school as valid reasons for missing school, including doctor appointments and illness, in which instance the other parent will be immediately notified). Each parent will ensure that the children make it to school on time during their respective parent time.

15. Mutual Restraining Order.

a. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the children or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or visitation. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the children.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes the children's best interest.

c. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

d. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, intimidating, threatening, assaulting, or otherwise disturbing the peace of the other party. The parties shall not engage in conduct intended to annoy, alarm, or cause emotional distress to the other party, including excessive or abusive communications.

e. Both parties are restrained from entering the other party's residence absent prior written agreement.

f. The parties shall conduct themselves in a civil and respectful manner toward one another and shall avoid direct contact except as reasonably necessary to effectuate the terms of this Decree or as otherwise agreed by the parties in writing. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and child during the other parent's parenting time.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from posting on any social media platforms negative or derogatory comments about the other party.

h. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

i. Controlled Substances. The parties are restrained from consuming illegal drugs or non-prescribed drugs. The parties are restrained from consuming alcohol or marijuana to the point of intoxication or impairment when the minor child is in their care or within 24 hours of caring for the minor child, and from allowing the minor child to be in the presence of any other person who the parties suspect or have reason to suspect may be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or non-prescribed drugs.

j. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the children what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section, and have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

16. Child Support. Child support shall be calculated according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income shall be imputed at $2,600 and Father's gross monthly income is $16,667 Father shall pay child support to Mother in the amount of $1,321 per month, beginning October 1, 2026. Child support is calculated with Mother having approximately 195 overnights and Father having 170 overnights. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month by direct deposit, Venmo, or other agreed upon payment platform.

a. Income Withholding. The parties agree that if the party obligated to pay child support to the other party ever becomes more than 30 days delinquent in child support, the other party shall be entitled to withholding income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to§81-6-202(10)(f) and §62A-11-401, et seq., Utah Code Annotated, as amended.

b. Reduction When Child Becomes 18. In accordance with Utah Code, §81-6-213, the parties agree that when a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, or any of the other reasons for adjustment under the code, whichever occurs later, the base child support award shall be automatically reduced to reflect the lower base combined child support obligation shown in the table for the remaining number of children due child support. The parties agree that the award shall not be reduced by a per-child amount derived from the base child support award originally ordered.

17. Additional Expenses.

    a. The parties shall share equally all school-related expenses including books, tuition, fees, and school lunches provided by the school.

    b. The parties shall communicate regarding anticipated shared expenses. Neither party shall make a purchase for which reimbursement from the other party is anticipated without the other party's prior mutual agreement. A party requesting reimbursement shall provide documentation and receipts supporting the expense. Reimbursement shall be made within thirty (30) days after receipt of the required documentation, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

18. Medical Expenses. Pursuant UCA §81-6-208, both parents are responsible for providing and maintaining health insurance and health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children if insurance for medical and dental expenses is available or becomes available to either parent at a reasonable cost and is accessible to the children. Father is currently providing said insurance.

a. Health Insurance Premiums. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. The party paying the health insurance premium may receive credit for the other parent's portion pursuant to UCA 78B-12-212.

b. Double Coverage. If the children are covered under both parents' insurance, then neither party will reimburse the other for half of their share of the medical insurance premium. Lance's insurance shall be primary coverage.

c. Providers. The parties shall use in-network medical, dental, and other providers whenever reasonably possible before using other providers. Any out-of-network providers shall be mutually agreed upon in writing before services are obtained.

d. Verification of Coverage. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

e. Uninsured Medical/Dental Expenses. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents. If neither party is able to secure medical/dental insurance for the children at a reasonable cost, each party is responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

f. Reimbursement for Expenses. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification.

g. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce or other controlling court order at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services. A creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under U.C.A. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

19. Child Care Expenses. If a party requires the use of childcare, that party will be solely responsible for paying any related child-care expenses.
    a. The custodial parent must offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the children before any third-party child care is utilized, provided the other parent is able to accept within that time frame.
