IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

137 North Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In the matter of the marriage of: KEMALIA STEVENSON, Petitioner, and KIMBALL LAAULI STEVENSON, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264401935 Judge Tony F. Graf, Jr. Commissioner Marla Snow

This matter comes before the court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Stipulation of the parties was previously filed. The Court having reviewed the Stipulation and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

GROUNDS AND JURISDICTION

1. The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved, and the Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions.

2. Residency. Petitioner (hereinafter “Kemalia” and “Mother”) has been a resident of Utah County for at least three months prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics. Kemalia and Respondent (hereinafter “Kimball” and “Father”) were married on May 17, 2008. The parties separated on or around April 20, 2025.

4. Grounds. The parties have experienced significant disagreements regarding their marriage and future together. Despite various efforts to reconcile and address their differences, meaningful communication between the parties has ceased. These efforts have proven unsuccessful, and the parties' differences have reached a point of irreconcilability, making the continuation of the marriage untenable. In light of the circumstances, the court is requested to grant a decree of divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CHILD CUSTODY

5. Children. There have been 5 (five) children born as issue of this marriage:

1. Name	2. Month/Year of Birth
3. SLAS	4. 07/2009
5. MPS	6. 12/2010
7. KLHS	8. 08/2014
9. HKKAS	10. 07/2016
11. LFMS	12. 05/2022

6. Child Custody Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. §78B-13-101, et seq. The children have resided in Utah for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the children. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the children, and the children and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the children's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

7. Joint Custody. Husband and Wife are awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor children of the parties.

a. The parties will exercise parent time pursuant to U.C.A. §81-9-303, with Mother having approximately 220 overnights per year and Father having approximately 145 overnights per year.

b. Father may specify one weekday for parent-time. If no day is specified, weekday parent-time will be on Thursday from 5:30 p.m. until the following day when delivering the child to school, or until 8 a.m., if there is no school the following day. Once the election of the weekday is made, it may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule. At the election of the noncustodial parent, weekday parent-time may commence: (i) from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed; or (ii) if school is not in session, and the parent is available to be with the child, at approximately 8 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule.

c. Beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree, the noncustodial parent is entitled to alternating weekends beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree from 6 p.m. on Friday until Monday when delivering the child to school, or until 8 a.m. if there is no school on Monday. At the election of the noncustodial parent, weekend parent-time may commence (i) from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed on Friday; or (ii) if school is not in session, and the parent is available to be with the child, at approximately 8 a.m. on Friday, accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule.

d. The parents will follow U.C.A. §81-9-303 for the holiday schedule with Wife being designated as the custodial parent for purposes of following the holiday schedule only. The holiday schedule preempts other parent-time.

8. Summer Parent Time. Each party is entitled up to two weeks of parent-time with the children, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break.

9. Notification of extended parent time Each parent will provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plan for the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break as follows:

a. In odd-numbered years the noncustodial parent will provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1 and the custodial parent will provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15th;

b. In even-numbered years, the custodial parent will provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1st, and the noncustodial parent will provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15th.

c. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying party. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

13. 10. Parenting Plan. The parties will adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition, the parties are bound by the following parenting plan which is filed in good faith:

a. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent.

b. The parents are responsible for making joint decisions regarding the minor children and will do their best to agree on major decisions regarding the best interest of the children, including education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues. The parents will consult together regarding a major parenting issue. The parties will do their best to agree on a solution that meets the best interest of the children. If they reach an impasse, the parents will attend mediation before seeking a resolution through litigation, with each parent equally sharing the mediation costs.

14. c. Educational plan. The parents both have authority to make educational decisions for the children. Both parents will have access to the children during school and the authority to check the children out of school. Both parties will be listed on all school records and both parties will have access to all school-related information. Mother is designated as the residential parent for school purposes. The parents will both be listed as the minor children's parents on all school records, registrations, medical records, and any other significant documents.

d. Both parents will be allowed full access to the children's school records and medical records. The parents will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals. The parents will use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's school work and schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

e. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible. For any event that is not posted online, each party will notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties are entitled to attend and participate fully. The parties will share passwords for any school website so each can access events and school work online.

f. The parents will notify the other parent of major injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the children.

g. If a parent is unavailable during their custodial time for at least three hours, the other parent will have the first right of refusal to care for the children, provided they are personally available and willing to provide both care and transportation.

h. The parents will equally share the transportation for parent-time. The parent who is the receiving parent will provide the transportation unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

i. The parents will inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations including itinerary and contact information. The vacations may not conflict with the other parent's holiday parent-time.

j. The parents will immediately notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number.

15. k. Inasmuch as the parties will be sharing joint physical custody, each party will pay ½ of all extracurricular activities, ½ of all school fees, ½ of school lunch, and each party will purchase clothing for the children to wear during their custodial time.

l. Mutual Restraining Order. Both parents are prohibited from making derogatory remarks about the other parent, discussing the issues of this case with the children, or attempting to influence the children's custodial preferences in a way that could diminish their love and affection for the other parent. Each parent is also restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other. Additionally, both parents must prevent third parties from engaging in conduct that they themselves are prohibited from under this provision, and must take reasonable steps to remove the children from such situations if they occur.

m. The parties will maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the children.

n. The parties will not consume alcohol immediately before or during their parent-time with the minor children and will remove the minor children from any situation where alcohol is being consumed.

11. Relocation. If either parent intends to relocate more than 25 miles from the other parent, the notice provisions of Utah Code 81-9-209 will apply. The parties will mediate prior to seeking court action if a relocation causes or would cause the parent time schedule to be impractical. Neither parent will relocate a child further than 25 miles from the other parent without written agreement or court order.

12. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

CHILD SUPPORT

13. Child Support. Kimball is employed at Costa Vida and has gross monthly income of $7,917. Kemalia is unemployed and is imputed gross monthly income of $1,920. Kimball’s child support obligation is $1,460 per month. The child support obligation of Father is effective November 1, 2025. Said support is payable in two equal installments, with one-half due on the 7th day of each month and the remaining one-half due on the 22nd day of each month.

a. Reduction When Child Becomes 18. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-213, when a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forced of the United States or is emancipated, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the worksheet, unless otherwise provided in the child support order.

b. Mother is entitled to immediate and automatic withholding of income as a means of collecting child support, pursuant to §81-6-202.

CHILD CARE, SCHOOL FEES, EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, and CLOTHING

14. Child Care Expenses. If family members provide the child care, there will be no charge for daycare to the other party. If family members are not providing the child care, the parents will adopt U.C.A. §81-6-209 as follows:

a. Each parent will equally share the reasonable work-related child care expenses for the minor children.

b. If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent will begin paying their share within thirty (30) days of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

c. A parent who incurs child care expense will provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. Parents will pay their share of the child care within 30 days of receipt of verification that expenses were incurred.

d. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to notify the other parent within said 30 days.

15. Reduction for Extended Visitation. In accordance with statute, the base child support award will be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended visitation; or 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the non-custodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for of at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time. Normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent will not be considered extended parent time.

16. School Fees. Each party is responsible for fifty percent (50%) of all out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, and lab fees, etc.) incurred leading up to and through high school, excluding private school tuition. The party who incurs the expense must provide the other party with an invoice, bill, receipt, or other proof of the expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receipt. Reimbursement will be made within thirty (30) days of receiving proper documentation.

17. Extracurricular Activities. The parties will equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities for the minor children, provided they have mutually agreed in writing to the activity prior to enrollment. The enrolling parent will provide proof of payment to the other parent within thirty (30) days, and reimbursement will be made within the following thirty (30) days. If a parent unilaterally enrolls a child in an activity without prior written agreement, that parent will bear the full cost and will ensure the activity does not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

18. Clothing. The parties will each be responsible for purchasing and maintaining clothing for the children to wear during their custodial time.

INSURANCE

19. Medical/Dental Expenses. 1In accordance §81-6-208, the court will order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children be provided by a parent. Either parent will provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children as defined by §81-6-208. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children.

a. 2Each parent will share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children will be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. A parent may deduct the other parent's health insurance premium share from the child support obligation if they are the child support obligor and are paying the health insurance premiums as indicated herein.

b. 3Each parent will share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. 4The parent ordered to maintain insurance will provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

d. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses will provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party will be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

e. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsection (d).

f. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner will be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent will be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

g. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that medical/dental or school expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the service provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees.

20. Life Insurance. Kimball will maintain in full force and effect a life insurance policy on his life in a reasonable face amount until such time as the last of the parties' minor children reaches the age of eighteen (18). During such period Kimball will to designate Kemalia as sole beneficiary on said life insurance policy. Kimball will submit to Kemalia proof that the policy is in full force and effect and proof of the named beneficiary, upon request by Kemalia.

TAXES/TAX CREDITS

21. Child Tax Credit. The parents will equally divide the child tax credits for the parties' minor children as follows:

16. a. When there are an odd number of minor children that qualify as tax credits, each party will claim an equal number of as tax credits, with Kimball entitled to claim the extra tax credit (youngest child) for odd numbered tax years and Kemalia entitled to claim the extra tax credit (youngest child) as a child tax credit for even numbered tax years.

17. b. When there are an equal number of minor children that qualify as tax credits, each party will claim an equal number of as tax credits.

18. c. Kimball's right to claim the children will only be given to him if he is current in his child support obligations by December 31st for the year that he is claiming the children as dependents for tax purposes.

22. Tax Returns. Kemalia and Kimball will file a joint return for their 2025 Federal and State income taxes. Any income tax refund received or tax liability incurred will be equally shared between them.

ALIMONY

23. Alimony. Kemalia is awarded alimony in the sum of $750 per month from Kimball, commencing on November 1, 2025, and continuing for half the length of the marriage, or until the occurrence of any of the following events: the death of either party, Kemalia's remarriage, or Kemalia's cohabitation with another person, whichever occurs first. Said support is payable in two equal installments, with one-half due on the 7th day of each month and the remaining one-half due on the 22nd day of each month.

PROPERTY

24. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties are each awarded the personal property that is in his or her respective possession on the date of the Stipulation, or except where further specified as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2021 GMC Yukon XL Denali	Kemalia

a. Both parties will cooperate with each other in distributing the personal property.

25. Bank/Financial Accounts. During the marriage the parties acquired various bank and financial accounts which are awarded as follows:

Account Description:	Approx. Balance	Awarded to:
Zions Bank Joint Account	Balance	½ each

a. Each party will receive his or her own bank accounts. The Zions Bank joint account will be closed within 10 days of the date of the Stipulation.

b. The parties will cooperate to sign any necessary documents to transfer accounts to the individuals awarded the account above (if applicable), by no later than 10 days from the signing of the Stipulation.

26. Real Property. The parties acquired no real property during the course of this marriage, nor do they presently own an interest in real property.

DEBTS

27. Debts. Kemalia and Kimball acquired debts during the marriage. Each will assume, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Creditor	Approx. Balance	Obligation of:
Wells Fargo (Denali loan)	$50,000	Kemalia
Kemalia's Efinancial (student loan)	Balance	Kemalia
Mountainland Collections (Medical debt)	$10,000	½ each
Regional Financials loan	Balance	Kimball
Check City loan	Balance	Kimball
Back rent	$9,000	½ each
Credit cards (his)	Balance	Kimball
Credit cards (hers)	Balance	Kemalia
Retirement loan	Balance	Kimball

a. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts.

b. Other Debts. Each party will be responsible to pay any other debt he or she individually incurred. If any other joint debts are later discovered and not stated and divided herein, the person incurring the debt will be solely responsible for the payment thereof and will hold the other party harmless therefrom.

c. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce of joint debtors, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

d. Notification to Creditors. The parties may notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

e. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

28. Retirement. Kimball has retirement, pension, 401 (k), stock, stock options, and/or profit-sharing plans through his place of employment or otherwise. Kemalia will receive one-half of all benefits and accounts accrued pursuant to such plans during the marriage and her share will include gains, losses, earnings, and interest from the date of the Decree to the date of account segregation.

a. If there are loans associated with any of the plans subject to division, Kimball will pay the balance of said loan. Kimball represents there have been no withdrawals from the retirement for no less than one year prior to the date the Petition for Divorce was filed but, if any withdrawals were made, Kemalia will receive one-half of any such withdrawals. Kimball specifically warrants that he has no other such retirement plans.

b. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order will be prepared by Moody Brown Law. Within 15 days after the Decree of Divorce is entered, Kimball will provide a retirement statement showing the balance as of the date the Decree is entered. Each party will pay one-half the cost of the total cost of preparation and one-half of all processing fees. To simplify calculations, the parties will use the ending balance of the December 31, 2025 quarter statement from each plan being included in the award. The parties understand it is their responsibility to cause that the appropriate Qualified Domestic Relations Order(s) be prepared. The parties understand that the cost must be paid prior to the preparation of the QDRO. Kimball is enjoined from withdrawing, transferring, pledging, or borrowing such benefits until an entry and acceptance of all appropriate QDROs by Plan Administrators. In the event that Kimball receives any of the benefits awarded to Kemalia from these accounts as indicated within this paragraph, Kimball will receive that benefit in the form of a constructive trust for Kemalia, and Kimball is ordered to pay the benefit directly to Kemalia within thirty days of its receipt.

MUTUAL RESTRAINT

29. Father and Mother are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or parent time which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Father and Mother are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. Father and Mother are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph, and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation, or will remove the child from such circumstances.

30. Both parties are restrained from making visitation arrangements through the children or from using a minor child as a messenger.

31. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identity or financial standing post-divorce. The parties are restrained from making public comments, sharing posts, or posting photos about each other or the divorce proceedings on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. in order to protect the privacy of both parties and avoid any public airing of grievances or details about divorce,

32. All contact and communication between the parties will be via email or text, except for medical emergencies; which may be and will be communicated via telephone immediately.

33. Both parties are restrained from coming to the home, work place, or places where the other party is known to be present without the other party's express permission. Prearranged parent-time exchanges are an express exception to this restraint.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

34. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each of the parties will assume and pay their own attorney fees and cost.

35. Former Name. Kemalia is restored to her former name of Kemalia-Kaopahele Tunaka Aikau. The Court will enter an Order of Name Change, if necessary.

35. Each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision will be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation will therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Agreement to be drafted. The Parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

36. The parties understand that their attorneys do not offer legal advice as to the tax implications herein and are aware that they have the right to seek advice from a tax expert as to the specific tax consequences to them prior to signing the Stipulation.

37. Both parties will sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

38. Resolution. Except for exigent circumstances or enforcement, the parties will participate in mediation prior to initiating litigation in the court.

39. Arrearages. This order resolves all claims either party has against the other including but not limited to past alimony, child support, out-of-pocket medical expenses, out-of-pocket medical premiums, reimbursement for travel expenses and any other financial claims through the date of the signing of the Stipulation.

40. Full Disclosure. Each party warrants that they have provided a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. This means that both individuals are affirming they've fully disclosed all their financial matters, ensuring transparency in the division of assets and responsibilities.

a. Consequences of Non-Disclosure: Any deliberate failure to disclose financial information fully could be considered perjury, a criminal offense. This highlights the seriousness of honest and complete disclosure during divorce proceedings.

b. Scope of Property: The property referred to in the stipulation includes all property to which either party has any legal or equitable interest, whether owned individually or jointly with the other party. This ensures that all assets, regardless of ownership type (joint or separate), are accounted for in the division.

c. In short, this provision seeks to ensure transparency, full financial disclosure, and accountability from both parties in the divorce process. It also establishes that any deliberate concealment or misrepresentation could have legal repercussions

41. The above-referenced court has jurisdiction to make a final determination in this action. The court has authority to enter final documents and a Decree based on the Stipulation of the parties.

42. The Stipulation of the parties became effective when signed by all parties.
