Attorney - Mediator
Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, FARMINGTON DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of CHANTEL WARNER, Petitioner, and TYLER WARNER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264700392 Judge: Ronald Russell Commissioner: Christina Wilson

The Petitioner, Chantel Warner, and the Respondent, Tyler Warner, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: P.J.W. (born May 2017) and E.E.W. (March 2021).
2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.
3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a 2-2-3 rotating schedule with Respondent exercising parent time on Wednesday and Thursdays and Petitioner exercising parent time on Monday and Tuesdays. Parties will alternate weekends, Friday through Sunday. Exchanges to occur with Respondent dropping minor children off at school on Friday mornings or 9:00 AM if school is not in session and it is Petitioner's weekend. Petitioner will drop minor children off to school on Wednesday mornings or no later than 9:00 AM if school is not in session. The parent-time schedules and exchange times referenced herein may be modified or adjusted by mutual agreement of the parties. Any agreed variation shall be confirmed in writing by both parties (including text message, email, or co-parenting application) prior to implementation.

4. Each parent is entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted parent-time each calendar year. The two-week period does not need to be consecutive and is not limited to the summer months. Petitioner shall have first choice of dates in calendar years ending in an even number, and Respondent shall have first choice in calendar years ending in an odd number. Uninterrupted parent-time shall not interfere with the other parent's designated holiday parent-time unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing. The parties agree that uninterrupted parent-time may be scheduled at any time during the year, provided the requesting parent gives at least thirty (30) days' advance notice and the arrangement is confirmed in writing. Shorter notice periods may be permitted if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Provisions relating to uninterrupted parent-time are negotiable between the parties, provided any modification or deviation from this section is mutually agreed upon and confirmed in writing (including text message, email, or co-parenting application).

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they do not agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time as outlined below. If one parent wishes to spend time with the children on a holiday assigned to the other parent, they may coordinate additional time, including a partial-day visit, by mutual agreement and with reasonable advance notice.

6. The minor children shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $2,500.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $16,000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $2,500.00 with 183 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $16,000.00 with 182 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Respondent shall be ordered to pay Petitioner the sum of $898.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Respondent's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Petitioner's shall be considered secondary.

b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, & MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor children:

- a. Cell phones
- b. Car insurance
- c. School fees and costs
- d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the children participate are approved.

e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

15. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes as follows:

- a. As long as there are two minor children, Petitioner will claim E.E.W. each year and Respondent will claim P.J.W. each year.
- b. When only one minor child remains, the parties will alternate years with Petitioner claiming E.E.W. in odd years and Respondent claiming E.E.W. in even years.

16. For the Respondent to claim a minor child, he must be current on all his child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

18. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. All household furnishings, fixtures, and personal property currently located in the home shall remain with Respondent.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Petitioner	Awarded to Respondent	Other
2020 Toyota 4Runner	X		Petitioner shall be responsible for the loan against this vehicle.

19. Petitioner shall transfer the vehicle into her sole name within sixty (60) days from receiving payment her portion of the equity from the home.

REAL PROPERTY

20. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain parcels of real property, including but not limited to:

a. Home located at 609 S Alberta Spruce Drive, Layton, UT 84041

21. Respondent is awarded sole ownership of the home. The Parties agree that the fair market value of the home is $704,000.00. Equity shall be calculated by subtracting the outstanding mortgage balance(s) on the home as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce from the agreed value of $704,000.00.

22. After accounting for all bank accounts, retirement accounts, and other financial balances between the parties, the total agreed-upon equalization amount owed to Petitioner is $192,000.00.

23. Respondent shall pay Petitioner one-half (1/2) of the net equity and the agreed equalization amount as follows:

a. Respondent shall first pursue a home equity line of credit (HELOC) and shall apply for such financing within sixty (60) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. Upon approval and funding of the HELOC, Respondent shall immediately pay Petitioner the available proceeds toward the equalization amount.

b. If the HELOC is not approved or does not fully satisfy the equalization amount, Respondent shall obtain a loan in the minimum amount of $100,000.00 and apply those funds toward the equalization obligation.

c. If, after obtaining such loan, a remaining balance of approximately $92,000.00 remains due, Respondent shall make ongoing payments to Petitioner until the full equalization amount of $192,000.00 has been paid in full. The parties shall agree in writing to the payment amount, frequency, and method. If the parties are unable to agree, they shall attend mediation.

d. If Respondent is unable to obtain either a HELOC or the above-referenced loan, the home shall be listed for sale. The property shall be listed within thirty (30) days of such determination, and the parties shall cooperate in good faith with the sale and defer to the reasonable recommendations of the realtor. Upon sale, the net proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with the terms of this Decree.

24. Respondent shall be solely responsible for all costs and liabilities associated with the home until the home is sold or Petitioner has been paid her share of the equity, and shall hold Petitioner harmless from any liability related thereto.

25. The parties shall sign any quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary to transfer title or ownership of the property within sixty (60) days of Petitioner receiving her ½ share of the equity.

26. Petitioner may secure a rental residence for her use pending finalization of the divorce. Respondent may assist with payment of certain rental-related expenses during this interim period. Any amounts paid by Respondent toward Petitioner's rental housing shall be subject to reimbursement as mutually agreed in writing by the parties, including the amount and timing of any reimbursement.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING, STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

27. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

28. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

Account Description	Petitioner will Receive	Respondent will Receive	Other
Wells Fargo bank accounts			The values of these accounts have ending 7277 and 5803, and Utah First Savings Account			already been accounted for in the $192,000 HELOC amount.

Elevate 401(k)		100%	The values\ of this account has already been accounted for in the $192,000 HELOC amount.
Robinhood investment account		100%	The values of this account has already been accounted for in the $192,000 HELOC amount,

29. Retirement and or investment accounts divided by percentage are awarded subject to gains and losses.

30. If necessary, a Qualified Domestic Relation Order (QDRO) or Domestic Relations Order (DRO) shall be prepared to divide these accounts. Any fees associated with the above orders shall be split evenly between the parties.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

31. During the course of the marriage the parties incurred certain marital debt; this debt shall be divided as set forth below.

Debt Description	Petitioner's Responsibility	Respondent's Responsibility	Other
Wells Fargo Signature Cash Back Visa credit card ending 7733	50%	50%	This card shall be paid in full with funds from the parties bank accounts. Once card has been paid in full, Respondent shall be responsible for the account.
Costco Anywhere Visa by Citi credit card ending 5719	50%	50%	This card shall be paid in full with funds from the parties bank accounts. Once card has been paid in full, Respondent shall be responsible for the account.

Delta SkyMiles Gold credit card ending 4482	50%	50%	This card shall be paid in full with funds from the parties bank accounts. Once card has been paid in full, Respondent shall be responsible for the account.
Petitioner's student loans	100%

32. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

33. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

34. Respondent shall be ordered to pay alimony to Petitioner as follows:
- a. $2,000 per month for the first six (6) months;
 - b. $1,500 per month for the next six (6) months; and
 - c. $1,000 per month for the following twenty-four (24) months.
 - d. Alimony payments shall be paid by the fifth (5th) day of the month immediately following entry of the Decree of Divorce and by the fifth (5th) day of every month thereafter.
 - e. Alimony payments shall continue as outlined above or until Petitioner cohabitates or remarries, whichever occurs sooner. Petitioner has an obligation to notify Respondent of her cohabitation or remarriage and alimony shall cease upon Petitioner's cohabitation or remarriage. Alimony shall end in the event of the death of either party.

TAX RETURN

35. The parties shall file joint taxes for the 2025 tax year. Any refund or liability shall be divided equally between the parties. Parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

36. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

37. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

38. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

39. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

40. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached between the parties. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the "drafting party."

41. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

42. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.
43. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Goodrich if she so desires.

WARNER and WARNER

JOINT CUSTODY PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the children and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the children's physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions, however all Parenting Plan provisions may be modified by mutual agreement of the parties, provided the changes are documented in writing.

1. Co-Parenting Principles
 - a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the children.
 - b. Each parent shall support and encourage the children's meaningful relationship with the other parent.
 - c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.
2. Communication Between Parents
 - a. Primary communication shall occur via text or email, except in emergencies or time-sensitive situations.
 - b. Parents shall timely share important information regarding the children's schooling, health, social activities, and other relevant matters.

c. If information is available through public sources (e.g., school portals), each parent shall access it directly.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making

a. The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the children, including:

- i. Education and daycare
- ii. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care
- iii. Religious upbringing
- iv. Extracurricular activities

b. Decision-making process:

- i. Identify the issue
- ii. Develop possible solutions
- iii. Select the most reasonable solution in the children's best interests

4. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert. If they still do not agree;

b. They shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith mediation attempt may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

5. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the children's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

6. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

7. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the children at school, receive school communications, and check the children out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

8. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

9. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Both parties shall be informed of all travel involving the children, whether domestic or international, including destinations and the names of individuals involved in the travel plans.

b. Either parent may travel domestically with the minor children during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

c. Any international travel, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent's scheduled parent-time, must be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

d. When traveling with the children, the traveling parent shall also provide the following, as required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19):

i. Itinerary with travel dates

ii. Destination(s)

iii. Contact information

iv. Name/phone of a third party aware of the children's location.

10. Participation in Activities

a. Both parents may attend the children's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

11. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the children at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Children shall be ready on time for exchanges.

12. Contact Information

a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

13. Parent/Child Communication

a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.

b. The children may contact either parent at any time.

c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the children.

14. Right of First Refusal

a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.

b. If overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.

c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval. This list may be modified by mutual agreement in writing. If no agreement is reached, the parties will seek mediation at their own expense.

d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor children.

- e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

15. Conduct Around the Children

- a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the children's presence.
- b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the children.
- c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.

16. Introducing New Partners

- a. Both parties shall mutually agree on when it is appropriate to introduce the minor children to a new significant other.
- b. If a new significant other will provide care for the minor children in the absence of the parent, that individual must first be mutually approved in writing by both parties and added to the approved caregiver list prior to providing such care.

17. Shared Calendar

- a. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.

18. Substance Use Restrictions

- a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol to excess while caring for the children or prior to transporting them.
- b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the children's reach.

19. Enforcement and Non-Waiver

- a. A party's failure to comply with any provision does not release the other party from their obligations.
- b. All provisions remain enforceable unless modified by written agreement or court order.
