Attorneys for Justin Marshall Cooper

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: CAMILLE COOPER as Petitioner, and, JUSTIN MARSHALL COOPER as Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case Number: 264400342 Judge: Honorable Denise M. Porter Commissioner: Marian Ito

This matter came before this Honorable Court on Petitioner, Camille Cooper ("Camille")'s Petition for Divorce against Respondent, Justin Cooper ("Justin") for the Court to make Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and with good cause appearing, the parties are each awarded a divorce from the other, and it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. The parties are each awarded a divorce from the other.

2. Children: There are 3 minor children of this marriage: E.J.C., 09/11/2010; R.G.C., 02/02/2015; B.M.C., 09/25/2020

3. Legal Custody & Parenting Plan: Both parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children and use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby

4. Information Sharing: Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the children's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided to all third parties who interact with the children (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, childcare, etc.). The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the children so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.).The parties will keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments of the children. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.

5. Religious Rites/Ordinances: The children shall receive any ordinances or religious advancements at the appropriate age. The Father shall be given the first right to perform such ordinances if he is deemed worthy by his bishop

6. Smart Phones: The parties will mutually agree on when the children will receive smart phones and the associated safety, filters, screentime limits and other safety precautions.

7. Decisions: Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the children's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education.

8. Dispute Resolution: If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the children, then the Mother will make the final decision, subject to the Father's right to file a motion in court and schedule a hearing, and the court will decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child.

9. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties will obtain separate passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor children in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time. The children will attend school based on the Mother's residence.

10. Contact Information: The parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change.

11. Communication between Parents: All communication between the parties shall be primarily via text, email or an agreed-upon parenting app. All communication between the parties shall be civil in nature and only pertaining to child-related issues. Communication regarding the minor children will be directly between the parents and will not involve third parties. Medical emergencies shall be communicated immediately to the other parent by whatever means possible to reasonably alert the other to the situation as soon as possible.

12. Communication with Children: Communication between a parent and the children (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, and shall be unmonitored. If the parties disagree on what is reasonable, the Father may have 2 brief check-in calls per week (on Wednesdays and Thursdays), plus 2 hours virtual time on his Tuesday mid-week time (if he is not exercising it in person), plus an hour on Wednesday evenings if the children are available. If the children are not available when a parent calls, then the party with parent time will initiate or have the children initiate return contact as soon as possible the same day, but not later than 24 hours. The children may initiate contact with either parent at any reasonable times and durations.

13. Travel: When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

14. Physical Custody: The Mother is awarded primary physical custody of the minor children, subject to parent time with the Father as the parties may agree, and if they are unable to agree, parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-302. The Father elects Tuesdays as his mid-week parent time day. The parties will alternate weekends from Fridays to Sundays. See Utah Code 81-9-302 for further details. The Father may also take one of his alternate weekends per month for 3 overnights. Parent time with E.J.C. is optional and will take into account the child's desires.

15. Holiday Parent Time: Holidays shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the parties will use holiday schedule in Utah Code 81-9-302 summarized in the following table. If there are differences in the table below and the statutory holidays—as they are amended from time to time—then the updated statutory terms apply.

16. Summer Parent Time: Extended parent time during the summer will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-302 (2 weeks for the Mother and 4 weeks for the Father). Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended summer parent-time as follows:

a. Priority in odd-numbered years: the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 1, and the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 15; and

b. Priority in even-numbered years: the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 1 and the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 15.

c. Failure to Timely Comply: If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

d. First to Comply has Priority: If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

17. Exchanges: The parties will share transportation for parent time exchanges as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, they will meet at an approximate mid-point, currently taking place at the Maverick #533 in Wellsville, Utah.

18. Moves: If a party intends to relocate the children 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent, the relocating parent shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. See Utah Code 81-9-209.

19. Mutual Restraining Orders:

a. Disparaging: Both parties shall be restrained from demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent in the presence of the minor children. As used in this subparagraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

b. Mutual Respect: The parties shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children.

c. No Involvement in Legal Case: Both parties are restrained from discussing any legal or financial issues in this case with the children.

d. Not Use Children as Messengers: The parties will not use the children to send messages to the other about parent time arrangements, parent time adjustments, or related to financial issues, but will communicate such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the children.

e. Undue Influence: Both parties are restrained from attempting to influence the children’s preference regarding custody or parent time.

f. Interrogation: Neither parent shall question, interrogate or “pump,” the minor children about the other parent’s activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money.

g. Corporal Punishment: Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children.

h. Harassment and Abuse: Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children.

i. Substance Abuse: Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 12 hours prior to or during parent time with the children.

j. Guns: Neither party will possess guns or ammunition at the residence or in their cars while a child is present unless they are secured in a child-proof gun safe.

k. Third Parties: Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

20. Child Support: The Mother is not employed but agrees to be imputed $1,257 per month for child support purposes. The Father is employed at a fairly new job and agrees to be imputed income of $8,000 per month for only child support purposes. Effective August 1, 2026, child support is awarded to the Mother from the Father in the amount of $1,558 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. The issue of child support for E.J.C. past the usual emancipation date will be reserved and reviewed by the parties or the court when the child is near her 18th birthday.

21. Child Support Arrearages: There is no child support owed to or by either party for any time periods prior to August 1, 2026.

22. Childcare: Utah Code 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements with family members are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. A party using family members to provide childcare will not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs. The parties will share the contact information of all childcare providers with the other parent and share the contact information of both parents with the childcare provider.

23. First Right: Each parent will have the first right to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children is not available for a period of 3 hours or longer during their parent time. The parent exercising the first right must be personally available, willing to provide the transportation, and shall return the children when the other becomes available. This provision is not intended to prevent the minor children from attending occasional overnight with a grandparent, camps, playdates, or other reasonable activities for the child when the parent exercising parent time is otherwise available.

24. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children, as defined by Utah Code 81-6-101. If insurance for medical and dental expenses is available or becomes available to either parent at reasonable cost, and is accessible to the children, the parent(s) shall be responsible for maintaining insurance for their dependent children. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall do so. Currently, the Father is providing medical insurance. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the children's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 81-6-208. If, in the future, any child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Father shall be primary, and the coverage of the Mother will be secondary.

25. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208.

26. Division of Accounts. When a parent is arranging for and making payment for medical, school, childcare or other activities, the parent may request that the provider create separate accounts for each party to pay their respective half of the costs separately. See Utah Code 81-6-208

27. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the children attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the children attend during his or her parent time.

28. School Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket public-school expenses for the minor children incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

29. Divorce Education Classes: If either party has not taken the required divorce classes, he or she will do so within 30 days and provide proof to the other party and to the court.

30. Taxes: Any claims about taxes for the 2025 and all previous tax years are resolved. The parties shall file separate tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and thereafter.

a. When there is an odd-number of children eligible to be claimed for a particular tax year, then the Father will claim the extra child on his tax returns for the even-numbered tax years, and the Mother will claim the extra child on her tax returns for the odd-numbered tax years. When there is an even number of children eligible to be claimed on the tax returns for a particular tax year, then the parties will each claim an equal number of children on his/her returns for that tax year.

b. A party's right to claim any children on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to being current on all child support obligations by December 31st of the particular tax year. A party's right to claim any child on any tax return for any particular tax year is subject to a party receiving a tax benefit in a particular tax year. If a party cannot claim a child on his/her tax return for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her return for that year. See Utah Code 81-6-210.

31. Alimony: Effective August 1, 2026, Justin shall pay Camille alimony of $1,292 per month. Alimony support shall be paid one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. Alimony shall automatically and permanently terminate (1) after 13 years, (2) upon the remarriage of Camille, (3) upon the cohabitation of Camille with another person, or (4) upon the death of either party, whichever occurs first.

32. Real Property: The parties sold their marital home and the proceeds have already been divided to the parties' satisfaction. All other issues regarding the marital home are considered resolved by both parties.

33. Vehicles: Camille is awarded the Buick Enclave along with any associated insurance, and expenses relating thereto. Justin is awarded the Chevy Tahoe, the Yamaha Grizzly ATV, the Jayco RV, and the utility trailer along with any associated insurance, and expenses relating thereto.

34. Personal Property: All other personal property not otherwise distributed herein shall be awarded to each of the parties as they have heretofore divided such and is now in his or her possession or control as of September 15, 2026.

35. Bank Accounts: Any joint bank or credit union accounts still active shall be closed as soon as possible. Each party is awarded any other bank or credit union account(s) in his or her sole name as his or her separate property, free and clear of any claim of the other.

36. Debts: The debts will be paid as follows:

Creditor:	In Whose Name:	Approximate Balance:	To Be Paid by:
MACU credit card	Joint	$7,800	Camille 100%
John Farley dental	Justin	$5,000	Justin 100%
Home Depot credit card	Justin	$4,000	Justin 100%
Affirm/Upstart	Justin	$3,800	Justin 100%
Student	Justin	$21,000	Justin 100%

Loans
Lowes credit card	Justin	$2,700	Justin 100%
AFCU credit card	Justin	$5,800	Justin 100%

a. Other Debts: Any and all other debts and obligations, not otherwise distributed herein or acquired after separation, shall be assigned and paid for by the party in whose name such debts appear. Each party will hold the other harmless on the debts ordered to be paid by him or her.

b. Joint Debt Limit and Refi Obligation: No additional amounts of debt may be added to or charged to any debt, credit card, or line of credit that is associated with or in the opposing party's name without his or her written consent.

37. Retirement Accounts: Each party warrants that neither party has any known retirement, 401k, IRA, or any other retirement-like plans, benefits, or accounts.

38. Former Name: Camille shall be granted the right to a name change in a final decree, if she so desires.

39. Documentation Cooperation: Upon request, each party shall be ordered to sign any and all documents that are required to implement the provisions herein, including but not limited to titles, deeds, bank documents to close or transfer accounts, etc.

40. Mediation: Prior to or concurrent with a petition to modify being filed, the parties must first make an offer to resolve the issue through mediation, and mediation will be scheduled promptly and both parties will share the cost equally. If both parties agree, mediation may be utilized, but will not be required for exigent circumstances or enforcement actions. This provision does not apply to the State of Utah, Office of Recovery Services.

41. Attorney Fees: Each party will pay his or her respective attorney fees and costs incurred.
