Attorneys for David Bauerle

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH COUNTY
STATE OF UTAH
137 North Freedom Blvd, Provo, UT 84601

In the matter of the marriage of: DAVID BAUERLE, Petitioner, and AMBER SHAREE BAUERLE, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 254401249 Judge Pullan Commissioner Ito

This matter comes before the court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Stipulation of the parties was previously filed. The Court having reviewed the Stipulation and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

GROUNDS AND JURISDICTION

1. 1. The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing by and between the Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved, and the Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court in the Register of Actions.

2. Residency: The Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics: The parties were married on 2/28/2003 in Salt Lake City, Utah, United States and are presently married.

CHILD CUSTODY

4. Children. The parties have the following minor children.

2. Name	3. Date of Birth
4. H.B.	5. May 2009
6. I.B.	7. June 2011

5. Child Custody Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make the initial child custody determination pursuant to U.C.A. §81-11-201, et seq. The children have resided in Utah for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this proceeding, and Utah is the home state of the children. A court of another state does not have jurisdiction over the children, and the children and at least one parent have a significant connection with Utah, and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the children's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

CUSTODY/PARENTING PLAN

6. 1Custody/Parent time. The parties will share joint physical and legal custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. The parties are working with a therapist to help transition parent-time. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

a. The Father's alternating weekend shall extend Friday after school (or 9 a.m. if school is not in session) until Monday morning with the exchange at school (or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.)

b. The Father shall have a midweek after school (or 9 a.m. if school is not in session) until 8:30 p.m. The midweek shall have an optional overnight as agreed upon by the parties or recommended by the Special Master.

c. The parties will use a Special Master to transition the parent-time in conjunction with the Family Systems Therapist.

d. The Father shall receive up to four weeks in two-two week periods when school is not in session at the option of the Father, including weekends normally exercised by the Mother, but not holidays; the two-two week periods shall be uninterrupted time for the Father separated by at least two weeks; The Mother shall also have two uninterrupted weeks in the summer.

7. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. The Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and the Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

9. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties.
    a. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, both parties shall do a formal statement to the other party including the following:
        i. The neutral observation of what has occurred.
        ii. The need of the child or the parent
        iii. The applicable law or paragraph of Decree or Order
        iv. The proposed resolution
    b. The parties shall then attempt to mutually agree after formal statements are given.
    c. The parties shall utilize a Special Master with each party paying as designated in the Special Master Order.
10. Social Media. The Court Order from August 27, 2025 and September 2, 2025 regarding Tik Tok and Social Media of the minor daughter shall remain in full force and effect.
11. Special Master. Father shall choose three special masters and Mother shall choose one from the list within 7 days of receipt. If Mother does not respond in 7 days of receipt, Father can choose one from the list. Each party shall pay the retainer within 30 days of choosing the Special Master. The parties agree to sign the standard Special Master Agreement and shall pay the fees as set forth in the agreement.
12. Medical.

i. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician, Alpine Pediatrics, as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending doctor.

ii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

13. Educational Plan. The children shall continue to attend American Fork High School, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

14. Therapy. The parties agree that the children and parents shall attend Family Systems Therapy with Christy Kane's office until released by the therapist or mutually agreed upon by the parties. The parties shall participate in therapy as recommended by the therapist. The parties will set aside $10,000 from the home sell in an account to pay for therapy. Any amount that is left over will be equally divided. Any amount in excess will be paid with each party shall pay one-half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. The parties will follow the recommendations of the child's therapist.

15. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.
16. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.
17. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.
18. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:
    a. An itinerary of travel dates;
    b. Destination;
    c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

19. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

20. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

21. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

22. Mutual Restraining.

    a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent.

Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

23. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

24. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

25. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

26. Transportation for the Children. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time will provide all of the transportation.

27. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

CHILD SUPPORT

28. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-201 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $7,000 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $20,083 per month. For the purposes of Child Support only, the Mother has 245 overnights and the Father has 120 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation should be $1,607 per month. Child support shall commence the month after the home is sold. This has been calculated on just one child since the oldest child is a Senior in High School. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

29. 2Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

    a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

    b. 4Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

    c. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

30. Childcare Expenses. Childcare expenses are not anticipated due to the age of the child.

TAXES

31. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

    a. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother will claim the oldest child and Father will claim the youngest child.

    b. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

    c. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

32. Entry. Consistent with Utah Code §81-4-406(6), the Decree of Divorce shall not be considered absolute until January 2, 2027, so that the parties can elect the option to cooperatively file joint taxes together for 2026. Mother shall also remain on Father's health insurance through January 2027 and she shall be responsible for her per capita premium for November, December and January.

ALIMONY

33. Alimony: The Father shall pay Mother $2,893 per month for a term of 11 years unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments will be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony will commenced on October 1, 2025. The amount herein will be begin to be paid the month after the home sells.

34. Interim Support. The parties will continue the payment arrangement outlined in the Temporary Orders through the end of the month that the home is sold. The month after the home sells, the parties will abide by the Child Support and alimony as described herein. Mother shall reimburse Father the difference in the support paid from her direct benefit under the Temporary Orders and the alimony and child support outlined herein in the interim period from November 1, 2026 through the month the home sells. If there is a dispute on this amount, the parties shall use the Special Master to resolve the dispute.

PROPERTY

35. Brighton Lot. Father asserts that the parties have no interest in a Brighton Lot.

36. Real Property.

    a. The parties are selling their home located at 9702 N. Eagle View Highland Utah 84003 for a reasonable market value price. The Mother is awarded use of the home until it sells. The parties agree to use Brad Byington and shall sign the listing agreement no later than November 15, 2026. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Any costs recommended by the Realtor and paid by only one party, shall be reimbursed in the sale of the home. Otherwise, the parties shall each pay one-half of any recommended or agreed to costs. The Father will reasonably aid in disposing of unwanted personal property in the home. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

ii. Second, the mortgages shall be paid;

iii. Third, the debt to the sister-in-law for cheer and HVAC debt shall be paid and the two marital Citibank cards as described herein.

iv. Thereafter, the equity is equally divided between the parties.

v. From Father's equity, Mother shall receive from Father $198,500 for the equity payment in the American Fork Home.

vi. From Mother's equity, Father shall receive from Mother; $500 for the insurance deductible, $825 for the prior mediation in 2025, and any amounts owing from the interim support offset as designated herein.

b. The property located at 973 East 1000 North American Fork, Utah 84003 will be awarded to the Father with all debts and liabilities . The Father shall hold the other party harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home. The Father is awarded all equity therefrom subject to the equity payment as listed herein.

37. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:

2020 Ford F350 Him Motorcycle 2018 KTM Moto	Father
2022 Hyundai Palisade	Mother
2009 Malibu Boat	Sold and Split
2006 Ford F-150	Sold and Split
2012 Ford E350	Awarded to oldest son
Personal Effects	Each Own

a. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they utilize the Special Master within 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. After 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce or as mutually agreed upon in writing otherwise, each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

DEBTS

38. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debts in Father's Name	Father
Debts in Mother's Name	Mother
The marital debt on the two separate Citibank cards will be paid from the home proceeds. Any amounts owing that are more than the amount due as of the date of filing the Petition shall be paid by the party who incurred the additional debt. The statement for the two Citibank cards from the date of petition through October 31, 2026 shall be given no later than November 15, 2026.

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

FINANCIAL AND RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

39. Stocks and RSU.

a. The parties agree each will be awarded one-half of the net proceeds from the marital stock of ESPP and the marital portion of vested and unvested RSUs accrued during the marriage. The unvested portion shall be calculated with Total Months Married During Vesting as numerator and Total Months of Vesting as denominator. This fraction is the marital portion in which each party is entitled to one-half of the net. The RSUs and stocks existing at the date of the Decree shall be given within 15 days of the court signing the Decree. This shall be given within 7 days of receiving the funds and also with a receipt of the amount of stock distributed. If there is a dispute, the parties shall utilize the Special Master.

b. The order from September 2, 2025 regarding RSU and deferred compensation and bonuses will be in full force and effect through October 29, 2026. This shall be paid no later than the time the home equity is distributed to the parties, if any. If there is a dispute, the parties shall utilize the Special Master.

40. Financial Accounts.

a. The following accounts are awarded to Mother:

i. John Hancock in Mother's Name
ii. Other bank account in Mother's Name

b. The following accounts are awarded to Father:

Fidelity Roll Over IRA 4133
Fidelity DOMO 401k 76982
Lumen 2613
Other bank accounts in Father's name

41. Retirement Accounts: Mother shall receive $325,000 as a sum certain amount of Father's John Hancock 401k Retirement. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any. The parties will cooperate and give any information or signatures within five business days of request.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

42. Name: Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Williams.

43. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce. The parties will cooperate and give any information or signatures within five business days of request.

44. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of this stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. This Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

45. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

46. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

47. Final Stipulation: This Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of this Stipulation shall have any force or effect. The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses but waive this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in this stipulation.

48. Waiver. The parties agree that any financial amounts owing one from the other are hereby waived as of October 29, 2026. The parties also waive any claims against one another prior to October 29, 2026.

49. The above-referenced court has jurisdiction to make a final determination in this action. The court has authority to enter final documents and a Decree based on the Stipulation of the parties.
